

Where Seeing Is Not Believing

This peaceful village isn't—it just doesn't exist—look again, closely this time. You can see that the houses only look like houses and the trees are strictly imitation. About the only real things here are the girls, Suzette Lamoreaux and Elinor Offenbach, who use a "safe" catwalk and stay off the chickenwire farmland of this elaborate camouflage which has been built to protect a vital B-29 plant from threat of possible Japanese air raids. This is the first photograph of this camouflage project—the top of a factory!

USS Santa Fe, Cruiser With a Record

Vienna Comes Back to Life

Once gay Vienna is grim as her people, who saw war at close hand, return to her ruins. The city, so bitterly fought for, is again coming to life as the citizens come plodding back with their possessions piled high on hand carts.

First Witness Testifies in Petain Trial

The first witness called to testify in the historic trial of aged Marshal Henri Petain in the Palais de Justice in Paris, Paul Reynaud, stands at left (arrow) as Petain, seated, right, cups his hand to his ear to hear better. Reynaud resigned as premier of France when the country was toppling in 1940.

Make History

Happy honeymooners, after the first American wedding in retaken Austria, are Lt. David Palowsky of Chicago and American Red Cross Worker Betty Ann Golt of Philadelphia, Pa. Stationed in England, Mrs. Palowsky flew to Austria in the plane of Major General Taylor.

Crime Wave Buster

Lawman, Cpl. W. W. Horton of New York State troopers, and his favorite bloodhound. Together they have tracked down many a lost child as well as escaped criminal.

ROBERT WALKER, Keenan Wynn and others on the M-G-M lot were discussing plans for the filming of "What Next, Corporal Hargrove?" when Wynn turned to Walker and remarked "Bob, you've been in the armed forces so long now that you surely must have enough points to become a civilian." The crack was occasioned by the fact that out of eight pictures Walker has made, six have had him in uniforms of the armed forces. In real life he was turned down because of defective eyesight. But Van Johnson beat Walker's record; he's been in uniform for eight pictures; injuries suffered in that motorcycle accident two years ago made him a civilian in private life.

Keenan Wynn was about to be inducted when he, like Johnson, met fate in the form of a motorcycle accident. He's worn uniforms in several pictures. He and Johnson both wear cits in "Early to Bed," Wynn's first since his recovery and return to the studio.

Tommy Dorsey will star in a musical film tentatively called "My Brother Leads a Band," for United Artists. It's scheduled to go before the cameras some time during the 12 weeks Dorsey is on the Coast for his Sunday afternoon radio program.

Kenny Gardner, former singer with Guy Lombardo's orchestra, now with the armed forces, has just received the Bronze Star for bravery on the field of battle. Kenny, who's married to Elaine Lombardo, Guy's sister, is a first lieutenant with Patton's Third army.

There's a myth that all you have to do to break into pictures is sit on a drug-store stool near Hollywood high school and be discovered by a talent scout. Lana Turner was, they say. And Ann Sheridan's sister mailed her picture to the Dallas News and Annie became a star. But—Bette Davis, Ida Lupino, Jennifer Jones, and hosts of others worked like dogs before they ever heard the rattle of a contract.

After a month's search and two weeks of screen tests to find just the right bathing suit for Jane Russell to wear in beach scenes for Hunt Stromberg's "Young Widow," the search ended—in Jane's own clothes closet. Dozens of suits had been bought, a knitting mill in Oregon was commissioned to make special ones. You'll see Jane wearing one she bought last year at a neighborhood store.

While most of her classmates in the graduating class at Westlake School for Girls began their vacations, Shirley Temple went back to work. She headed for the Pacific Northwest and an extended tour of army hospitals. Her latest picture is "I'll Be Seeing You."

Laraine Day is one of Hollywood's most enthusiastic collectors of 1 mm. films—her collection rates with those of Cary Grant, Deanna Durbin, Lou Costello and Alice Faye. While working on "Those Enderby Young Charms" she acquired a pair of her first picture, "Border G-Men." She was 16 when she made it, and supported George O'Brien in it. And she was pretty good in it, too.

Twenty different government agencies are providing material for the "Now It Can Be Told" series, broadcast Monday through Friday evenings over Mutual. This is the program produced by Dan Seymour which features dramatizations of material never before revealed.

ODDS AND ENDS—Eileen Farrell is considering an offer to make a concert tour in South America. . . . Ralph Bell's had such training in gangster roles in "Crime Doctor" that he's been given to lead in a new radio program, "Prof. Broadway and Boitram"; it deals with the same kind of tough characters heard in "Crime Doctor." . . . Trudy Erwin of the "By Request" air show has a mascot—tiny diamond earrings in the shape of musical clefs; she always wears them when she broadcasts. . . . Dick Powell is assembling material for a movie scenario based on a haunted hotel—oddly enough, he's working in a detective character that he'll play himself.

Lighter Moments for 2 of 'Big 3'

'Son of Division'

Twelve-year-old Joseph Paremba, a Polish orphan, was taken aboard the army transport "Marine Panther" with returning G.I.s. Dressed in miniature uniform he is pictured here with Cpl. Lee Ritchey of Tulsa, Okla., who hopes to adopt him.

If It Isn't One Thing It's Another

Robert Lee of Atlanta thought he had solved his transportation problem by dismantling the family flivver and using the wheels on a mule-drawn wagon. But using hay instead of gas wasn't enough. Tires still wear out and give trouble. Here is improviser Lee replacing a wheel after he had fixed a flat. The mule says nothing—just looks wise.

'Unconditional'

Capt. E. M. Zacharias of the U. S. navy, who learned to speak Japanese while attached to the U. S. embassy in Tokyo, speaking through OWI facilities to Jap leaders. He told them an unconditional surrender can save Japan from complete extinction.

Navy's Floating Ice Cream Parlor

This may look just like an ugly barge to you, but it is the corner drugstore to thousands of men of the Pacific fleet. The barge has a plant that can turn out ten quarts of ice cream every seven minutes. It can also produce five tons of ice daily. Below: A chief storekeeper is handing out a container of ice cream to a "customer" who came for it in a small boat.

U. S. Flag in Berlin

Standing in a group which includes Generals George Patton and Omar Bradley, Secretary of War Stimson and President Truman see Old Glory raised over the Group Control Council of the U. S. in Berlin. This flag was flown over Rome following Italy's surrender.

'Fraternization' in Berlin

The ban has been lifted. The Berlin frauleins are no longer out of bounds for American G.I.s. Here G.I. and fraulein couples demonstrate various phases of the art of fraternization in a Berlin park. It wasn't so long ago when even a "hello" cost the friendly G.I. a $64 fine, and the G.I.'s attitude was plainly, "Go away, girls, you bother me."

Buddies

"Sake," monkey mascot of the marine section, fleet post office, at a Pacific island base, roosts on the head of T/Sgt. Roy Donaldson of Dallas, Texas. Donaldson is a jungle fighter of long standing.
