Double-Wedding Reminiscent of One Here in 1907

While the first rays of the morning sun glistened on the quaint, Spanish-styled St. Peter's Catholic church in Beverly Hills, Calif., a double-wedding took place that was reminiscent of a similar affair 30 years ago in St. Patrick's Catholic church at O'Neill.

Those exchanging nuptial vows at the 1946 double ceremony were John J. Stein and Frances Louise Myers, and Richard R. Stein and Betty Jo Hamilton. The bridegrooms are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stein, formerly of O'Neill.

In November, 1907, Zeffa Ziemer and Walter Stein, and Zella Ziemer and Oscar Marcotte, were married here by Rev. Gibbons. Following the Beverly Hills nuptials, the Stein home was the scene of a reception attended by more than 100 guests. There were twin three-tiered wedding cakes atop a white damasked covered table.

Guests coming from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ziemer, of San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. Jack Salmans, of Merced, Calif.; and Mrs. Joseph F. Hamilton, of Medford, Ore., mother of one of the brides.

Both bridegrooms saw overseas service during World War II. It was the first double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Lee in St. Peter's church.

Women Teachers Honored Guests

The women teachers of the O'Neill public school faculty were the honored guests at a meeting of the O'Neill Woman's club held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. H. Clauson.

The music portion of the program was in charge of Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. Lorenz Bredemeier, and Ms. Howard Manson.

Mrs. Ralph Rieck reviewed the book, "Snake Pit."
