PAGE EIGHT

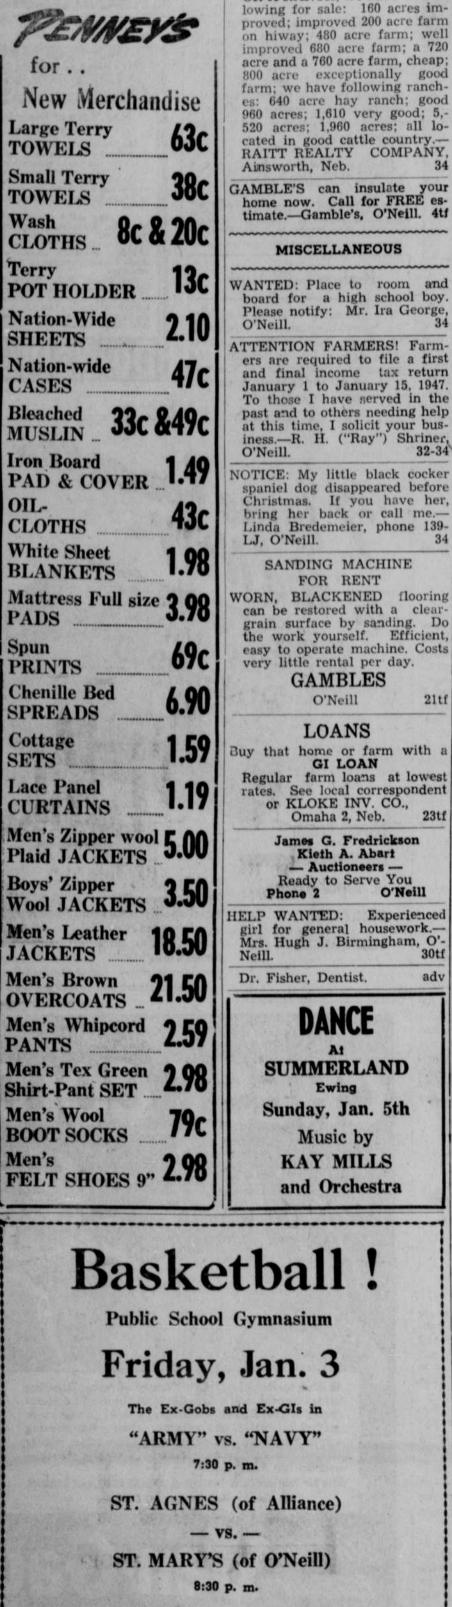

FOR SALE

FOR SALE: 160 acres improved farm ½-mile north and 4 miles west of Page. Seven - room house, good barn, corncrib, granary, henhouse and well-house. Good well and windmill. On mail route and only ¹/₂-mile to school. 50 acres of rye goes with the farm. Price $4250 with March 1st posses-sion. — J. T. Fletcher, Broker, Orchard, Neb. 34-35

FOR SALE: Six-room house with five acres of land, one-half mile west of O'Neill .- Lynus How-30tf

FOR TOP quality registered Hereford bulls, attend Sageser-Robertson-Shaffer 4th annual sale January 23rd in Atkinson. Neb. 34-35

FOR SALE: 3080 acre hay and cattle ranch near O'Neill, Neb. Good set of buildings. ranch. See: R. H. Parker, O'-24tf land 9 miles northeast of O'-Neill, Neb. This is good buffa-Io and ground for the state of Condition of Con FOR SALE: 240 acres of pasture lo and gramma grass pasture Any farmer living north of O'-Neill could use a pasture like this. See: R. H. Parker, O'-Neill, Neb. 24tf

FOR SALE: Piano, excellent condition.—Phone 255J, O'Neill. 34 miliation last October when they

FOR FARM INSURANCE costing $7 a $1,000 the first year, $2.50 each subsequent year, with no renewal premium; Patrick's all the way while TOWN DWELLING and con- good-sized crowd looked on. tents insurance as low as $10 was the most scoring the Platters a $1,000 for five-year term; had done thus far this season. LIABILITY insurance on farm cars, $12.50, and town cars, $15, tallies to lead the point-getting. for one year. See: L. G. The Cardinals left here early for one year. See: L. G. GILLESPIE INSURANCE AGENCY, O'Neill, Neb., Sure-ty and probate bonds of all game, the Platters were hosts to kinds

FOR SALE: Small upright oak game. piano; height 43 inches, depth The boxscore: 24 inches, length 51 inches. -Harry Petersen, O'Neill.

IF YOU WANT A GOOD FARM OR A RANCH, we have the fol lowing for sale: 160 acres im proved; improved 200 acre farr on hiway; 480 acre farm; we improved 680 acre farm; a 72 acre and a 760 acre farm, cheap 800 acre exceptionally goo farm; we have following ranch es: 640 acre hay ranch; goo 960 acres; 1,610 very good; 5 520 acres; 1,960 acres; all lo cated in good cattle country.-RAITT REALTY COMPANY MISCELLANEOUS board for a high school boy Please notify: Mr. Ira Georg ers are required to file a fir and final income tax retur January 1 to January 15, 194

NOTICE: My little black cocker DEMO UPSET TOPS

Score 45-19

NORTH PLATTE-The Greenand-White of St. Patrick's found sweet revenge for a gridiron hurose to new heights and snowedunder a plucky St. Mary's academy quintet of O'Neill, 45-19. The Friday night show was St. Big Bill McGovern looped in 15

Friday via charter bus and re-20tf their visitors at a social affair. There was no preliminary

1.0
4	ST. PAT'S (45) McShane, f Langford, f McGovern, f	fg	ft	pf	pts
-	McShane, f	2	0	2	4
N	Langford, f	1	0	1	2
1-	McGovern, f	7	1	1	15
1-	Schraefer, f	1	0	1	2
n	McGovern, f Schraefer, f Houldshed, c Johnson, c Byan g	. 4	2	1	10
11	Johnson, c	_ 0	1	4	1
1000	Ryan, g	_ 0	1	1	1
);	Andensorf, g	0	0	1	0
d			- 24	44	- T
1-	Conneally, g	. 3	0	2	6
d		* .			-
,-	Totals	.19	7	16	45
)-
-	ST. MARY'S (19)	fg	ft	pf	pts
ζ,	Miles, f	- 0	1	2	1
4	Miles, f Harty, f Hickey, f Gatz, f	- 0	0	0	0
Ir	Hickey, f	- 1	5	4	7
3-	Gatz, f	- 0	0	0	0
tf	DeBacker, c McNichols, c	- 0	0	0	0
	McNichols, c	- 3	0	3	0
~	Sauser, c	- 0	0	1	2
	Hynes, g	- 1	0	1	4
~	Bohn, g	- 0	1	1	3
d	Tomjack, g	0	0	_
y.	Koci, g	- 0	0	0	0
e,	Totals	6	7	19	10
4	Totals	- 0		14	10
	Page, Chambers Con	mine
1-	Here Next Week -		•
st	The O'Neill high		1	Fo	alos
n	will entertain Page	hero	N	Ion	day
7.	night, and the St. M	farv	20	2011	de le	my Cardinals will be	ho	ote	to	the n	my cardinals will be	a 110	212	10	ene

past and to others needing help at this time, I solicit your bus-iness.—R. H. ("Ray") Shriner, O'Neill. 32-34 my Cardinals will be hosts to the Chambers Coyotes on Tuesday night in a pair of intracounty basketball games.

HOLT 1946 NEWS Lynch. Continued rom Page One . . . F. J. Dishner was elected mayor in the city election. The election was quiet with only 378 votes cast for mayor. Dish-ner succeeds John Kersenbrock.

JUNE Guy S. Williams, of Omaha World-Herald "Rolling Along" fame, visited O'Neill. "A be-guiling bit of the auld sod it is," he wrote. "Sure a little bit of Ireland fell from the sky one day—and landed smack in the middle of County Holt, Neb., begorra. They named it O'Neill. The town is skirted by the Elkhorn river, which at this point is called the River Shannon, and the shamrocks grow right down to the river's idge. Sure and a lovely spot it is, me lads -a lovely spot indade." . . . Solicitation for the new hospital was begun. . . The Kelly Well company, of Grand Island, The Kelly began drilling a new well for the city water supply. . . Norris W. Coats, of the Stuart Advocate, was elected president of the Holt County Publishers' association. . . Sen. Hugh Butler defeated Gov. Dwight Griswold in the GOP primary for United States senator nomination. The duel attracted nationwide at-tention. Harold Stassen, Minnesota's presidential potential, stumped the state in behalf of Griswold. John L. Copeland, of Mariaville, led the four-way race for nomination for the Unicameral. Balloting in the primary was light in Holt. . . The Commercial club was officially redesignated the Chamber of Commerce and the group affiliated with the national chamber. . . Two-hundred and fifty former O'Neillites reunited in Omaha. . . Dr. Paul W. Tipton, of Omaha, won the Country club's open golf tour-ney. He was the defending champion. . Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Watson, of Amelia, observed their golden wedding anniversary. . . A dry spell during the critical growing season in the Spring caused a sharp drouth in the county's output of blue-grass seed. . . Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam G. Beha passed the 50th milestone in their wedded life

THE FRONTIER, O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1947.

. . . Among the deaths: Mrs. George L. Fink, at Page; Anton Soukup, at Page; Thomas Con-nolly, at Stuart; Bernard H. Dollarhide, formerly of Atkinson, in a Bubuque, Ia., hotel fire; John J. Young, near Atkinson, in a highway accident; Ashley M. Paulette, of Webster Grove, Mo., a tourist, injured on highway 275 near Ewing; Fred B. Jones, at Portland, Ore., Mrs. William C. Farrand, at Dorsey; Otto E. Clevish, one of O'Neill's last three Civil War veterans, at O'Neill; Mrs. C. B. Shade, at Stuart; Mrs. Viola M. Hoxsie and Mrs. Charles Harding, sisters, at O'Neill, dying 52 hours apart; Thomas Griffin, at JULY The Fourth was a quiet af-fair in the city formally; infor-mally, noisy. Fireworks were available after a wartime short-are H. W. Tomlinson and wife were married 50 years. . . Nine hundred O'Neill residents signed the "right-to-work" petition for a proposed amendment to the state constitution. . . Asssing was completed with valuations slightly increased. . . An automobile driven by Miss Lottie VanOstrand, of Clearwater, was sheared in half by a water, was sheared in half by a North Western train near Clearwater. . The small grain harvest was good. . . The Le-gion of Merit has been award-ed to ex-Maj. John F. Grady. . . Two automobiles were stolen from near St. Patrick's Catho-lie church A sign of the lic church. . . A sign of the times: Anthony Craig and familv. Californians since the war caused industrial mobiliation, returned to Page. . . Holt coun-ty's total personnel dead and missing in World War II is 48, according to an honor list re-leased by the War department met A. Doyle, at Evanston, Ill.; Mrs. Josephine E. Hart, at Page; James Soukup, at O'-Neill: Mrs. Elvina Scofield, at O'Neill; Mrs. E. W. Perrigo, at Taft, Calif.; William Kutscher, formerly of Chambers, drowned in Puget Sound, Wash.; Bryce Hock, a World War II vet, at Butte, struck by propellor blade; William Nollkamper, at Omaha. AUGUST Glea H. Wade is the new commander of the American Legion. . . The American Le-gion Midgets were routed 28-0 by Lincoln in the state midget baseball tourney. . . The fire-men had a brisk workout during the first week: seven alarms . . . Stores adopted a new hour schedule, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. . The city will expand its sewer system on a recommendation to the council by the planning board. Forty-three blocks will be affected. . . The Frontier reproduced by special permission the Collier's magazine story concerning the epic flight of a B-29 named "Irish Lassie," in which Lt. Leonard C. Fox, of Emmet, the copilot, was a hero in a hairbreadth flight over Tokyo. . . Mrs. Ida Townsend, of Page, reaches 90 Mrs. Anna Swanson, of O'-Neill, was seriously injured in an auto-train crash on Omaha's outskirts. .*. Donald Lindquist, 12, was the county's first polio case as the outbreak assumed epidemic proportions throughout the state and nation. . . Atkinson's "Hay Days" went over with a bang. . . D. H. Cron-in, dean of the Unicameral, was on hand for the special session called by Gov. Griswold. . . An initial $520,000 loan has been approved by the rural electrifi-cation administration for the four-county Niobrara Valley Electric Membership corporation. . . Toy's store has been sold to J. L. McCarville, sr., and his son, J. L., jr. formerly of Bonesteel, S. D. . . Shortages or no shortages, O'Neill bristled with building activity -a movement that began as a postwar facelifting and by the year's end may assume the proportions of the biggest building boom in history. There were 12 new business buildings either recently completed, in the process of construction, or in the drafting board stage. . . Among the deaths: Stephen B. Carpenter, at Chambers; J. B. Fullerton, at O'Neill: Mrs. William Reige, at Norfolk; E. Roy Townsend, at Page.

SEPTEMBER

Both O'Neill public school and St. Mary's academy reported record attendances as the 1946-'47 term began. . . Ewing voters turned thumbsdown on a proposal to sell liquor by the drink. The score: 139-95. . . The McIntosh Jewelry opened -a new firm name in the city directory. . . September was ushered in with a three-inch moisture deficiency. . . An engineer of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation told the Chamber of Commerce that Holt county "definitely has irrigation possi-bilities." The engineer, C. E. Burdick, was working on a preliminary survey. He predicts "100,000 irrigable acres in the county." . . . M. J. Golden won the city golf crown. . . The American Legion is confronted with a housing problem. Its skyrocketing membership has created the need for more room

. Miss Lucille Hickey won honorable mention in a nationwide search for a "typical nurse." . . . Among the deaths: John T. Biglin, at Hastings; Anna Donohoe, at O'Neill.

OCTOBER

Dolores Fredrickson, of Sparks, was elected S. Mary's academy homecoming queen. . . September and October were the wettest in history of the weather station here. . . A 76-cent price was paid for the top stocker-feeder calf at the tenth annual stocker-feeder show and sale here. The owner: Eddie Rector, 9; the purchaser, Charles Tasler. . . Miss Mary Louise Birmingham was one of 10 outstate countesses at the Ak-Sar-Ben coronation ball. . . The army of huntsmen "jumped-off" at 6:28 a.m. on October 19 for the pheasant hunt, but birds were not plentiful and

NOVEMBER

Three thousand head of cattle escaped injury in a spectacular $35,000 fire at the Atkinson Livestock Market. . . Rev. Eugene B. Maxcy, for 10 years the Methodist pastor at Inman, is retiring. . . Cornpicking was retarded because of excessive moisture. . . The Chamber of Commerce successfully sponsored a merchants' day and a farmer - rancher day. . . The strike of the Nation's softcoal miners caused some inconvenience but produced no serious results here. Officials and coal dealers were prepared to take emergency measures if necessary to conserve fuel. . . A lone blemish marred the O'Neill high school grid record, a 6-13 loss to Ainsworth. St. Mary's academy finished the season with four wins and three losses . . . Ex-Lt. Bernard F. Coday, of Atkinson, was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for heroism under enemy fire. . . The Protestants held a union thanksgiving service. . . Leon and Harvey Tompkins and Clarence Ernst won state recognition in the annual pastureforage-livestock filnishup program at Omaha. . . Among the deaths: R. Lewis Cunningham, at Page; Mrs. Charles Edwards and Miss Doris Vargason, both of Chambers, fatally injured in a highway accident near Cas-ber, Wyo.: Mrs. Clifford Gillette, at Chambers; Mrs. Henry Hookstra, at Sioux City; John J. Harley, at Norfolk; Archie Martin, at Long Pine; Mrs. William Decker, at Lincoln. DECEMBER

Contributions to O'Neill's nue, Treasury department, Washington, D. C. The drive for funds for the 200 thousand five-generation group gathered for the photographer, headed by Mrs. Mattie Johnson. The others: her daughter, Mrs. Christine Walters; Mrs. Walters' daughter, Mrs. Samuel Robertson; Mrs. Robertson's daughter, Mrs. Noel Long, of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Long's daughter, Sandra Lee Long, an infant. . . Ben Kuroki, the Hershey Japanese-American who turned in an amazing war record in Europe, North Africa, the Middle East and the Pa-cific, visited O'Neill. His biography has been published by Harper & Brothers, New York City. It is the story of his struggle against the enemy abroad and his fight at home against intolerance and prejudice on the part of some Americans. . . Displaced workers from the West coast began to trickly back into this region. . . A flip of a coin gave William Hanley the victory over Marvin Clouse in the race for assessor in Grattan precinct. . . L. D. Putnam paid $56,000-more than $23 per acre-for the 2,400-acre Pat O'Connor ranch. . . The traditional 'blanket of snow,' which proverbially covers the Christmas scene, was excepted this season. There was no snow in sight. . . Mrs. John Zahradnicek. of near Atkinson, uncovered $3,440 in an old organ. . . Among the deaths: Mrs. Fannie Gallagher, at O'Neill; Mrs. Re-becca Bursell, at Vermillion, S. D.; Ela Allen, at Blaine, Wash.; Mrs. Clara B. Miles, at O'Neill, widow of the late George A. Miles; Mrs. Jennie Wilcox, at Granite Falls, Wash.; W. E. Williams, at Corpus Christie, Tex.

Mrs. L. Shilery returned to Lincoln Friday after spending the holidays with her daughter, Mrs.

INCOME TAX

For assistance in making your reports, call on

Geo. C. Robertson

O'Neill

new nonprofit hospital were ruled "deductible" from an individual's "taxable net income," the hospital committee members learned from a deputy commissioner of internal revedollar undenrtaking was pressed. . . The corn loan rate was fixed at $1.06 per bushel. . . A

Announcement

R. L. Bode.

A representative of our firm will be available at Golden hotel, O'Neill, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Friday and Saturday, January 10th & 11th, to those who desire our services in the preparation of

INCOME TAX RETURNS

SANDING MACHINE WORN, BLACKENED flooring can be restored with a clear grain surface by sanding. Do the work yourself. Efficient, easy to operate machine. Costs very little rental per day. 21tf Buy that home or farm with a Regular farm loans at lowest rates. See local correspondent or KLOKE INV. CO., Omaha 2, Neb. 23tf James G. Fredrickson Kieth A. Abart - Auctioneers -Ready to Serve You O'Neill HELP WANTED: Experienced girl for general housework.— Mrs. Hugh J. Birmingham, O'-30tt adv SUMMERLAND Sunday, Jan. 5th and Orchestra

. The Commercial club entertained the Selective Service boards and appeal agents from nine counties. . . Plans for the new O'Neill hospital, prepared by Martin Aiken, a Lincoin architect, were accepted by the general committee. . . Harry Vogt, who purchased a dry cleaning plant here from the late Ben Harty, has sold the plant to C. A. Weatherford, of Sioux City. . . Among the deaths: Melvin E. Thayer, at O'Neill, fatally injured when struck by a block of falling cestruck by a block of falling ce-ment while at work on a con-struction job; Loula Parker, at Lincoln; Agnes D. Kelly, at Omaha; Frank Oberle, at Ains-worth; John Celary, at O'Neill. MAY

The Center Union church cel-The Center Union church cel-ebrated its 41st birthday anni-versary. . . Robert Parkins, of O'Neill, represented Nebraska in the national oratorical con-test sponsored by Northwestern university. . D. H. Cronin, 76, editor and owner of The Fron-tier since August 13, 1896, an-nounced this week the sale of nounced this week the sale of the newspaper to Carroll W. Stewart, 28, of Hartington, a World War II veteran. Wrote Mr. Cronin in his farewell to his readers: "We have enjoyed our newspaper career in the empire of Holt. . . One of the saddest things in the life of a newspaperman is that of recording the passing. . . of many of the closest friends and chums of youth. . . I expect to continue to make my home in O'Neill and will be seeing you as the days roll by. . . You, my friends and enemies (if I have any) have my best wishes for a long life full of prosperity and hap-piness." Mr. Cronin is the dean of the state Unicameral legislature. He will also retire from politics. . . An unseasonal cold wave struck in midmonth, inflicting considerable damage on all classes of crops. Everything suffered a setback. . . The trainmen's strike forced the North Western to recruit engineers, brakemen and officials sustain one-train-per-day service during late May... The Chambers Sun resumed publication following an enforced wartime shutdown. . . World War II veterans swelled the Memorial day parade. . . Among the deaths: Oscar O. Newman, at O'Neill; Michael H. McCarthy, at O'Neill, struck by an automobile; Mrs. George Bowen, at Page; Pat C'Connor. at Lynch; Emil Snyggs, at O'Neill; Ross Albert Allen, on highway near here, by carbonmonoxide fumes; Mrs. Keith Houchin, at North Platte.

cover was abundant. Openwater well completed by a Grand Island firm, and immediately negotiated with the same firm for a twin well nearby... The American Legion has invited the district organization to meet here in 1947. . . "Montana Jack" Sullivan breezed into town for one of his regular visitations. . . A mong the deaths: Albert Petersen, at O'-Neill; Lester L. Coon, at Page.

An appointment may be made in advance, if desired, by contacting Hotel Golden.

SOBOTKA and SCHOENING PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS - TAX SPECIALISTS Norfolk, Nebraska

Members National Association of Tax Accountants

eili; Lester L. Coon, at Page.	LITY FOODS .
Sp FRESH FRUITS & VEG'ABLES CALIFORNIA SUNKIST -	Decials you can't afford to miss! DEL MONTE OF CHOCOLATE CREAM - COFFEE 35C PER POUND 35C
ORANGES PER DOZEN 19C TEXAS MARSHSEEDLESS — GRAPEFRUIT 4C	Scouring CLEANSER 7c 2 CANS FOR 7c ALASKAN PEAS 11c FANCY, NO. 2 CAN 11c SOUR PITTED - 11c
SPUDS 100 POUND BAG1.89IDAHO RUSSETTS PER 100 POUNDS2.79	RED CHERRIES NO. 2 CAN39CNEAR-GALLON1.83FRUIT COCKTAIL NEAR-GALLON, EACH1.39
MEAT DEPARTMENT	CREAMY WHIP — PEANUT BUTTER 1-LB. JAR DOES WATER MAGIC —
BEEF SHORT RIBS PER POUND27cBACON CELLO PKG, PER POUND59c	FLEXO 21c 2-LB. BOX 21c SWEET SPUDS 24c
LARD 31c PER POUND 31c Sirloin, T-Bone or Short Cuts – BEEF STEAK 47c	WOOL SOAP FLAKES The best soap on the market today! DOWNEY FLAKE — COFFEE CAKE MIX — NO SUGAR NEEDED !
UNION PHONE 56	STORE FREE DELIVERY

