DEMONSTRATION SET

Holt county farmers will have an opportunity to observe subsurface tillage and residue management machinery in action at demonstration to be held August 9, on the Fred Carey farm, three miles east of O'Neill. The event will begin at 1:30 p.m. Farm implement dealers will demonstrate their machines. The Lohaus Motor Co. will show a Ford-Ferguson wide - sweep; the Collins Implement Co. will demonstrate a John Deere oneway and a Dempster duckfoot; the Marcellus Implement Co. a Chase duckfoot, and the Asimus Bros. will exhibit a Massy-Harris with a small roti-tiller.

County Agent A. Neill Dawes has pointed out that the demonstration has been arranged because of the increasing interest in subsurface tillage. The Holt county extension bureau and the Holt county soil conservation district are joint sponsors of the demonstration. The Carey farm is located east of the Corkle turkey farm No. 2.
