trailer being used to sell Christmas seals in Nebraska. The trailer, distributed by the Nebraska Tuberculosis association, will be shown in more than 100 Nebraska theaters. The drive opened November 25 and closes on Christmas. The sale of seals is the only source of revenue for the Nebraska Tuberculosis association. Last year there were 173 deaths in Nebraska caused by this disease.

The Pat O'Connor 2400-acre ranch will be sold at public auction at the Holt county courthouse, Wednesday, December 16, at 1 p.m. See bills for details. 31 adv

SICK & INJURED

PAGE—Frigids here have received word that Mrs. L. R. Dillard, of St. Paul, slipped and fell on the kitchen floor while visiting her sister at Lincoln and she received painful injuries, including the breaking away of several ribs from the backbone. The Dillards resided here a number of years when they owned and operated a drug store. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harvey and son, Gene, returned from Rochester, Minn., last week. Gene's operation has been postponed until after the holidays.
