Marcella Johnson Bride in Pretty Church Wedding

A lovely wedding was solemnized at the Dorsey Presbyterian church Sunday at 5 p.m. when Miss Marcella Johnson, daughter of Guy Johnson, became the bride of Robert N. Sholes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Sholes, of Inman. Rev. Ralph Chamberlain, of Grand Island, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white-net formal over satin with a sweetheart neckline, tight bodice, with gold trip and fingertip veil. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Geraldine Johnson, who wore an aquabue net formal and carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridegroom was attired in a bluegrey pinstriped suit and his boutonniere was a white carnation. He was attended by his brother, William Sholes, who wore a blue suit and his boutonniere was also a white carnation.

"I Love You Truly" was sung by Mrs. Dean Hopkins, sister of the bridegroom, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Lee Brady, of Dorsey, an aunt of the bride.

After the wedding a reception was held at the bride's home. The table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside near O'Neill.

Mrs. Sholes graduated from the O'Neill high school in 1943 and since has been teaching school. The bridegroom returned in February after three years in the Army. Since his return he has been employed in O'Neill.

Chambers High Class of 1944 in Reunion

CHAMBERS — The Chambers high school graduating class of 1944 held their first reunion last Thursday night at the home of one of the members, Phyllis Carpenter.

Fourteen of the 20 members of the class were present. Two members, Zane Rouse, and Frank Scott, are still serving overseas. Of the seven men present, all have recently received their discharge from the Army or Navy. They are George Nachtman, Norman Reninger, Jim Newhouse, Orville Svatos, Ralph Cooke, Ben Medcalf and Don Cavanaugh.

Four women who were unable to attend were Mrs. Arnie Mace, Jr., (Delores Britnell), who is recovering from a recent operation, and Mrs. Jack Jones (Ethel Butts), both of Chambers, Mrs. Clay Johnson (Margaret Thornton), of O'Neill, and Mrs. Ralph Cutback (June Hillgas), of Central City. The women present were Mrs. Darold Couch (Lela Rothchild), Mrs. Eugene Hoerle (Mardell Butts), Mrs. Ralph Cooke (Celesta Glead), Phyllis Wood, Phyllis Carpenter, Unice Couch and Mrs. Elwyn Robertson (Ardith Roth).

The evening was spent playing games and singing, after which hamburgers were fried over an outdoor fire.

The group elected an executive committee of three members to plan an annual reunion of the class.
