CHAMBERS NEWS CLASS HISTORY In the fall of 1933, six small children entered the first grade in the Chambers Public School. They were Jean Wandersee, Marilyn Harley, Gordon Harley, Chester Fees, Donald Loy Hardy and Mervin Michael, with Miss Enid Anderson as teacher. The second year, they had the same teacher but lost one of the pupils, Donald Loy Hardy. The third year Miss Anderson still was the teacher but we were unfortunate to lose Gordon Harley. When the pupils entered the fourth grade, they were promoted to the intermediate room, with Miss Wilma Adams, as teacher. We gained two new pupils this year, Lon Pichler and Dorothy Martin. Miss Adams was the teacher for the fifth grade also, and had the misfortune of losing Mervin Michael. On entering the sixth grade, they had Miss Tekla Dankert as a teacher. This year we gained Bill Roth. By the next year everyone was feeling pretty big, that we were in the seventh grade and was promoted to the next room. This year we lost Jean Wandersee but gained Zelma Banks and Doris Smith. Miss Elizabeth Medcalf as teacher. They felt very important now that they were in the eighth grade. Miss Medcalf still as teacher, made them work very hard, getting ready for eighth grade examinations. We all passed with flying colors. Our lives were getting to be very important now that we were entering high school. We were fortunate to be the first Freshmen class to enroll in the new school building, in September, 1941. This year many more students entered our class, coming from many other districts. There were 23 freshmen, who were as follows: Jim Adams, Jack Catron, Chester Fees, Don Gartner, L. J. Gartner, Marie Gibson, Ray Grubb, Virginia Hanna, Marilyn Harley, Bernard Hoffman, Luetta Lenz, Dorothy Martin, Edwin Nachtmann, Stanley Nissen, Lon Pichler, Betty Ressel, Clyde Primus, Bill Roth, Violet Sanderson, Doris Smith, Dean Stevens, Dorcen Tangeman, and Jean Wandersee. Chester and Jack dropped out after a few days. Our teachers were Mr. Catlett, Mr. Reisinger, and Miss Kinnier. At the first of the year we were initiated by the sophomores. It turned out to be a lot of fun for everyone, especially the upper classmen, when we walked into school that morning—the girls with green neckties, odd shoes and socks, and overalls on backwards; and the boys wearing skirts, high heeled shoes and green ribbons in their hair. In the evening the sophomores gave us a party. About a month later we gave them a return party. The rest of the year was quite uneventful. In the fall of 1942, only 19 sophomores returned, since we lost Bill Roth, Betty Ressel, and Clyde Primus, but we gained Mary Lou Spath. Our faculty also changed. We now had Mr. Reisinger, Miss Kinnier, and Mrs. Parker. We felt much more important by this time, now that we could look down upon the freshmen of school we initiated the characters and we could laugh with those who had laughed at our expense the year before. Later in the year they gave us a very nice return party which was enjoyed by everyone. As juniors we felt quite dignified. We lost Stanley Nissen but gained Arline Hall. Our faculty now consisted of Miss Kinnier, Mr. Allendorfer, Mrs. Hertel the first semester and Mrs. Walters the last semester. The outstanding event of the year for us was the junior class play, "It's Sabatoge," given December 3, and directed by Mrs. Hertel. On February 25, we received or class rings which we are all very proud of. Another event we shall always remember is the junior-senior banquet, which we gave for the seniors with the help of Mrs. Walters. When we began our senior year, we felt very dignified, or if we didn't we should have. We lost Dean Stevens, but gained Max Farrier, so we still had a class of nineteen. Our faculty consisted of Mr. Fuller, Mrs. Walters, and Miss Fletcher. We were then in our last year of our high school education. The first of many events of this year, was the senior class play, "The Campbells Are Coming", given April 6, and directed by Mr. Fuller. Then came the music festival in which most of the school took part. It was under the direction of our music teacher, Miss Fletcher, with the help of Mrs. Walters. This was followed by the sneak day, which was spent in Omaha. Everyone had a very enjoyable time. Then came the junior-senior banquet, given to us by the juniors, on May 6. The theme of the banquet was, "Winter Wonderland" and was held on the stage. It turned out to be very successful, and we appreciate the juniors going to so much work for the occasion. May 13 was Baccalaureate which was conducted by Rev. Dale. And then tonight comes this most exciting occasion, OUR GRADUATION.
