

Eagles and Cardinals Triumph in Season's Final Rounds

O'Neill Powerhouse Sinks Atkinson 20-0 on a Heavy Field

END SCORES TWICE

ATKINSON — A heavy field which had been buried all week under a blanket of snow, served only to slow-down the high-riding O'Neill Eagles here Friday night as they outplayed, outyarded, and outsmarted Atkinson 20-0.

Both clubs were obliged to resort to straight football, but O'Neill's version of straight football included a well-oiled formation, a deathly end-around that twice produced touchdowns, and the elusive Dick Tibbetts, whose brokenfield running was impeded (but not stymied) by the soggy footing.

In the first quarter, Big Bob Matthews on an end-around went 35 yards to score. Not a single hand was laid on him.

Halfback Tibbetts setup the second counter when he intercepted

NAME COCAPTAINS

The O'Neill Eagles elected Halfback Dick Tibbetts and Guard Bill Hartman, both seniors, as honorary cocaptains on the eve of the Atkinson game. Tibbetts has been the team's leading ground-gainer and sparkplug, and Hartman has been a hardworking, consistent lineman.

ated an Atkinson flip on his own 2, and advanced the ball 55-yards in his usual circuitous way, including two reversals of his field. The path was clear when he bumped into one of his own and he was brought down.

Big Bob Matthews then came through with a duplication of his first-quarter demonstration, and put O'Neill comfortably ahead with two touchdowns.

The Eagles' third marker came in the fourth period following a 65-yard drive in which the "T" produced three- and four-yard gains in almost every try. Tibbetts went off-tackle from the 2 to score.

It was the final game of the season for both aggregations. A raw wind and below-freezing temperatures made the evening uncomfortable for players and spectators alike.

RECAPITULATIONS: Lone Blemish Against Eagles; St. Pat's Upset Tops for Cards

Coach F. E. ("Kelly") Saindon and his O'Neill Eagles turned their backs to the plow this week. Only one reversal marred an otherwise perfect season.

They offer no alibis for the 6-13 loss to Ainsworth, yet they'd like to have another go at the Westerners.

On a comparative average basis, the Eagles rank high in state gridiron circles. The statisticians had the O'Neill club a notch below Lincoln Central last week. Central was knocked-off, and the Eagles outdid their opponents — Atkinson—20-0.

The earlier Ainsworth setback possibly denied the Eagles a place in Nebraska's big three.

Coach Saindon looks upon the just-ended season as his best in six years of coaching.

The season was formally closed Monday night when the athletic department sponsored a dinner at the M & M cafe.

The record:

- At O'Neill 19, Plainview 7.
- O'Neill 19, at Bassett 0.
- O'Neill 20, at Ewing 0.
- At O'Neill 31, Creighton 8.
- At O'Neill 6, Ainsworth 13.
- O'Neill 28, at Spencer 0.
- At O'Neill 43, Stuart 6.
- O'Neill 36, at Neligh 6.
- O'Neill 20, at Atkinson 0.

Totals: O'Neill, 210; opponents, 41.

St. Mary's Averages Early Loss to Chambers, Winning 12-6

TOMJACK GOES 70

CHAMBERS — The up-and-down St. Mary's Cardinals found sweet revenge here Friday.

Having been humiliated by the Chambers Coyotes 12-33 in a late September affair at O'Neill, they were out for blood. By intermission the Cards had fashioned a 12-6 lead, and that's also how the game ended.

In the first quarter, Chambers connected on two long passes and grabbed a 6-0 lead.

St. Mary's, after a slow start, moved into high gear when Halfback Jerry Tomjack caught a pass and reached the Chambers one-yard-line before he was downed. The Coyotes repelled the threat, however, and kicked out of danger.

Blocking Perfect
St. Mary's bounced back with Dick McNichols and Shorty Miles reeling off long runs and Tomjack pushing it over to knot the score.

Chambers later drove to the Cards' 10, but their machine stalled.

In the second stanza, Tomjack lined up behind perfect blocking and went 70 yards to score the winning touchdown.

The second half was a see-saw affair with both sides threatening to score but unable to do so, partially because the offensives were slowed by a wet field.

On the last play of the game—and, incidentally, the season—McNichols lost a front tooth.

Rev. R. J. Lisco's backfield stood out on defense.

It was curtains for the St. Mary's seniors, headed by cocaptains Tomjack and Ed Hynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harden Anspach and family spent Sunday in Emmet visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith.

ATKINSON, EWING SLOG TO 6-6 TIE

Both Touchdowns Scored During 2 Minutes in Second Period

ATKINSON—A convenient tilt-for-tilt scoring arrangement in the second period relieved the monotony of an otherwise dull ball game here Armistice day as Ewing and Atkinson slogged around a snow-covered gridiron and called it quits at 6-6. The tilt was witnessed by a sizeable holiday crowd.

Atkinson blocked a Ewing kick inside the Ewing 10 during the second stanza, and then pushed the pigskin over for the first counter of the game. Not to be outdone, the Tigers elected Back Bob Dunaway to take the next kickoff and he ran it back 75 yards to tie up the ball game. The decisive try for point failed and the afternoon's scoring was wrapped up in two extraordinary minutes.

Friendship—Three Thousand Miles Apart

Ever play chess? It's a great game! One of the strongest friendships I know of started with a game of chess—between Dad Hoskins, in our town, and a man named Dalton Barnes, in England.

They've never seen each other, never met. But for the past eight years they've been playing chess by mail together—Dad puzzling over Dalton's latest letter, while he sends a chart of his next move to England.

Dad always thinks best with a mellow glass of beer beside his chessboard. And the Englishman writes him that he does the same. "You know, it's almost as if we shared a glass of beer together, too!" says Dad contentedly.

From where I sit, you can talk about diplomacy and foreign policy, but it's often those little things—like a game of chess or a glass of beer—that can make for tolerance and understanding... between people of all nations... between neighbors here at home!

PUBLIC SERVICES

WE GLADLY SUPPORT ...

Vital services to every community are dependent upon tax funds. Your fire and police protection, public health service, courts, parks, schools and many other worthwhile public services receive support through taxation. Consumers, recognizing these necessities, had much to do with securing legislation to first permit, then later require public agencies of its kind to pay state, county, municipal and school taxes. Thus Consumers became the first organization of its kind to pay taxes in Nebraska. Annually, Consumers pays into these tax funds, in seventy-one counties where it owns property, almost a third of a million dollars.
