 The members of the MYF enjoyed a hayrack party Sunday evening. The group went to the Haddan Geary home for the evening worship hour and for recreation. Mrs. Geary led the lesson on the Twenty-third Psalm.
 A weiner roast followed. The hostess served jello, cake and cocoa in honor of her daughter, Marlene, who was observing her birthday anniversary.
 The Adult Fellowship is planning to serve a Thanksgiving banquet November 6.

 "Thus saith the Lord, in an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee."—Is. 49:8.
 Sermon theme: "Why Should We Rejoice on the Anniversary of the Reformation?" 1. Because by the reformation God heard His people in an accepta-

WORLD'S MATCH-MAKER
 The fabulous Otto Krueger is dead, but the Swedish match industry is still the heart of one of the world's largest combines. This modern and efficient machine in a match factory at Lidkoping, Sweden, is one of the reasons why the combine can make millions of dollars out of splinters of wood.

The Frontier Woman

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Hi there all you nice people. Got the yard all raked up of dead leaves? It would be a hopeless task at our place and besides spading them into the soil is good for the earth and provides humus. We have been doing quite a lot of yard work. Bob set out seven peonies the other day, and that was quite a task. We put five of them in last spring but we didn't know any too much about suitable locations at that time and I sorta think maybe we set them too close to tree roots.

So this time we put them in the sunniest spot we could find, and as far from the trees as possible, which isn't very possible here for our home is ringed with giant cottonwoods, and I do mean giant! Bob spaded very deeply but he was careful not to plant the peonies deeply. The buds should never be more than an inch and a half or two inches under the earth if you want them to bloom. Peonies planted too deeply just won't cooperate.

This is the time of year, too, to feed your peonies so that they will have lovely blossoms next spring. Dig down about the roots and put a cup of steamed bone meal or balanced plant food in the dirt about the roots. You'll find it will make a big difference.

We also put out some Iris that arrived late. That I did all by my far from expert self. Iris should not be set deep either, in fact the rhizome should be just under the soil. They need at least half a day of sunshine and they should be well drained, so should peonies by the way.

Some folks who raise thousands of Iris for sale recom- mend that you mix bone meal into the soil well before plant- ing Iris and they say this will feed the Iris for three or four years until they'll need reset- ting.

Other Iris raisers say not to use bone meal unless soil is very poor — they feel the bloom is too lush and washy. We compromised by trying both ways!

We also put out some bleed- ing hearts. I had ordered two fern leafed bleeding hearts and two old fashioned type. The nursery sent four old fashioned type and, my re- marks were far from compli- mentary I can tell you. Grin.

My husband put them out for me. One must be careful not to plant them too deeply also, but they will grow in partial shade, and in fact, they like partial shade, so we utilized a shady spot for them. They like a rich soil and need plenty of room, about 18 to 20 inches apart. They should be kept culti- vated and be given plenty of moisture. They should be mulched in the fall, after the ground freezes, with straw or leaves.

It took my better-half a full day to spade a wide bor- der for the bleeding hearts and for tulips, daffodils, hya- cinths, and crocus, and to plant them. I am hoping for a lovely, early array of blossoms and color, but I have my fingers crossed. Gophers and moles are so bad in the yard.

 This is just the weather for apple sauce cake. Apples are plentiful, too, and there's plenty of sugar, so how about a really good apple sauce cake? This one is a favorite of mine:
LICKIN' GOOD APPLE SAUCE CAKE
 ½ cup shortening, 1½ cups

sugar, 2 beaten eggs, 1 cup thick, unsweetened apple sauce, 2 cups flour, ¼ tea- spoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ tea- spoon cloves, 1 cup chopped seeded raisins. Thoroughly cream shortening and sugar, add eggs and beat well. Add apple sauce, and sifted dry in- gredients. Beat smooth and fold in raisins. Bake in waxed paper lined 8 inch square pan in moderate oven 350 F. from 45 to 60 minutes. Serve plain or frosted. This cake will re- main moist several days if you keep it in a cake container or a closed covered container.

Prize Winning Letter—
 "Irish Lass," of O'Neill, wins our subscription today, but we'd like mighty well to hear from you. Won't you send us a letter for use in The Frontier Woman? Send it to Mrs. Blanche Pease, Editor, Frontier Woman, Atkinson, Nebraska. We will give you a three-months' subscription if we print your letter.
 Dear Mrs. Pease:
 How pleased I was to see your department in The Fron- tier. I thought I'd try send- ing you a letter. These days when meat is so high and we're trying to save on it, I wonder if people stop to con- sider that bacon goes a long ways, you can use a little of it, and it will do a lot.

For instance, you can make baked beans and use a slice of bacon for each member of the family laid on top of the beans to bake. Or cook cab- bage in wedges with a small piece of bacon for each mem- ber of the family, or use it in casserole dishes the same way. Its value as a seasoning is so good — the flavor just can't be beat and it provides enough meat to do for a meal.

One obtains also quite a lit- tle bacon fat which is invalu- able as shortening. It can be used in cakes, cookies, pastry, muffins, biscuits, yeast bread and rolls, griddle cakes and waffles.
 Here is also a recipe in which a little meat goes a long ways:
HAM AND LIMA BEAN CASSEROLE
 1 cup cubed cooked ham, 2 cups dried lima beans, 2 tea- spoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ½ cup finely sliced onion, ½ cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons ham or bacon drippings. Soak lima beans overnight. Drain. Cover with water and cook until tender. (The beans may be cooked for 20 minutes in boiling water and allowed to stand in that water for 40 minutes instead of being cooked overnight.) Add remaining ingredients to beans and place in a baking dish or bean pot. Add about 1 to 1½ cups water. Cover and place in a 325 F. oven and bake for about two hours. Uncover the beans the last part of baking period and brown them. Serves five or six people.

HOME - MADE BISCUIT MIX— Honestly, folks, when you can make such a good biscuit mix at home, it's ex- travagant to buy it in the stores because this is so much more economical. Mix your own biscuit mix and have it ready for various dishes be- sides biscuits. It will save you time, labor and dish washing. 3 cups flour, 3 tea- spoons baking powder, 4 tea- spoons salt, 1½ cups lard.

Sift flour and measure. Sift again with the baking powder and salt. Cut in the lard un- til the mixture has a fine even comb. Place in a closed container and keep in refrig- erator, using as desired. This mixture will keep at least a month in the refrigerator. It will make five batches with 2 cups of the biscuit dough to the batch. It may be used for biscuits, dumplings, short cake, waffles, quick coffee cake, and dozens of other things.

Purely Personal—
 It is nice to see O'Neill people in Atkinson often. We often welcome A. Neil Dawes in Atkinson and Ernest and Beth Brinkman are as much at home in Atkinson as they are in O'Neill and so are Arthur Brinkman and his wife. We quite of- ten see Bill Griffin and Regina in Atkinson, too.
 In return, we quite often loan you Charles Chace from Atkinson and we often see our City Attorney Lee in O'Neill. Turn about is fair play! Catherine Kir- wan comes often to Atkin- son and we're always glad to see her.
 Be seein' you next week.
 Sincerely yours,
 BLANCHE SPANN PEASE,
 The Frontier Woman
