

TIGER TRIO CLOSES ON VAN EVERY

Having just received a pass, O'Neill's End Dean Van Every is headed for a peck of trouble as three Ewing Tigers close in to stop him during the annual Ewing-O'Neill grid classic. This play took place in midfield and helped set the stage for O'Neill's second touchdown. The Tigers are End Louis Vandersnick (52), Halfback Jack Pruden (40) and Quarterback Bergstrom (53). O'Neill won 13-0. (See story in column 1.) — The Frontier Photo by John H. McCarville.

Lynch Cops Title with Pair of Wins

WORLD SERIES FAILS TO DETRACT FROM LYNCH - CHAMBERS PLAYOFF

(By a Staff Writer)

On the East coast there was a sporting classic over the weekend known as the World Series.

In this neck-of-the-woods there was a sporting event of equal importance to at least the members of the Lynch and Chambers baseball teams and a thousand faithful souls who managed to witness the two-game tilt that netted Lynch the Holt-Boyd championship.

In the first of the two-out-of-three playoff series, between the first- and second-half champions, Lynch bested Chambers, 4-3, in a ding-dong battle at Chambers Saturday. Next day — Sunday — Lynch won again, 7-2, at Lynch.

Explosive Lynchers Wait Until 9th—

CHAMBERS— Until the first half of the ninth inning it looked like a Chambers win. The Holt countyans were ahead, 3-1, going into the last frame. But even the oldtimers, like Boss Harry McKay, of Chambers, knew well enough that the game isn't over until the last man is out in the last-half of the last inning — especially when you're bucking an explosive outfit like Lynch.

This is what happened: Catcher Payne, first man up for Lynch, got a single. Fielder Koenig advanced Payne to second. Second Baseman Sumner struckout. A single by Shortstop Boelter brought in Payne and Koenig and the ball game was tied 3-3. Third Baseman Rossmeir went down swinging. The pitcher, Sonny Retzlaff, of Pierce athletic fame, blasted one that brought in Boelter with the winning tally. Lynch was retired as Sonny Mohr, a pinch-hitter, struckout. Retzlaff whiffed a half-dozen Chambers batsmen and was given better support than Faulk hurling for the losers.

Sunday's Biggest News at the Gate—

LYNCH — With a one-game lead on the plucky Chambers outfit, Lynch took the upper-hand early in Sunday's show here and showed no sign of being anything but a conqueror.

The biggest news of the day was made at the gate where the turnstiles racked up 634 paid admissions—a record for the season. At four-bits per head this figures $317.

SACRED HEART TRIUMPHS 14-0

St. Mary's Produces 'Most Opposition Yet' for State Leaders

The state's leaders in six-man grid circles ran into more opposition than was expected on the O'Neill lot Sunday, but the outcome was the same as predicted by most dopesters.

The unbeaten Knights of Sacred Heart, of Norfolk, defeated St. Mary's, of O'Neill, 14-0. According to the Norfolkans' coach, Bill Phillips, the Knights were confronted with the toughest opposition in four starts.

After the game Phillips commented that the St. Mary's crew was "certainly entitled to be ranked among the five best six-man clubs in Nebraska." Both Sacred Heart touchdowns came in the first-half. Duane Crotty scored the first one when he broke through the St. Mary's line, cut back and sped 25 yards to pay territory. Don Kellogg's dropkick was no good.

Lester Kellogg squirmed away for 40 yards to the O'Neill academy's 1-foot line. A 15-yard penalty set the Knights back, but in three more plays Gene Juve had bounded over from the 3. Kellogg's second dropkick try was good, making the count 14-0 and that's where the scoring ended.

St. Mary's threatened only once, getting down to Sacred Heart's 20.

The visitors rolled up more than 200 yards from scrimmage, but Coach Al Sipes' alert defenders held down the scoring.

Kellogg was injured during the first-half but resumed play in the second.

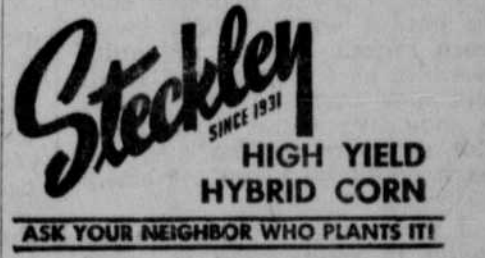

Halfbacks Shorty Miles and Jim Donohoe were outstanding performers for St. Mary's with Miles getting more than his share of the tackles as well as conducting his ball-carrying responsibility.

The Indian summer weather sent the mercury up to 96 and made things difficult for the overclothed players.

EAGLES SPANK TIGERS 13-0

Matthews Plunges Twice to Score Through Lighter Opponents

Coach Marv Miller's spirited Ewing Tigers came to town Friday night for an intracounty fiasco with the O'Neill Eagles. It might also be said they came to town to win a ball game.

But the Eagles uncorked a bushel of laterals and forwards and a variety of surface plays that produced points in the first and last stanzas, netting O'Neill a 13-0 win. It was the third-straight triumph for Coach Kelley Saindon's Blues, having previously polished off Plainview and Bassett.

Big Bob Matthews, senior fullback, punched across both O'Neill touchdowns on lunges into the line after passes had set the pins.

In the opening period the Eagles got on the move from their own 30. Flips from Quarterback Gordon Elkins and Matthews to End Dean Van Every took the ball deep into Ewing territory. The lighter but determined Ewing line held for two downs inside the 2-yard stripe before Big Bob crashed through.

A second O'Neill threat was turned back and the teams worked on fairly even terms until O'Neill launched its second touchdown march.

A series of aeriels, including a nifty forward-lateral, produced a first down on Ewing's 2. Matthews was provided good interference and skipped across standing up.

Matthews, Elkins and Wally Shelhamer showed well for O'Neill. Shelhamer was hurt during the first half and witnessed the rest of the game from the sidelines. Halfbacks Jack Pruden and Dave Weyhrich led the Ewing attack.
