To: All persons interested in the Estate or in the Last Will and Testament of Timothy Duggan, Deceased, both creditors and heirs, devisees and legatees: You, and each of you, are hereby notified that on the 23rd day of March, A. D., 1944, James B. Ryan filed his petition in the county court of Holt County, Nebraska, alleging that Timothy Duggan, a resident, citizen and inhabitant of Roanoke, Woodford county, Illinois, died testate September 4th, A. D., 1935, seized and possessed of the Northeast Quarter of Section Twenty-nine; Southwest Quarter of Section Twenty-nine and the Northeast Quarter of Section Thirty-two, all in Township Twenty-nine, North, Range Twelve, West of the Sixth P. M., Holt County, Nebraska; that he left a last will and testament which was originally and legally admitted to probate in the County Court of Woodford County, Illinois, in which county Roanoke is situated, on September 14th, 1935; that under the terms of said will said real estate was devised to Nora Catherine Duggan; that petitioner is now the owner of said real estate by mesne conveyance from said Nora Catherine Duggan and as such is interested in said will and is entitled to have said will admitted to probate in Nebraska; that said will has not heretofore been presented for probate in the state of Nebraska and that more than two years have elapsed since the date of the death of Timothy Duggan; that all debts and legacies have been fully paid; that attached to the petition is an authenticated copy of said will and the probate thereof in Woodford County, Illinois; that the prayer of said petition is that the authenticated copy of said will be admitted to probate and allowed in Nebraska as the last will and testament of the said Timothy Duggan, Deceased; that regular administration of said estate be dispensed with and for a decree that said real estate descended free and clear of all debts and claims of every kind of the said Timothy Duggan, in accord with the terms of said will to Nora Catherine Duggan; that said estate is not subject to an inheritance tax and for such other and further relief as justice and equity may require.

DO THEY REALLY? Think Of The Other Fellow? Early one morning a farmer bought a horse in town and drove him home. All that day he used the new animal to plow his fields but at night he went home and left the horse standing in the field—without watering or feeding him or attempting to stable him for the night. The next day the farmer did the same thing, but when he came to the field the third morning he found the horse dead. This farmer was stupid enough to think that since he had paid for the horse, he had a right to the horse's labor without the duty of giving the poor animal food, rest and shelter.

Few of us have horses, but many of us have the farmer's fault. We have a strong tendency to define our own rights and the other's duties, but do not place much emphasis on the rights of others and our duties. For example some of us feel that we have the right to go into a credit store and buy things on the installment plan, but once the article has been delivered we seem to forget that the merchant has the right to be paid for his goods and that we have the duty to pay for them by collection agencies, it seems that a great many people suffer from forgetfulness in this matter.

Under the natural moral law, which is God's plan for rational creatures, man has certain rights and certain duties. For instance, man feels on Friday that he has a perfect right to ask God for temporal benefits and that He has the duty of supplying them. But when Sunday morning comes, man forgets that he has the duty of thanking God by attending services in church. And again, since a man has the right to work, it follows that society has the duty of giving him an opportunity to work. On the other hand, it is evident that an employer, be he an individual or the state, has the right to expect honest labor for the salary given and the duty of paying a just wage for that labor.

Common sense shows us that rights and duties must be complementary. Obviously rights have no meaning unless some one has duties. In our dealings with God and with our fellow man we should remember that when we insist on our own rights we should also pause to see whether others have their rights as well. Would it not be wonderful if everyone would learn to think of the other fellow?
