Grace Mary Suchy,
Stephen Price Wed

At a 9 a.m. nuptial mass Monday at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Miss Grace Mary Suchy, daughter of Mrs. Frank Suchy, and the late Mr. Frank Suchy, became the bride of Stephen Wilson Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Price, Rev. Francis Price, of Omaha, a brother of the bridegroom, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Lewis J. Rech, of Omaha, wore a long, white satin gown with a train. It was made on princess lines with a sweetheart neck and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from a rhinestone tiara. She wore pearls and her bouquet was white roses.

Miss Helene Suchy was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a long pink nylon gown and a pink silk-net picture hat. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

The bridegroom wore a blue suit. His boutonniere was a white carnation. Delmar Price, of Norfolk, served as bestman for his brother. He wore a tan suit and had a white carnation boutonniere.

Mrs. Suchy, the bride's mother, wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Price, the bridegroom's mother, wore a wine dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations and white roses. A wedding dinner for the immediate families was served at the M & M cafe. A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother.

The bride's going-away outfit was aqua blue. She wore white accessories.

Mrs. Price is a graduate of O'Neill high school and Grand Island business school. For the past four years, she has been employed as a private secretary to the manager of an insurance company in Omaha.

Mr. Price graduated from St. Mary's academy. He taught

Genevieve Stanton
Weds in Hollywood

A wedding of interest here was solemnized recently at Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic church in Hollywood, Calif. Miss Genevieve Stanton, formerly of O'Neill, and Neal Van Houten, of Hollywood, were married at a double-ring ceremony.

Miss Winifred Stanton, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. The ushers were Kilmer Stanton, Francis Hickey and Vincent Meier.

The bride was led to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a white satin wedding gown made with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, and a short t. Her veil was shoulder-length with lace trim and a tiara of orange blossoms.

She carried a white crystal rosary which had been blessed by the Holy Father.

During the mass three numbers were sung by James M. 1-ton, a childhood friend of the bridegroom.

Immediately following the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride. About 150 guests among them many former O'Neillites, were present. Miss Margaret Hickey, of O'Neill, and Miss Patsy Ann Hickey, of Hollywood, assisted at the reception.

The couple will reside in North Hollywood where the bridegroom is in business.

The bride is a niece of J. W. and P. V. Hickey, of O'Neill, on the maternal side, and Mrs. Tom Donlin, Mrs. Roman Rohde, and Anthony Stanton, on the paternal side.

Mrs. Klasna

Miss Elaine I. Counts, of Butte, became the bride of Clayton Lee Klasna, of Spencer, on June 30 in a ceremony at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic church at Butte. The couple is residing on a farm west of Spencer. — O'Neill Photo Co.
