

Eagles and Cardinals Experience Disasterous Weekend

CREIGHTON HANDS BLUES FIRST SETBACK, 6-0; CARDS SCUTTLED AT GRAND ISLAND

St. Mary's (G.I.) 27; St. Mary's (O'N) 6

SPECIAL TO THE FRONTIER
GRAND ISLAND—St. Mary's, of O'Neill, hoped to avenge last year's defeat by whipping St. Mary's, of Grand Island, here Sunday. But that isn't the way things turned out.

The Grand Island academy won, 27-6—a slightly greater margin than the 27-13 count of a year ago when the Islanders dampened the O'Neill academy's homecoming festivities.

The Islanders failed to negotiate a first-down during the entire first-half, but first-downs are small potatoes when you can rack up two touchdowns without 'em. The second-half was different. The Islanders' first-downs mounted and so did the score. Two more touchdowns and a touchback were added.

The Cardinals came to life in the third when Quarterback Pat Hickey flipped a forward to End Larry Pribil, and Pribil lateraled back to Hickey, who went 60 yards to score.

On only one other occasion were the Cards inside Grand Island's 20.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dobney, of Norfolk, drove here Monday to visit their daughter, Mrs. R. E. Armbruster, and family.

Three Tab—Asphalt SHINGLES

- Heavier than Government specifications require
- 22¢ per sq. for added protection—longer wear
- Colorful blends of Green, Red or Blue

You beautifully as you save and protect. That old worn out roofing costs you money... in heat loss, damage to insulation and ruined plaster. 12"x36" three tab strips that defy wind, rain, heat and ice. Made tougher to last longer.

Gambles

Creighton 6; O'Neill 0
SPECIAL TO THE FRONTIER

CREIGHTON—Boss Kelley Saindon is at a loss to explain what happened (or didn't happen) here Friday night when his O'Neill Eagles were handed their first reversal in 1947 prep grid play. Creighton won, 6-0.

"The boys were drab and loggy and nothing worked," Saindon said afterwards. "I only hope they got it all out of their system in the one game and things will be different from now on out."

The Creighton Maroons, sporting a bulky, hardcharging line and a light, speedy backfield, drove 60 yards to score the only touchdown of the game. This came in the second period with consistent three- and four-yard hammering. Halfback Mitties rambling 20 yards on the touch-down play.

It was the only occasion Creighton got within the shadow of the O'Neill goalposts. Other times the Eagles' forward wall held with End Bob Irwin playing a bang-up game in the line and Big Bob Matthews doing a commendable job of backing-up the line.

Creighton outdowned the Eagles, 12-7. The O'Neill offensive seemed to fizzle on the down where yardage was needed.

O'Neill had previously bowled over Plainview, Bassett and Ewing in that order and was favored to defeat Creighton.

Hold Open House—CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. James Cavanaugh held open-house at their home Friday evening in honor of their 35th wedding anniversary.

About 25 friends and relatives were present.
Mr. Swengel Honored—CHAMBERS—F. E. Swengel, of Plainview, who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Charles Spath, was honored Sunday at a birthday dinner at the home of his grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spath, and daughter.

Sunday visitors in Bartlett were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Brophy.

THE FRONTIER SPORTS

AINSWORTH STIFF TEST FOR EAGLES

Rebound Might Work Hardship on Arrows; Butte Here

The weekend grid offering in these parts is headed by the annual Ainsworth-O'Neill get-together to be staged Friday night under the Ainsworth lights.

Unbeaten, the Arrows are favored to keep their record clean, but the O'Neill Blues have a chance with a spirited rebound from last week's dull performance at Creighton. Ainsworth spoiled O'Neill's record last year with a 13-6 triumph and the Arrows are fairly well intact.

A large-scale migration of O'Neill fans is predicted for the 1947 edition of an age-old rivalry.

Meanwhile, on the O'Neill lot Butte and St. Mary's academy will do battle in a six-man show. The Cards are favored over the Butte team, which was hobbled by graduation. St. Mary's won, 12-6, a year ago.

Other Friday games: Bassett at Ewing, Chambers at Lynch. Because of the annual teachers' institute, next week's O'Neill high's game will be played on Wednesday instead of Friday. It will be an afternoon affair with Spencer as the opponent. O'Neill won 25-0 last year.

Miss Kennedy Honored—AMELIA—Miss Bernadene Kennedy was guest-of-honor at a birthday anniversary dinner Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Kennedy.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Doolittle sr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Doolittle and Dixie, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and girls and Clyde and Gene Doolittle.

NATIVES SPLIT ON IRISH-HUSKER FUED

Die-hard O'Neill football fans are divided with their support in the Notre Dame-Nebraska football classic Saturday at South Bend, Ind., all because Notre Dame's illustrious coach, Frank Leahy, is a native.

The Irish are hot on the trail of a national championship and there are O'Neillites, naturally, who want to see the hometown boy make good, even when it comes to playing the state's own university.

According to the Omaha World-Herald's sports editor, Floyd Olds, the Saturday engagement at South Bend is capable of being "one of the most humiliating experiences in Cornhusker football history" if the Nebraska don't produce better football than they did in last week's 14-7 win over Iowa State. Olds scolded Coach Bernie Masterson's pupils for a lack of fire and spirit.

PICKIN'S SLIM IN 10-DAY HUNT

Pheasant Population at All-Time Low; Season Opens Saturday

With the pheasant population down to what some observers believe is an all-time low, the 10-day open-season beginning at noon Saturday bids well to be one of the least interesting in history.

The usual migration of hunters from Omaha, Lincoln and out-of-state points is expected to drop-off sharply this year. Hotel proprietors report only a few reservations. Normally, hotels and private rooming houses overflow with nimrods.

The Nebraska pheasant population is down 35 percent from last year, when many a hunter stomped all-day without getting in a half-dozen shots.

Hours for the 10-day hunt this year are from noon to sunset. It is unlawful to shoot henn pheasants and the bag and possession limit is two birds. The season closes at sunset on October 27.

'Little House' Entertains—CELIA—The Ray Pease family has had lots of company the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Frickel, twin sons, Harold and Garold, and son, David Lee, were supper guests one night last week, and on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, of Loup City, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spann, of Atkinson, were Sunday dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed left Sunday for their home near Loup City, planning to stop at O'd to visit Gene Barnett, Mrs. Reed's nephew. Gene was flying instructor at the O'Neill airport some years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wilbern and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilbern were other callers at the R. L. Pease home this week. They stopped in for a view of the Little House and a few minutes chat. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chace, of Atkinson. Mr. Chace's brother from Clearwater, and his sister and niece from Omaha, Mrs. Willard Linville, of Atkinson, and Spoff Chace, of Atkinson. Mr. Chace's relatives wanted to see "that woman who writes" and the rest of the Chace's had never been out to the Little House, so they came along.

Attends Dental Meet—Dr. L. A. Burgess motored Sunday to Albion where he attended a meeting of a Dental Study group of which he was organizer. The meeting took place at the office of Dr. W. P. Higgins.

William Miller, of Lincoln, visited his mother, Mrs. Catherine Miller, for the weekend.
