

THE civilized world pays homage to the Red Cross. It is the symbol of the best in mankind. Its one impulse is to extend the helping hand in time and place of disaster, of suffering, of want, of war and ruin. In a world now on fire the resources of the Red Cross are strained to the limit. To carry on in this dark hour of world need these resources must be renewed. Holt county is asked to help again. And it will do it again.
