SMALL DOSES PAST AND PRESENT

By Romaine Saunders
Atkinson, Neb.

Bernard Kennedy received 50 cents under $80 for a 600-pound hog at the sale ring last week.

Maybe he doesn't mean it that way, but Candidate Roosevelt's recent snappish crack cracks sound like a peevish old man.

Whatever else may be said of Chicago's Boss Kelly, he is a rather handsome old gent, now 67 with a cool million in his roll.

Day coaches with Pullman car comforts are a R. R. promise. Trust they are on the rails crossing north Nebraska the next time.

The Raymond Bly family expect to "move in" to new quarters at their home, having built a two-room addition to the ranch house.

For a people who numerically figure up to about one per cent of the world's total, the J-w come in for about 50 per cent of the world's worries.

Don't try to hoodwink Uncle Sam. A gent down at the capitol city tried it when he bought stolen food stuff from he army air base and got kicked for $1,000 in federal court.

If Mr. Truman can make no stronger heart appeal than that there is no telling what the sacrifice of life would be with a war president like the republican nominee, maybe he had just as well sit down.

Cattle are being moved to market in large numbers from the grass lands. Ranchers in Swan precinct are not all depending on trucks for the movement of herds, which are being hazed along over the trails to the railroad on saddle horses.

Mrs. Addison returned Monday from Omaha. She reports Lyle, who was seriously injured when run over on the road south of Amelia, on a fair way to recovery. His neck was broken and is now in a cast. He will have to remain in the hospital for some weeks.

From the European war front comes word that the Allied armies expect to be in the fox holes another Christmas. The home front intimates that maybe the million and a half available civilians may be called into service. Let us know the worst. Or is it bond sales talk?

The gentleman from Missouri mated up with Mr. Roosevelt is quoted as saying: "I'm a brick at a bureaucrat in Washington and the odds are 2 to 1 you'll hit a republican." To bring a semblance of order to the New Deal muddle an S. O. S. call was shouted to republicans from the White House.

She got aboard a street car in a swanky residential district. Blue bloods are not using automobiles now. Ear adornments the size of half dollars, red lips which suggested a dip into a keg of barn paint with a brush and held to her mouth and the fragrance of powder puffs were the noticeable things as she breezed down the aisle to a seat.

He was a very proper young man. With great dignity he was moving toward me on the concrete along a college campus. Erect as a poker I wondered if a rib would crack or face split if he was made to laugh. Thought I better not try—then couldn't refrain "Hi, there! Hello!" It was the greeting we use on the prairie. There was a slight hitch in the young man's dignified stride, a look of amazement—was it alarm. A few strides past me he ventured with cultured voice and faultless modulation, "Good evening."

Indian summer days, aflame with color, cloudless skies aglow at night with celestial glory, have merged into the harsher stages of autumn. Between the pink of dawn and the red and gold of sunset winds are stripping the trees of the yellow plumage of autumn and dry leaves flutter at our feet. Denuded branches form intricate designs in heavy mass where recently hung the velvet cluster of summer's green foliage. There is sighing in the breeze that sucks at chimney tops as if in mourning over faded beauties. The brown earth, the blue haze in early morning resting on distant hills, crimson flame on vines and bushes, the flutter of wings as prairie chickens rise in the wind now moaning through bare trees a funeral dirge, the morning landscape in powdered beauty—each season brings a fresh touch of beauty and throbs in song of awakened life or vibrates a mournful lay as dead leaves fall.

The operation was successful and she is now feeling fine, which is a pleasing news to her many friends. Her sister, Mrs. William Fisher, of Walton, Neb., came home with them and will visit for about a month at the Grothe home.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank those who helped us in so many different ways during the illness and death of our dear husband and father; also for the beautiful offerings. Mrs. Anna Smith and Family.

Politics in Holt county isn't what it used to be. A long list of local patriots raised the dust on prairie trails as they went across this empire and gave the glad hand—on occasion a jug—to the gents out on the sod. Hank McEvony, Charley Manville, Ed Butler, Charles Hamilton, J. P. Mullen, Charley Hall, John Skirving, B. S. Gillespie, Art Mullen, Jim Harnish—some of these boys could make the eagle scream and the other fellows squirm when they had a meeting out in a country school house. There were present lieutenants like Bill Lell over east of Chambers, Zeb Warner up northwest, John Hopkins out toward the river, Frank Philipps and Joe Hunter over east, Levi Van Valkenberg down at Inman, Frank Hammerberg over northwest and a lot of others who took a lively interest in the sort of government setup they were to live under. A wet blanket seems to rest over the local political picture as the date for voting comes on. The apathy is on voter and candidate alike. I haven't seen a candidate but one gent up for supervisor left his card in my mail box. Once we knew there was an election on in Holt county. Candidates and citizens were at fever heat. What Doc Mathews, John McDonough, Jim Riggs, John Wertz, Clarence Selah and their successors failed to say in their papers John McCafferty, Tom Golden, Dave Darr and Hugh O'Neill supplied in classic and caustic letters for the further befuddlement of the voters. Today Holt county, either in a political stupor with the few candidates caring little about the outcome or voters are quietly awaiting the day to register an overwhelming protest against the Himman-Browder-Bridges communist group spending millions for the fourth term candidate.

Hugh F. Gilday, 56, Dies Suddenly At His Home Here Saturday

Hugh F. Gilday, well known resident of O'Neill, passed away at his home in this city last Saturday morning at 1:15 a. m. of heart trouble after an illness of a few hours. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock from St. Patrick's church with Rev. Daniel Brick in charge of the services. The body was then taken to Sioux City, Iowa by Biglin's and shipped to his old home town of Janesville, Minn., where burial was to be made.

Hugh Francis Gilday was born in Janesville, Minnesota on February 3, 1888 and at the time of his death was 56 years, 8 months and 19 days of age. He was united in marriage to Mary Olson at Redfield, So. Dak. on May 26, 1914 and to this union were born five children, one son and four daughters, all of whom survive. The children are Mrs. Catherine Hanlon, Richmond, California; Arthur Gilday, Portland, Oregon; Irene Gilday, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Helen Alton, Vancouver, Wash., and Mary Louise at home.

He is survived by his wife and above named children and four brothers and three sisters. Mr. Gilday came to O'Neill with his family in August 1938 and has since that time resided here. He was a barber by trade and owned his own shop at the time of his death. He had many friends over the county who were sad to learn of his death. Pallbearers were Merle Hickey, P. B. Hart, P. C. Donohoe, J. E. Ryan, Leonard Shoemaker and Norb Uhl.

Market Considerably Stronger At Livestock Sale Here On Monday

More than 600 cattle were sold here Monday at the O'Neill Livestock Commission Co. The market was considerably stronger on most classes and were 50c to 70c higher than a week ago. About 300 calves were sold and the choice calves that would go for club purposes sold from $13.00 to $13.25; stock calves from $11.00 to $12.00; and the lower grades down as low as $9.00 to $10.00 per hundred. A few extra choice cows sold from $10.00 to $11.25. Yearling steers looked 50c to 75c higher. A nice run of yearling heifers were in and the market on them was slow and draggy, and the buyers were not interested very much the way it looked. Cutters and canners were 25c to 50c higher. The hog run was light and it was the same old story, $14.10 for weights from 180 to 240 lbs., heavier weight and sows, $13.30. Pigs are still in good demand and the managers say that they can sell a lot more than they are getting. Next Monday is a special lamb sale. Let the management know so that they can get them in their advertising.

St. Mary's Wins Sixth Straight Victory By Defeating Chambers

The St. Mary's Cardinals won their sixth consecutive game of the season against no defeats when they traveled to Chambers Wednesday and bringing back a 31-12 victory over the Coyotes from Chambers High.

A blocked lateral by Golden set up the first touchdown as Clark drove over from the two, giving the Cards a 6-0 lead. St. Mary's then kicked off to Chambers and Cooke took the ball on his own 30 and scampered the remaining distance to tie up the game 6 all, as both teams missed the extra point. Later in the first period Quarterback John Baker intercepted a pass and ran 30 yards for the Cards' second score, giving the Cards a 12-6 lead. In the closing minutes of the hectic first quarter, Chambers scored to tie it up again 12 all.

Midway in the second period Clark again broke away for the third Cardinal touchdown, giving them a 18-12 halftime lead which they never relinquished. After a sustained 50 yard drive in the third period Clark again struck pass dirt territory with his third touchdown of the day to give the Cards a 24-12 lead. A pass from Baker to Wilson scored the only extra point of the game. In the final period Baker broke loose on a 40 yard run to end the scoring 31-12 in favor of St. Mary's.

The Cardinals will travel to Stuart this coming Friday where they will play a night game with the Bronchos from Stuart High whom they defeated 42-6 on the local gridiron earlier in the season.

O'Neill High Defeats Spencer 20 To 0 There Wednesday

O'Neill stacked up their fourth consecutive win Wednesday, defeating Spencer on their field by a score of 20-0. This game gave O'Neill a seasonal total of 78 points against their opponents 59.

After Spencer received the kickoff on their 27, they pushed into O'Neill's half of the field, where the ball remained until Fox carried it from their 37 to Spencer's 40. From there it went to the 35 and Hungerford paced this off on one play, giving O'Neill 6 points. Mathews caught a pass for the extra point. On receiving the kickoff on their own 49, Spencer brought the pigskin across to O'Neill 42.

In the second quarter, Spencer kicked from O'Neill's 42 to the 5, where it went out of bounds. From O'Neill's 14, Fox kicked and Spencer returned it to O'Neill's 39. O'Neill got the ball on their own 30 and made a steady advance to Spencer's 9 yard line and Fox caught a pass in the end zone. Hungerford made the extra point on a run. The half ended with the ball in O'Neill's hands on their own 44.

In the third quarter, O'Neill made a threat, bringing the ball to Spencer's 5 yard line. An advance to the one-yard line was nullified by a 15 yard penalty. Passes failed to regain the position, but a kick by Spencer, caught by Tibbets, brought the ball to the 50, gave O'Neill the ball again and passes caught by Fox and Mathews who received one in the end zone, gave the Eagles their 3rd touchdown.

The fourth quarter contained many thrilling passes and long kicks, but no threats were made. This was perhaps the hardest fought quarter of the game, which was not, as a whole, a bitterly fought contest. Fox was taken out for a short while in this quarter. Hungerford and Fox were outstanding in this game, while Tibbets did some pretty fair passing.

Service Men Must Have Order From Commanding Officer To Get Shoes

If your boy friend, husband, brother, sister or father in the service needs a pair of shoes, you'd better tell him that he can't secure shoe stamps at the local War Price and Rationing Board, War Price and Rationing Board, Office of Price Administration today. "All of this has been brought about by War Department Circular No. 255, dated 22 June, 1944," declared M. E. Rawlings, District OPA Director here, "which states that 'Military personnel shall under no circumstances make application for shoe purchase certificates or other shoe ration currency to local War Price' and Rationing Boards." All service men should apply to their Commanding Officers for civilian shoe certificates as these are issued to members of the Armed Forces at each military establishment.

Posters to this effect have been made and will appear on local board bulletin boards within the next few days, so save your serviceman a trip to the Board by giving him this information or showing him this article.

SPORT NEWS AND VIEWS

Richard Cronin
The O'Neill High Eagles won their third consecutive victory of the season last Friday evening under the lights at Carney Park, when they defeated the previously undefeated Ainsworth eleven spark plug for the Eagles as he drove across for both of the Eagle's touchdowns. The Eagles played a fine defensive game intercepting many of the Bulldogs passes and stopping their backs many times for short gains. This Wednesday the Eagles will travel to Spencer where they will be looking for their fourth consecutive win of the season, against a mediocre Spencer eleven. The Eagles should win this one and make it four straight.

In last week's column I said I would try and pick out the five best games of the day and the winners and I made an 800 average, hitting four out of five. I picked Notre Dame to beat Wisconsin and they did in a close game, 28-13. It was a lot closer game than the score indicates. I picked Georgia Tech to upset Navy and the Rambling Wrecks never let me down as they won 17-15 in the best game of the day. We also picked Ohio State, all civilian team, to beat Great Lakes and they came through with a 26-6 win. We picked Army to beat Coast Guard and they did (slightly) as they had to have ten men just adding up the score, which finally read, Army 76, Coast Guard 0. Then I picked UCLA to defeat St. Mary's Preflight and in what proved to be the biggest upset of the day St. Mary's came through on the long end of a 21-12 score.

In the other college and service games of last week-end, in the Big Six, the Nebraska Cornhuskers dropped their third game in a row as they lost a 20-0 decision to Kansas, and it was the first time Nebraska lost on Kansas soil since 1896, and the first time Kansas defeated Nebraska since 1916. In other Big Six games Oklahoma ran over Kansas State 68-0; Missouri and Iowa State battled it out to a 21-21 tie. In the Big Ten Illinois rolled over once mighty Pitt 39-5; Indiana had a tough time with Northwestern before winning 14-7. Purdue tripped Iowa 26-7. Ohio State, Big Ten leaders defeated Great Lakes 26-6 and Notre Dame defeated Wisconsin 28-13. In the service games Randolph Field Ramblers poured it on Camp Fork 67-0; the Iowa Seahawks beat Fort Warren 30-0. Undelected Bainbridge eleven nipped Camp Perry, previously undefeated, 7-0, and the Lincoln Army Air Field won their fifth consecutive victory of the season against no defeats, as they nipped Marquette 13-12.

The St. Mary's Cardinals traveled to Butte last Friday afternoon for an afternoon engagement with the undefeated Butte Sextet. The Cards winning their fifth consecutive victory against no defeats, by a score of 33-8. The Cards scored first but late in the first quarter the Butte Sextet tied it up 8 all. Then the Cards began to roll and finished on the long end of a 33-8 score. Richard Clark was the standout on the Cards team with three long touchdowns runs, which helped the Cards hand Butte their first setback. This Wednesday the Cardinals will travel to Chambers, where they will play their second game against the Chambers Coyotes. St. Mary's defeated Chambers 48-0 here on October 6 and the Cards should not have much trouble in winning their sixth straight game. The Cardinals still hold ninth position in the Top Ten in the six-man football standings of Gregg McBride this week, sharing ninth position with the Sextet from Pleasanton. Five paro hi schools are in the top ten. They are: St. Cecilia (Hasting), in second position, St. Patrick's (North Platte), third, St. Bonaventure (Columbus), fourth.

O'Neill High Eagles Win 13-6 Over Ainsworth Here Last Friday Night

The O'Neill Eagles ripped into the Ainsworth Bulldogs Friday night, October 20, being good their promise to defeat this number two enemy, by a margin of 7 points over Ainsworth's 6.

It was with a strong determination to win, tempered possibly with the thought of the training they would undergo if they lost, that O'Neill made the best showing of the year. Ainsworth standing as the first considerably tough team that had known defeat at the hands of O'Neill this year. Proof that O'Neill has progressed greatly in the last few weeks, lie in the two teams comparative score with Bassett who trounced O'Neill 33-0 and received defeat from Ainsworth by a score of 14-13. Touchdowns for O'Neill came in the second and fourth quarters in the form of Dick Fox. Ainsworth's tally was made in the fourth by McNally who received a pass as he stood within five yards of the end zone.

Calkins kicked off to Ainsworth's Scheisler who received the ball on the 20 and brought it to their own 42. After a punt which gave O'Neill the ball and punting action at both ends of the field, O'Neill brought the ball to Ainsworth's 15, Hungerford displaying some fine running and Fox some good kicking. Here Ainsworth received the ball, but failed on a kick which went almost straight up and was caught by Fox. The stage was then set for O'Neill's touchdown in the second, the ball being on Ainsworth's 7 yard line at the end of the quarter.

After the touchdown in the second and the scoring of the extra point by Hungerford on a pass from Tibbets, Giles received the kickoff on their 22 yard line. Ainsworth came nearly to the 50 yard line and a long pass caught by Selah put the ball in O'Neill territory for the remainder of the first half. The ball changed hands nine times, Ainsworth making six passes in an attempt to win that touchdown. Three of these were intercepted and three more, all on their last first and ten, were incomplete.

The third quarter featured some long kicks which put action at both ends of the field, but neither team made any great threat. It was in this quarter that Giles of Ainsworth was hurt and removed for the balance of the game. In the last quarter, O'Neill got the ball on her own 34 and after a hard fought battle which gave Hungerford a good mauling which took him out for a short while, they brought the ball onto Ainsworth's half of the field. A kick by Fox put O'Neill within striking distance of the goal. Though Ainsworth caught the kick, the Bulldogs lost the ball on an intercepted pass. Fox after six plays, brought the ball across the goal line, giving O'Neill her total score of 13 points.

Then with the fury that their name implies, the Bulldogs brought the ball from the 40 and penetrated the end zone. This thrust featured a long run by Scheisler and the pass which McNally received to make the touchdowns. Penalties in the remainder of the game lost O'Neill much yardage.

Hungerford and Fox were outstanding O'Neill men in this game while Giles and Scheisler stood out in front for Ainsworth. Vorce and Burglund of O'Neill and Baker and Anderson of Ainsworth did commendable line work.

The Ladies Guild meets at the manse at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Melena, and Mrs. Kilpatrick are the assisting hostesses.

Congressman A. L. Miller was in the city last Saturday renewing his acquaintance with the voters of this city and county in behalf of his candidacy for reelection. Dr. Miller is serving his first term in congress and has made a good record and there is no question but what he will be returned to congress by an increased majority.
