

Jumbo—a U. S. Signal Corps Man

A member of the American signal construction outfit is shown repairing a line from the back of an elephant. These slow-moving, patient animals are used to very good advantage in the swamplands at Assam, India, by native and Allied troops. The signal corps, under unusual conditions, have managed to install and keep open communication lines.

The Liberating Yanks Again Enter Paris

Just as in 1919, when Gen. John J. Pershing led the victory parade past the Arc de Triomphe on Bastille Day, a new generation of Yanks have entered the city of Paris. Behind General Pershing is 1st Lieut. W. J. Cunningham, bearing the General's standard, followed by Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord, chief of staff, A. E. F., and on the grey horse, Gen. George C. Marshall, present chief of staff, who was then Colonel Marshall, aide to General Pershing. Insert shows the first U. S. flag brought into Paris by the liberating Yanks in World War II. The U. S. troopers carried the flag through the streets.

Allies Passing World War I Old Battlegrounds

Map showing general direction of the twin drives of the U. S. Third army toward German territory. The arrows drive through the battlefields of World War I, where the fathers of present-day doughboys wrote a brilliant page of American military history. The column driving from Troyes (1) is believed to be headed for Luxembourg. The push that drove across the Marne (2) might yet spring a surprise and flank the rocket coast (3) from which the Germans launch their robots. Except in case of complete collapse, the going is expected to become tougher as Allies enter German territory.

Hengyang Field Falls to Japs

Photo was made during loss of Hengyang airfield, China, to the advancing Japs. Billowing clouds of smoke are spreading over the airfield. After Gen. C. L. Chennault's headquarters had issued orders to abandon the U. S. army 14th air base, the Japs moved in but found little of value for further operations.

Unrationed Meat

Civilians, residents of Ecouche, France, return to their homes and find a butcher shop open for business. They had fled to an abandoned chalk quarry when American artillery opened fire on their town to drive out the Nazis.

Nazi Prisoners in France

German prisoners of war, 10,000 strong, are herded into their new enclosure as they prepared for a visit as guests of the Allies. They were taken in Allied pincers drive in France. The total number of prisoners taken, it is believed, will exceed by far any previously captured by American and British units.

Their Best Friends

A couple of guys who can't resist a couple of puppies are Lieut. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, commander of U. S. ground forces in northern France, and Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, commander of all Allied ground forces in this area.

Truk Remains a Tough Target

Truk atoll still remains a formidable Jap central Pacific bastion. This photo was taken from one of the Seventh AAF Liberators attacking the air bases on Eten, Param and Moen, and the naval and seaplane bases on Dublon Island. The 25 miles of bomb-run over Truk is one of the most hazardous of any in the Central Pacific.

Raising Old Glory

The muzzle of a German gun makes an ideal socket for the flag staff as American soldiers raise "Old Glory" over the battered citadel of St. Malo. It was here that the German "Mad Colonel" held out for 11 days after St. Malo fell.

They Booted the Japs Off Guam

Once more in undisputed possession of Guam, first American possession snatched by the Japs after Pearl Harbor, Adm. Chester Nimitz and other high naval and marine corps officers look over the island. ### After a Robot Bomb Struck

Shy Guam Natives

A bare-footed old lady peeks over the shoulders of other Chamorro natives on Guam after the U. S. marines took over most of the island and the natives joined the Yanks.

Elephants Are Not Afraid Of Mice; Can't See Them

How would you like to be an elephant and carry those big heavy teeth called tusks around all day? You have heard a lot of things about an elephant that could scarcely be true. For instance, ever hear that elephants are afraid of mice? According to keepers of the zoo at Philadelphia, elephants pay no attention to mice. They probably don't even see them as their eyes are none too good. But, you say, elephants pick up peanuts with their trunks. They do, but that's no sign they see them. You see, an elephant's trunk tells him what is going on better than eyes or ears.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Sorting the contributions to the nation's scrap rubber drive has been a tremendous job. There are more than 75 types of rubber scrap, but most reclaimed rubber tonnage is derived from cars.

Rubber plantations covered over eight million acres on the outbreak of the war and had a potential production capacity of 1,400,000 long tons a year, according to rubber experts. Our synthetic rubber plants, some of which have already exceeded rated capacities, are expected to turn out over 1,000,000 long tons a year when operating at peak.
