Amendment To Loan Act Beneficial Says Secretary Of Local Association
Benefits brought about by an amendment to the Federal Farm Loan act recently enacted by Congress, and effective July 1, will interest all farmers and ranchers in this locality, according to Lyle P. Dierks, secretary-treasurer of the Elkhorn Valley National Farm Loan Association at O'Neill, Nebr.
"This new legislation permits the Federal Land banks to loan up to 65 per cent of the normal agricultural value of farms and ranches," said Mr. Dierks. "From the time the land bank system was organized in 1917 up to the present, the Federal Land banks were limited to a loan of fifty per cent of the appraised normal value of the land, plus twenty per cent of the permanent improvements. Land Bank Commissioner second-mortgage funds were used to take care of any borrower's requirements over and above the maximum which the land bank could loan.
"The new law will allow many farmers and ranchers to borrow the full amount they need from the Federal Land bank at the low rate of four per cent without using Commissioner funds."
Mr. Dierks emphasized that the new legislation did not change the land bank's policy of lending on the basis of the normal long-term earning power of the farm or ranch.
"The land banks have found, from experience, that they can safely loan on the sixty-five per cent basis. In addition to the advantage of the four per cent rate, the borrower has his land loan with only one creditor," he said.
Under the new law, Land Bank Commissioner loans will be continued until July 1, 1946, and can be made, as in the past, up to 75 per cent of the normal agricultural value of the farm or ranch. Veterans, however, may borrow Commissioner funds at four per cent if the loan is guaranteed under the C. I. Bill of Rights.
Secretary-treasurer Dierks pointed out that the new law permits the Federal Land banks to purchase Land Bank Commissioner loans which have been reduced to a point where they can easily be refinanced with a lower rate land bank loan."
He explained that better service to new loan applicants is now possible through a simplification of procedure which materially reduces loan closing time.

Patrol Traffic Tips
Two Nebraska Safety Patrolmen met a model A Ford roadster, equipped with side curtains, driving all over the highway. The two patrolmen stopped the car and expecting to find an intoxicated driver, asked the driver to get out of the car. They could hardly believe their own eyes, when not alone the driver but also five other boys climbed out of the car. The driver was sober but he lacked the proper control of the car.
The old saying "Two's company—three's a crowd" is particularly appropriate to front seat riding. In emergency the driver needs freedom of action for the brakes and also free arm movement for controlling the steering wheel.

Help Ta 4-H Clubs More Banker
Bankers of Nebraska who have cooperated with 4-H Club boys and girls for several years past in connection with the annual 4-H Fat Stock Show in Omaha, will be asked to aid the young stock raisers in financing a new venture this year.
Heretofore the bankers have sent free a yearly subscription for the official 4-H paper to the group leaders and have directly financed many Ak-Sar-Ben show contestants in buying and feeding calves and pigs for the show. This year, something new has been added. The Union Stock Yards Company of Omaha, in response to requests from club leaders and county agents, will hold a calf sale to make better grades of calves more readily available to 4-H boys and girls. This sale is planned for October 31st, and November 1st at the South Omaha yards with about 5,000 fine selected calves on sale. This new plan will not only save time and travel for county agents ad 4-H leaders in buying calves, but should tend to improve the quality of stock raised and shown at the annual fall shows.
The Nebraska State Bankers Association will urge its members to cooperate in financing purchases of calves at this sale by 4-H boys and girls.
The 18th Annual Ak-Sar-Ben 4-H Club Fat Stock Show has been set this year for October 3, 4, and 5th at the Union Stock Yards in South Omaha and it is expected that 500 or more 4-H Club boys and girls will have entries of beef and swine for this event. The Ak-Sar-Ben committee will shortly send out its announcements, together with the lists of prizes to be offered.
