Jo Ellyn Hoerle

Bride at Chambers

CHAMBERS — Rev. Leonard Dale, pastor of the Lutheran church, officiated Monday at the 10 a. m. wedding of Miss Jo Ellyn Hoerle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoerle, and Richard Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. F. Lehman, of Chambers. The ceremony took place at the parsonage.

The bride was dressed in a white brocaded marquisette wedding gown with a fingertip veil. She wore a corsage of white gardenias. Her only attendant was Mrs. Elwin Ruback, of O'Neill, who wore a gown of white lace and net with pink trimming and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The bride's brother, Marvin Hoerle, was the bestman. He was dressed in a blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

The bridegroom was attired in a gray pin-striped suit with a white carnation boutonniere. A luncheon was served at 1:30 p. m. to 22 people. A three-tiered wedding cake, with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was the centerpiece.

Besides the bridal party and the parents of the bride and bridegroom, others present were Mrs. Dale and baby, Mrs. Wandering, Mr. and Mrs. Berna d Mosel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Wright and family, and Elwin Ruback.

Until her marriage Mrs. Lehman spent most of her life with her parents, except for a short time at Bowen's Ben Franklin store in O'Neill.

The bridegroom was in the service for 22 months, 14 of which were spent on Leyte. The newlyweds will reside on the Will Lehman farm.
