A Beer License is Good for Only One Year

A license to sell beer in Nebraska is extended to applicants as a limited privilege—not as a property right.

After one year, your elected licensing officials may refuse to grant a renewal of the license if there is cause.

The purpose of this one-year limitation is to provide powerful incentive for the beer retailer to operate a clean, sanitary tavern . . . in such a temperate law-abiding manner that all the community will approve.

It is the first purpose of the Nebraska Committee to educate and encourage licensees to be fully worthy of their privilege.

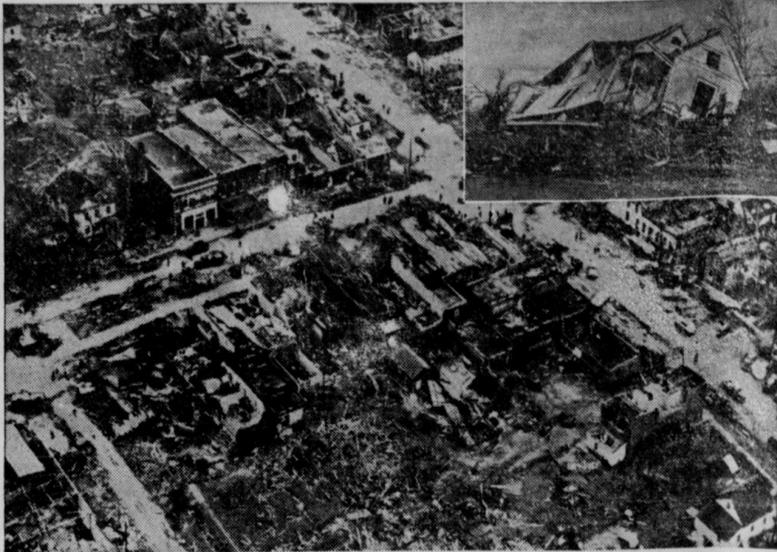

You are urged to assist by reporting any violations that have been made, any conditions that should be corrected.

Make your complaint to the local governing body and the liquor control commission. Do this important civic duty now.

SHATTERED BUNKER HILL . . . The word "tornado" invariably calls to mind 2 accompanying descriptive terms, "death and destruction," and in the case of the twister that howled through west-central Illinois those adjectives were as appropriate as ever. It cut a furious swath through an area 50 miles wide and 100 miles long, leaving behind a death toll of 31 and a trail of shattered residences. Hardest hit community was Bunker Hill, almost completely destroyed by the force of the tornado. Inset shows a closeup of one of many houses that were shattered like cardboard toys.

When You and I Were Young —

Iron 'Dollar' Fastened to Walk Frustrates Pedestrians

60 Years Ago April 5, 1888

A great "big iron dollar" was nailed on the sidewalk in front of the First National bank Sunday and was the cause of considerable merriment. Several men and boys tried hard to pick it up, but after catching on to the game they would sneak off like whipped curs. Jack McManus came along, spied the shining piece, stepped down and grabbed at it. It would not come and he drew back and kicked a heel off his Sunday boot trying to get the thing up.

O. F. Biglin has his new furniture all in and running nicely. John Hayes will open up soon with a stock of groceries and dry goods. C. C. Pond has opened up a grocery in the building formerly occupied by Hayes saloon, and will make a specialty of handling butter and eggs. The St. Louis grocery company has rented Hershiser's building and purchased M. M. Sullivan's grocery stock. They will handle staple and fancy groceries in large quantities, and will make a specialty of fine candies, cigars, and tobacco. We understand that Mr. Hagerty's building will be occupied by an eastern firm, and groceries and dry goods will be put in.

Do we boom? Business is business in this town. O'Neill is the trade center of northern Nebraska.

The village election Tuesday resulted in the selection of Neil Brennan, J. J. McCafferty, A. U. Morris, D. L. Darr and E. F. Gallagher as trustees, men who are pledged to higher license and general reform in the administration of the affairs of the village.

50 Years Ago April 7, 1898

For the first time in 4 years a republican has been elected mayor of O'Neill and that republican is Charles L. Davis, who defeated a free silver ticket with O. F. Biglin at the head.

We understand that O'Neill is soon to have a new 2-chair barber shop, same to be started by a gentleman from Omaha. We understand there was a gentleman here last week figuring on renting the Laviollette building formerly occupied by Maylon Price. There is always room for 1 more.

Some light fingered gent visited Neil Brennan's machine yard the other night and walked off with one-half of a cultivator. These midnight excursionists will probably meet with a warm reception some night while investigating.

A company of 50 strong has been organized here, and they will tender their services to the government in case of war. James Earley brought to this city Tuesday an 8-inch trout which he caught in the Eagle which runs through his farm. It was a beauty.

25 Years Ago April 5, 1923

Election day was disgracefully quiet in O'Neill Tuesday. A fact, there were no riots whatever and apparently but very few knew that an election was going on. Mrs. Robert Arbutnot and Mrs. H. U. Hubbard were reelected to the school board without opposition. Frank Phalin, of the First ward, H. E. Coyne, of the Second ward, and George Shoemaker, of the Third, were reelected to the city council.

Mrs. C. E. Stout entertained at a dinner followed by cards at the Subway Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. J. A. Devine and Miss Grace Campbell, of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Miss Margaret Donohoe, of Omaha. The 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Grutsch fell from a calf that he had been riding last Saturday and broke his left arm. The young man had just recently recovered from a fractured right arm.

T. W. Crawford, of Lynch, one of the early settlers of Holt county, died at the residence of his son, Hallie, near Paddock, Friday. Mr. Crawford had been visiting another son, Floyd, and apparently was in excellent health. He had gone to the old home place, resided upon by the son, just a few minutes before being stricken with apoplexy.

Recent Bride Feted in Shower at Inman

INMAN—About 50 guests attended a miscellaneous post-nuptial shower Friday evening at the E. E. Clark home in honor of Mrs. Vern Wrede, who is the former Emma Stevens.

Mrs. Wrede was the recipient of many gifts to take to her new home when the school term ends. She is teaching the intermediate room of the Inman school.

Mrs. Clarence Wrede, of O'Neill, was a guest. Mesdames E. E. Clark, Manuel Crosser, James Coventry, Erma and Keyes, Kenneth Smith, Elwin Smith and Melvin Smith, of Page, served refreshments.

Girls Treat Boys to Oyster Soup

INMAN—The Inman seniors are busy practicing on the play which they will present to the public later in the month. On Friday evening following play practice, the senior girls treated the senior boys to oyster soup.

INMAN NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Couch entertained a group of neighbors and friends at a party Friday evening at their country home west of town. Cards furnished the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Couch served lunch at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore and son, Harlan, drove to Tilden on Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Lillian Wadsworth and Mrs. Guy Alderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Brinker and daughter, Ruth Jane, of Butte, moved last Thursday to the James McMahan property in east Inman. Mr. Brinker is a salesman.

Mrs. Eva Murten has returned to her home after spending several days with friends at Blair.

TREE ARRIVALS ARE AWAITED

Holt Soil District Has Difficulty in Securing Cedar Seedlings

Final plans are being readied for tree planting by the Holt Soil conservation district, according to Carl Lambert, chairman of the board of supervisors. "The planting crew has been hired and we are now waiting for the arrival of the Spring shipment of trees," Lambert stated.

One of the big difficulties has been securing enough trees, especially cedars.

At a recent meeting the district supervisors accepted requests for assistance in soil and moisture conservation work from the following farmers and ranchers:

They also approved long-time conservation programs for the following:

Skrdla Brothers, of Stuart; Fred C. Hayes, of Atkinson; Everett Hale, of Atkinson; Chester E. Taylor, of Ewing; John Dick, of O'Neill; H. R. Rouse, of O'Neill; Lloyd Gallagher, of O'Neill; Mary M. Pribil, of O'Neill; J. F. Pojar of Inman; Herley Fox, of Page; Henry Burival, of Page; Tony Mudloff, of Page; Alma Drayton, of Orchard; Joe Chilar of Redbird, and Lloyd Gleed of Chambers.

Seven United States presidents have died in office.

TRAFFIC RECORD IS IMPROVING

Only 6 Deaths in March Compared to 26 a Year Ago

"Death was forced to take several holidays during the month of March insofar as traffic fatalities were concerned because of Nebraska drivers' continued alertness. This enabled the state to establish an all-time low for deaths due to traffic accidents," E. P. Tinker, executive director of the Nebraska state safety council said Wednesday.

Nebraska recorded just 6 traffic fatalities for March

as against 26 last year for the same period.

In establishing this all-time record, a previous low of 7 traffic fatalities in March of 1941 was substantially bettered.

At the same time, other marks were established during March. One of these was the longest period in postwar reording without a death due to a traffic accident. This record was established when the state went 22 days without a fatality from March 2 through 13.

Also recorded during this month and the latter part of February was a 25-day period with only 2 traffic deaths. This mark was established after February 26.

HERE'S WHY MORE PEOPLE WANT STASSEN!

CHECK THIS LIST — PROVE TO YOURSELF STASSEN STANDS FOR THE SAME THINGS YOU DO

STASSEN is for cutting the cost of government — and knows how to do it. In Minnesota he slashed debt 30%, cut expenses 12%. He reduced taxes on farm and home property 45% — yet had more money for schools, welfare and future reserves.

STASSEN is for a sound, prosperous farm economy. He is the only candidate with a mid-west farm background. He was born and raised on a Minnesota farm—was three times governor of that farming state. He knows our farm problems, and he appreciates the importance of the farmer to the nation.

STASSEN is for a strong army and navy ready to meet any emergency. He has had important military experience, having served two years in the Pacific as aide to Admiral Halsey.

STASSEN is for a business-like foreign policy that will keep America strong. He is the ONLY candidate who has dealt first-hand with Stalin. He knows what we face in the world. He is for a firm hand with Russia and says we should STOP shipping them war goods NOW!

STASSEN is for peace between labor and industry — and knows how to get it. In Minnesota he reduced the number of men on strike 70% while, during the same period, strikes in the nation doubled!

STASSEN is for the average, hard-working American citizen. Time magazine says of him:

"Few men in public life have exhibited more sympathy for the ordinary man, more understanding of the hopes and fears of the ordinary citizen."

STASSEN is a family man. He wants a free, well-housed, strong America—rich with opportunities for our boys and girls.

STASSEN visits his parents on their farm in Dakota County, Minn. He is for prosperity on the farm.

STASSEN is an administrator. Three times governor, twice elected by governors of 48 states to head National Governor's Conference.

STASSEN CAN WIN!

National polls show more people want Stassen. Gallup Poll, Roper Poll and Fortune Magazine say that across the nation, Stassen stands highest of all candidates with independent voters. Nominate a man who can be elected, and return Good Government to the United States.
