Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

Released by Western Newspaper Union. By VIRGINIA VALE

JACK PAAR, ex-G.I. comedian who's under contract to RKO, has just signed a six-year radio contract, topping a career that began 12 years ago, when he was 16. You hear him now on the CBS "Vaughan Monroe" show Saturday nights; then you'd have heard him as a staff announcer—and unintentional comedian. Announcing the Cleveland National air races, he did fine, except that he pronounced the wrong plane as winner; looked away for a minute and the winner he'd picked came in last. During the war he was a member of Special Services, entertaining troops on what he calls the fungus vaudeville circuit.

JACK PAAR

Ingrid Bergman's been awarded the highest Swedish order for artists and scientists by King Gustaf of Sweden. But seeing her going about New York you'd never suspect that she's a top-ranking movie star, and also the star of the town's best play. You'd see a pretty girl, wearing a mink coat, with a black hood tied over her head—unrecognized by people who'd clamor for autographs. After seeing visiting stars who spare nothing and nobody in their efforts to be recognized even while they wait for privacy, she's refreshing.

Gene Autry has formed his own independent producing unit, which goes to work at Columbia Pictures the first of April, with an exclusive contract to produce four high budget pictures per year for two years. Big outdoor musicals with Grade A stories, that's what he'll aim for. He should be able to turn them out, with all Columbia's facilities and his own music organization to draw on.

Henry A. Reichold, the Detroit industrialist, thinks there are two or three million people who want to listen to straight classical music, with no interruptions or commercial interferences. That's why he's sponsoring that series of "Sunday Evening Hours," with the Detroit Symphony. But—he's deliberately bucking Fred Allen and Edgar Bergen; has the same time on the air as two of our best comedy shows!

The Roscoe Karns are original; when they headed for Reno, on completion of "Gallant Man" at Republic Studios they were intent not on divorce, but on having a second honeymoon; they've been happily married for a quarter of a century.

Oscar Bradley, conductor of "We, the People" orchestra, is pretty proud of Arnold Eidus, who recently competed in the international violin competition in Paris and took first place. He won a concert tour to 28 cities. When Eidus returns to this country, probably in April, Mr. Bradley plans to have him as a guest on the show. You see, the violinist till recently was one of the boys in the band.

In "Undercover Maizie" Ann Sothern portrays a police woman—and we're told (and it's hard to believe) that she spent several days at the Los Angeles Police Academy, undergoing the strenuous routines prescribed for rookie cops; showing up for setting-up exercises in a play-suit, hitting the bullseye with a pistol, though she'd never fired one before in her life, etc.

Setting up a "Vox Pop" broadcast is no cinch. Parks Johnson and Warren Hull often interview as many as 150 persons during the preliminary proceedings, determining the six who'll go on the air. Then Mrs. Johnson has to round up presents for them.

ODDS AND ENDS—Veronica Lake is going to bide that eye under that lock of hair again in Paramount's "Saigon." "National Velvet" is slated to come to the air waves February 3rd. . . . Marlene Ames, aged seven, who plays the daughter on the Sunday "Blondie" show, made her film debut in "The Best Years of Our Lives." . . . Everyone ought to see "Caesar and Cleopatra" if only to see what "Glorious Technicolor" can be like when it's really glorious. . . . Mercedes McCambridge, of "Big Sister," is searching for a voodoo drum player; her husband gave her a drum from Haiti, but she doesn't know how to play it.
