

Navy in Khaki Crosses Rhine

Awarded Medals

First Congressional Medals of Honor won by army personnel in the entire Pacific area have been awarded posthumously to Lt. Col. William J. O'Brien, top; and Sgt. Thomas A. Baker, lower, both of Troy, N. Y.

Ruin of War Making Delayed Visit to Germany

The result of the Allied bombardment of Cologne, Germany, is shown by photograph at right. Bonn, the birthplace of Beethoven, also meets the fate of other German cities, as shown at left, as American troops advance through the city. Inset shows the bombed Adolf Hitler bridge across the Rhine at Uerdingen, Germany. Reports indicate that all cities in path of advancing Allies are in complete ruins.

'Will You Spare What They Need?'

These Greek boys get new hope as a relief worker tells them that clothing for children and grown-ups is on the way to their cold mountain village. The United National Clothing Collection is making an appeal for 150,000,000 pounds of serviceable clothing, shoes and bedding for relief of people in war-devastated areas.

Visiting Kit Fox

Native of the desert, the kit fox, weighing not more than four pounds, full-grown, has moved on Boulder dam, one of the nation's mightiest monarchs of wartime hydroelectric power, and is shown surveying this man-made project through a fork of a tree.

Policemen Attend School to Become Stork's Aides

The job of protecting the citizens of their communities seems to be an ever-expanding one for members of the police force of Nassau county, New York, who have been indoctrinated as obstetricians by the public health nurses. Now they know just when and how to drop the argyrol into the new-born's eyes, how to keep the infant from strangulation, how to handle the umbilical cord problem.

Allied Occupation of Germany

English Aides

Miss Elen Wilkinson, parliamentary secretary of the ministry of home security, and Miss Florence Horsbrugh, parliamentary secretary of the ministry of health, who are both included in the British delegation to United Nations conference. The United States delegation will consist of one woman, Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve.

Army Bridges Around the World

The original bridge shown in upper photograph was demolished by bombers of the U. S. army 10th air force since the Japs captured Burma road in 1942. Pontoon bridge is erected as the Allied offensive nears the key Japanese supply terminus of the road. Lower, shows trucks crossing pontoon bridge spanning Rhine river.

New Dies' Counsel

Attorney Ernie Adamson of Pittsburgh, who has been named as chief counsel for the house committee on un-American activities. He formerly practiced law in New York City. Adamson will assume his new duties immediately, on part time basis.

Next Move Toward Tokyo Assured

Young Navy Genius

Ensign S. Jerome Tamkin, 18, inventor at 16 of an indicator of combustible gases which will bring him $10,000 a year, is shown with his bride, Rita.

Big Top Will Soon Be in Town

Things are looking up for the big shows as pretty Juanita Deiser and Paul Jerome relax for a moment between rehearsals on the flying trapeze. The circus begins its annual springtime engagement at Madison Square Garden, and after May 20, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey make a tour of cities of America.

Lloyd George Dead

David Lloyd George, 82, Britain's leader in World War I, died recently at his home in Wales. He was former prime minister of England, 54 years in Commons, and recently became an earl.

Quite Obviously That Was the Wrong Question

Two G.I.s on a day off were strolling along a suburban road outside London when they saw on a hillside a building which said over its archway "Hall of Remembrance"—the British phrase for crematorium. With usual G.I. curiosity, one of them went in to see what it was. Moments later, he came flying out. To the other's question as to why the haste, the investigating G.I. replied: "Darned if I know. I walked in and there were a lot of people in black standing around a pit from which flames seemed to be coming. All I said was: "Hi, folks, what's cooking?" "
