Ruth Jeanette Watson a June Bride in Pretty Church Wedding

INMAN — On Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Methodist church in Inman, Miss Ruth Jeanette Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Watson, became the bride of William J. Slusher, jr., of Pineville, Ky. Rev. Lloyd Mullis, of O'Neill, performed the wedding ceremony at the altar which was decorated with salmon pink gladioli, purple and white lilies and spirea. Tapering candles in tall candelabra were on either side.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown with a fitted bodice, deep peplum and short train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of orchids.

Mrs. Clifford Opper, of Boston, Mass., sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Miss Nellie Ann Erickson and Mrs. LeRoy Holtz, of Omaha, were bridesmaids. They were gowned in green, pink, and yellow taffeta with matching shoulder length coronet veils. They wore long lace mitts and carried bouquets of carnations.

The bride's mother wore a peek-a-boo mesh dress with gold background and lavender flowers. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of tea roses.

Omahan Bestman

Jack Reece, of Omaha, served as bestman. The ushers were John Watson, of O'Neill, brother of the bride, and LeRoy Holtz, of Omaha. The candles were lighted by Carolyn and Sammy Watson, sister and brother of the bride.

The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Harvey Tompkins, pianist, Mrs. John Watson, violinist, and Miss Doris Hertz, vocalist.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Taylor, of Beatrice, poured at the reception table, with Mrs. William Johnston and Miss Jean Kubik, of Omaha, Lu-Elle and Carolyn Watson assisting. Eleanor Auguston, of Omaha, was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Harvey Tompkins the gift room.

The bride attended Wesleyan university at Lincoln where she was a member of Willard sorority. She is a graduate nurse of Immanuel hospital in Omaha where she has been employed.

Mr. Slusher is completing an optometry course at Northern Illinois college of Optometry, Chicago, Ill. He served four and one-half years in the Army Air Force, part of which time was spent in the southwest Pacific. Prior to this he attended Union college for three years at Barberville, Ky.

Go to Okoboji
Mr. and Mrs. Slusher left immediately following the reception to spend their honeymoon at Lake Okoboji, Ia., and will be at home in Chicago, Ill., after June 15.

The bride's going away costume was a grey flannel suit with which she wore green accessories.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Clifford Opper, of Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren McClurg, of Bassett; Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Russell, of Blanchard, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Keith McGraw, of Crete; Mrs. Ella Butler and Mrs. Harold Brower, of Independence, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Butler and daughter, Mary, of Neligh; Neil Reed, of Long Beach, Calif.; Dr.
