

ST. MARY'S TOPS BUTTE HERE

Halfback Miles Sprints 80 Yards on Return of Kickoff

Coach Al Sipes' St. Mary's Cardinals administered a humiliating defeat on a visiting Butte aggregation here Friday night, 47-0.

The Scarlet from the north country were stunned by a vicious three-minute opening that netted St. Mary's a 10-point lead. The deflated Butte-men were unsuccessful in patching things and getting back into the ball game.

In three plays the Cards had six points. A placekick added two more, and a touchback boosted the count to 10 before the watch reached the three-minute mark.

Butte's fate was sealed a few minutes later when Halfback Shorty Miles, the academy's steamroller, gathered up the ball in his own endzone and raced the length of the field to score. He sped to one sideline, ran most of the defenders out-of-bounds, and cut-back behind good interference into the open spaces.

Big Tom Harty, heretofore a lineman, turned in a good job in the Cardinal backfield. He pitched a high pass to End Jim Donohoe, the play netting 35 yards and six points.

Sipes introduced a diminutive frosh, named Gerry Wells, who scampered 40 yards for one touchdown. Wells hails from Emmet.

O'NEILLITES SEE NOTRE DAME WIN

The Irish of Notre Dame crushed an outclassed but not humiliated Nebraska football team at South Bend, Ind., Saturday, score 31-0.

Some pregame predictions conceded Notre Dame more touchdowns than the less-than-mediocre Nebraska team could collect in first downs. The Huskers, however, embarrassed these extremists by rolling up nine first downs as compared to Notre Dame's 14. Nebraska's aerial attack was bottled up completely, but its backs weren't. The Irish were equally effective in both departments.

Among O'Neill people at the game were: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Froelich, Mrs. H. J. Birmingham and daughter, Mary Louise, Gene McKenna, and Hugh Coyne.

32 EAGLES SEE ACTION; WIN 33-7

Prof. Kelly Saindon paraded 32 O'Neill Eagles before the eyes of a light, inexperienced Spencer high grid team here on Wednesday afternoon, but even with the lowliest reserves in the fray the visitors couldn't put up a battle. O'Neill won, 33-7.

This week's game was played two days early because of the statewide teachers' conventions this weekend.

The Spencer team, scoreless so far this season, managed a touchdown and an extra point in the fourth stanza against O'Neill's third team.

The visitors were liberally supplied with freshmen and sophomores who may produce some real opposition come the next two or three autumns.

End Dean VanEvery scored four touchdowns for the Blues, two via the airways and two on end-arounds. Halfback Wally Shelhamer counted one touchdown.

The turnout was small for the afternoon game—the only home daylight performance this year for the Eagles.

EAGLES LOSE 13-25 THRILLER

Ainsworth's 4th Stanza Surge Produces 13 Points

SPECIAL TO THE FRONTIER

AINSWORTH—The Ainsworth Arrows, beaten this season only by the Curtis Aggies, downed the O'Neill Eagles, 25-13, under the lights here Friday night in what the Arrows' coach, Joe Greeno, has described as "easily the best game of the season."

From the beaten Eagles there came no apologies. They admit they were licked by a harder-charging, better maneuvering outfit that is literally writing its own ticket this season on the north-central Nebraska grids.

O'Neill received the kick-off, was held for downs, and was forced to kick. The Arrows launched a march that went for 70 yards and a touchdown. Not to be outdone, the Blues received the next kick and hammered out 81 yards and six points with Fullback Bob Matthews plunging for the counter from the 2.

In the last half-minute of the first-half, the Arrows dug up an end-around ditty that went for pay-dirt from the midfield stripe and the scoreboard read 12-6 at intermission.

As the third period got underway, O'Neill kicked to Ainsworth. A Maroon fumble, recovered by Guard Duane Miller, gave O'Neill possession in midfield, and O'Neill's second touchdown march was on. A forward-lateral—from Matthews to End Dean VanEvery to Quarterback Gordon Elkins—produced the six points, and a pass—Matthews to VanEvery—produced the point that gave O'Neill a short-lived 13-12 lead.

In the fourth the Arrows launched two powerful drives that the Blues couldn't stop. As the game ended O'Neill was inside the Maroon 20-yard-stripe but the gun checked the push.

O'Neill's blocking and tackling was in sharp contrast with the listless, dull performances the previous Friday at Creighton in which the Blues were set down, 6-0. But Ainsworth's blocking and tackling was just as effective, and coupled with a clever and strong offensive this spelled the difference between the two clubs.

Mrs. Viola Morgan and son, Francis, spent the weekend in North Loup at the home of her son, Oliver, and family. Clayton and Eletarea Mesner were in charge of the Morgan home.

COYOTES CARDS BATTLE 8-8 TIE

Pass Interception In 4th Stanza Prevents a St. Mary's Defeat

SPECIAL TO THE FRONTIER

CHAMBERS—A fourth quarter interception of a Chambers pass enabled End Larry Pribil to race 40 yards and score the tying points in the 8-8 Chambers-St. Mary's game here on Wednesday afternoon.

The Coyotes had captured an early eight-point lead with a first-quarter touchdown and dropkick. Pribil's interception prevented disaster for the Cardinals.

Halfback Shorty Miles, injured in the opening minute of the game, returned to St. Mary's line-up long enough to boot the drop-kick try for extra points that tied-up the score.

Miles saw little action because of a recurring knee injury.

The clubs were evenly matched and the yardage from rushing slightly favored the Coyotes. The Cards made a gallant stand on their one-foot line when Chambers had a first-down and goal to go. When St. Mary's held for downs and took over, the oval was back on the 15.

End Jim Donohoe sparked for St. Mary's while Halfback Cavanaugh shone for Chambers. Cavanaugh scored the Chambers touchdown by taking a pass and stepping across. The play was good for 25 yards. Halfback Pat Hickey had his fingers on the ball, but failed to intercept.
