Old Neighbors Help Atkinson Pair Celebrate

CELIA—Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Black, of Logan, Ia., arrived in Atkinson October 12 to help Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spann, of Atkinson, celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Black were neighbors of Spanns many years ago, living on the place where Gene Karr, of Atkinson, now resides.

Mr. and Mrs. Spann, who were married at Loup City, received about 60 cards of congratulations from their friends.

While here the Blacks and Spanns drove up to visit the Ray Pease family, as the Blacks wanted to see the "Little House" and renew their friendship with Mrs. Pease, whom they knew when she was a freckled faced, big-eared little girl.

Also calling to help the Spanns celebrate their anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Raymer and Claude Raymer, who happened in at the right time.

The Blacks also wanted to visit the Kliment place as this was Mrs. Black's home many years ago. This was the old Peterson place as Mrs. Black was the former Elsie Peterson. The Petersons put the buildings on this place.

Mrs. Black's brothers, Hans and Sophus Peterson, also lived on the place now occupied for many years by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kilmurry and his son, Frank, and family.
