Teresa Ramold An Emmet Bride

EMMET—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Epiphany at Emmet on May 23 when Miss Teresa Ramold, daughter of Mrs. Anne Ramold and the late Joseph Ramold, became the bride of Raymond Schaaf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Schaaf, of Stuart. The single-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. John O'Brien, church pastor.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white-satin with a short train and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiarra. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bride's sister, Miss Anne Ramold, acted as bridesmaid. She wore a floor-length gown of pink net with a short matching veil. She also carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Raymond Timmerman, of Stuart, was bestman. Both the bridegroom and his attendant wore dark blue suits with white carnation boutonnières.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaaf will make their home on a farm near Stuart.

Miss Ava Jones a June 1st Bride

Miss Ava Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Jones, and R. V. Crumley, son of Mrs. Josephine Crumley, of Page, were united in marriage at O'Neill, on Saturday, June 1st at 11 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse with Rev. Kenneth S. Scott, church pastor, officiating.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill high school, finishing with the class of 1941 and has since been teaching in Holt county.

The bridegroom resides near Page, where he has been engaged in farming.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crumley, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal party left for the home of the bride's parents, where a one o'clock luncheon was served to the immediate relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Crumley will be at home on a farm near Page after a week's wedding trip to the Black Hills.

CHAMBERS—The Lutheran church opened its vacation Bible school Monday morning and will continue it for two weeks.

Constance Biglin, Dale French Wed Here Saturday

Among the most charming weddings in O'Neill this spring was the marriage of the popular daughter of the Frank J. Biglin's, Miss Constance Biglin, who became the bride of Dale French on Saturday morning, June 1st, at 8 o'clock, in St. Patrick's Catholic church, with Rt. Rev. J. C. McNamara officiating.

The bride, a member of a prominent pioneer family of O'Neill, grew up in this city, attended St. Mary's Academy, and is a graduate nurse of St. Vincent's hospital of Sioux City. She has been employed as a member of the nursing staff of St. Elizabeth's hospital in Lincoln for the past eight months.

For her wedding she wore a traditional bridal gown of white, fashioned of embroidered slipper satin and lace. The fitted bodice of the gown was made with a small peplum, and tiny self-covered buttons down the back. The sleeves were long and fitted and the neck was cut in the smart sweetheart line.

The long skirt of conventionally patterned lace, ended in a long square paneled train, lace edged, with lavers' knots of lace decorating the panel ends. The bridal veil was of net, fingertip length, and held by a coronet of pearl orange blossoms. Single blossoms were caught in the folds of the veil at intervals. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Sister Is Attendant

Miss Alice Biglin, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and she was dressed for the occasion in a formal frock of pink; the bodice was of lace made with a scalloped peplum, and the full net skirt fell over taffeta. With it she wore a halo open-crown hat of pleated pink net with ribbon streamers, Joanna Hill roses made up the bouquet of the maid of honor.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. O. W. French of O'Neill, who came to this city with his family when they moved here from Page. He is a graduate of the O'Neill high school. He is now a student at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, where he is affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

John Shoemaker, jr., a long-time friend of the couple, served as best man.

Mrs. Frank J. Biglin, mother of the bride, wore a smart suit of gray with accessories of brown. Her corsage was of talisman roses.

The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. O. W. French, was dressed in an afternoon frock of navy blue, with matching accessories, and a corsage of Joanna Hill roses.

Breakfast Served

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Hotel Golden for 31 guests, including the bridal party and members of the families. After the breakfast, a reception was held at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biglin. Over 100 guests were received by the newlyweds and their parents. Presiding at the beautifully appointed table in the dining room of the home, were Mrs. Duke Kersenbrock and Miss Constance Golden. Silver candelabra holding tall pink tapers and a silver bowl of pink roses centered the table, with the silver tea and coffee services at the ends. Punch was served in the living room.

After the reception, the bridal couple left on a honeymoon trip. The bride's going-away outfit was a spring model suit of pearl gray gabardine, simply tailored with which she wore a dusty pink flower hat. Her shoes were patent platform pumps.

Mr. and Mrs. French will make their home in Lincoln, while Mr. French continues his studies at the University, where he will enter his sophomore year.
