

Guests Laden with 'Duck' Miss Connections

CELIA — Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Chace and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Wilson, all of Atkinson, dropped in at the R. L. Pease home equipped with all the makins' for a Sunday supper.

The old saw about "you bring the duck" missed connections, however, as Mr. and Mrs. Pease were away. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spann and Bob Pease were there—the Spanns keeping Bob company while his parents were in Grand Island.

WCSB Meets —

CHAMBERS — The Women's Society of Christian Service met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Glen Adams. The president, Mrs. H. B. Burch, conducted the business meeting. Plans were discussed for a bazaar and chicken-pie dinner to be held on next Wednesday.

The lesson, on "Religion for Our Generation," was presented by Mrs. J. C. Jorgensen. Refreshments of sandwiches, salad, and coffee were served by the hostess.

Youth Fellowship Meets—

EMMET—The Bible study of the Youth Fellowship was held at Mrs. D. H. Allan's home Friday with eight members present. The meetings will be held at Mrs. Allan's every other Friday of the month.

Celia Club Gives $5 to Hayrack Victims

CELIA—The Celia Homemakers held a meeting October 22 at the home of Mrs. Mark Hendricks with Mrs. S. V. Johnson as assisting hostess. The lesson was on "Sanitation" and was given by Mrs. George Beck and Mrs. Frank Kilmurry.

The club voted to donate $5 to the hayrack fund for the victims of the hayrack crash in Omaha. Mrs. Mark Hendricks gave an interesting talk on native trees.

Resignations were sent in by Mrs. Edward Heiser and Mrs. Myrtle Smith. Mrs. Victor Frickel was elected as health leader to take the place of Mrs. Ed Heiser, whose resignation was accepted.

Since this club is also now an organized garden club, Mrs. Hendricks' flowers were viewed and Mrs. R. L. Pease brought some fire lilies and tiger lilies to the club, giving them to interested members.

Mrs. E. W. Samms was a guest and was accompanied by her small daughter, Dianne.

The next meeting is to be November 12 at the home of Mrs. O. A. Hammerberg with Mrs. George Beck as assisting hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kelly and daughter, Joyce, were Oct. 19 guests at the home of Mrs. Kelly's mother, Mrs. Effie McKamy, and Mrs. Kelly's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wickman, all of Valentine.

SCANDINAVIAN ADVENTURES

Led by Thor Heyerdahl (left), Norwegian scientist and explorer, these men floated 4,000 miles across the Pacific on a 45-foot balsa raft to prove a theory. The theory: that the South Sea islands of the Poynesian group originally were populated by natives of Central or South America who floated there on the Humboldt current, employing just such a crude type of raft.
