Dorothy Kratochvil and Willard Napersteck Wed

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Kratochvil, of O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edvin Kratochvil, of Osmond, and Willard Naperstek, also of O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Naperstek, of Creighton, took place Monday at the Catholic church with Rev. Stahl performing the 9 a.m. ceremony.

The bride appeared in a white satin gown which featured a sweetheart neckline, a fingertip veil and a beaded tiara, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Luann Kratochvil, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor in a floor-length gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Paul Naperstek.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served to the immediate families and a few friends at the home of the bride's parents.

For the wedding trip, the bride chose a hunter green suit with brown accessories and she wore an orchid corsage.

Mr. Naperstek is a graduate of Creighton university and for the past several months has been employed in the Johnson and O'Neill Drug stores here.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill school in the class of 1942 and for the past five years has been employed at the Holt county treasurer's office.

The couple will make their home in O'Neill in an apartment in the William Beha residence.

Dr. Ivan M. French Weds Omahan

The chapel of Dundee Presbyterian church in Omaha was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Miss Muriel Oris Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Johnson, of Omaha, and Dr. Ivan M. French, son of Dr. and Mrs. O. W. French, of O'Neill. The vows were said before an altar decorated with palms and yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Rev. Elwood Rowsey performed the double-ring ceremony.

Dale French, of O'Neill, attended his brother, and Paul Tallon, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Dr. H. Webber McFadden ushered.

The bride's gown of white satin had a net yoke with a bertha of antique rosepoint lace, long sleeves, and a three-yard train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was white gardenias and carnations.

Miss Shirley Ann Sims, the maid-of-honor, wore a moss green gown with a square neckline, three-quarter-length sleeves, and a full skirt with a bustle. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother chose a wine crepe gown and a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. French wore a gold crepe dress and a corsage of American beauty roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church parlors.

When the couple left on the wedding trip to the Lake of the Ozarks, the bride wore a light brown three-piece gabardine suit with dark brown accessories. After their return they will live in Wahoo.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Minnesota in 1945 and is a laboratory technician.

Dr. French is a graduate of Page high school and the University of Nebraska college of medicine. During the war he served as a captain in the Army medical corps and was sent to Japan. Since his return he has located in Wahoo where he is practicing medicine.
