crowd with many long runs and spectacular catches. Chambers scored early in the second quarter when the Adams Brothers teamed together and completed a pass, Bob to Jim, who carried it about 20 yards to score. Stuart then came back strong and scored just as the half ended 7-6 in Chambers' favor.

The third quarter found both teams surging back and forth in midfield. As the fourth quarter opened, Cooke, of Chambers, snared a Stuart pass on his 30-yard line, sidestepped and whirled his way toward the goal, picking up ample blockers to carry him across for another tally. Stuart, not to be outdone, also scored again on splendid cross bucks and short passes. They failed to score on either try for point, so Chambers still held the edge at 14-12. The dying moments were full of thrills and a last minute pass by Stuart nearly upset the Chambers lead, but a dandy tackle by Max Farrier saved the day as the whistle sounded the end of the fray.
