Betty Lyons Bride of Ralph G. Rector

Miss Betty Lyons, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don O. Lyons, of O'Neill, Friday became the bride of Ralph E. Rector in a quiet ceremony at the First Presbyterian church at Belleville, Kans., it was announced this week by the bride's parents.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rector, of O'Neill.

Rev. Stephen Yemm, who is known here, performed the marriage rites.

The couple departed following the ceremony on a wedding trip through southern Kansas and Missouri, returning here late Sunday.

At 10 p.m. Monday six carloads of friends and relatives gathered at the home of the bridegroom's parents for a charivari. The couple presented their guests with treats after which cards were played.

The bride attended high school in Kansas City, Mo., where she resided before moving here, and in O'Neill. Mr. Rector graduated from O'Neill high school in 1945.

Elizabeth Kamphaus Bride Here Tuesday

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday at 8 a.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic church here when Elizabeth Kamphaus and Frank Nekolite, both of O'Neill, exchanged vows in a double-ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a light-grey dressmaker suit with black accessories. Her only ornament was a double-strand of pearls, which had been a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white prayerbook. Her attendant was Miss Eva Kmiecik, of Orchard, a niece of Mr. Nekolite. She wore a white-pearl necklace with earrings to match. Both the bride and her attendant wore lapel corsages consisting of red-and-white carnations tied with white ribbon.

Mr. Nekolite and his attendant John J. Kaczor, of Ewing, wore grey suits.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Elite cafe. The couple will reside north of O'Neill.
