

72 SENIORS TO GRADUATE HERE

St. Mary's to Honor 42; O'Neill High 30 in Commencement

Nineteen members of the 1948 class are not from O'Neill. The graduation calendar at St. Mary's academy includes a junior-senior banquet to be held on Tuesday, May 18. Class night activities will be held on Wednesday, May 26, at 8 p. m., and the term will officially close on Thursday, May 27.

Baccalaureate will be held Sunday, May 9, at 8 p. m. for O'Neill high seniors. Mrs. John Urton and Miss Esther Kinnier, at the piano, will be heard in processional and recessional, and solos will be sung by Helen Urton and James Bridges. Also included on the program is a selection by a mixed octette. The baccalaureate speaker will be Rev. Lloyd Mullis, of the Methodist church.

Busy Week for Page Seniors

PAGE—Page high school seniors were honored at a banquet Saturday evening with the members of the junior class as hosts. The theme, "Good Luck," was carried out with a large rainbow, pots of gold, and good luck symbols. Rainbow toasts were given by Superintendent Lamason, Lois Heiss, Betty Knudson, Bob Prill, Patte Banta, Mrs. Agnes Engle, Harold Tegeler and Norman Trowbridge.

The class play, "One Mad Night," was presented Friday evening. The cast included Ross Rakow, Donald Braddock, Jeannine Waring, Lois Heiss, Tom Kelly, Monte Taylor, Bob Prill, Patte Banta, Marjorie Harvey, Harriet Simmons, Charlene Park, Betty Knudsen and Dick Buxton.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening with the sermon by Rev. Carl Rayburn. Beverly Kelly played the processional and recessional marches.

Inman Seniors in Annual Play

INMAN—Inman seniors presented their annual play, "Neighbors by Appointment," Thursday, April 29. The cast included: Gordon Sholes, Erma Luben, Shirley Appleby, Delmont Heck, Luella Watson, Erwin Sobotka, Henrietta Sobotka, Deloris Cadwallader, Paul Hartigan, Genevieve Brunckhorst, John Harte, Max Mossman and Bonnie Couch.

The senior class spent Sunday and Monday at Long Pine, Valentine and Chadron on their annual sneak day. Drivers for the group were Supt. Ralph Gray, Tommy Blake and Charles Sobotka.

Burkhardt to Address Ewing Class

EWING—Ewing high school baccalaureate services will be held Sunday, May 9, with Rev. C. Donald Vogel delivering the address. Mrs. Wilbur Spangler and Mrs. A. S. Evans will sing a duet while Beth Billings will play the processional and recessional.

Commencement exercises will be held Monday, May 10, with Dr. Allen Burkhardt, of Norfolk, addressing the class.

Poppy Day Plans Being Completed

"A poppy on every coat—remembrance in every heart," will be the theme of the American Legion auxiliary's annual observance of Poppy day, Saturday, May 29.

Plans for Poppy day have been completed by Mrs. Dean Streeter, the auxiliary's poppy chairman. All Poppy day workers will give their time without pay. Mrs. Streeter explained. Contributions made for the poppies will go to the rehabilitation and child welfare funds of the Legion and auxiliary, to be used for the benefit of disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans during the coming year.

Harry Peterson left Monday for Grand Island where he spent several days on business.

Wednesday Afternoon Shower Nets .25-Inch

Precipitation Wednesday afternoon netted .25-inch of moisture, Government Observer Elmer Bowen said.

Showers began falling early in the day, but the moisture was negligible until the showers turned into a downpour during the noon hour.

Farmers in the region welcomed .11-inch last Thursday night. Subsoil moisture is not as good as expected at this time of the season, and most farmers are hoping for additional moisture soon.

The week's summary, based on 24-hour periods ending at 8 a. m. daily and not including precipitation after 8 a. m. Wednesday, follows:

	Hi	Lo	Moist
April 29	74	49
April 30	75	54	.11
May 1	66	50	.03
May 2	57	43	T
May 3	70	47
May 4	68	40
May 5	73	47	.01

How Can You Tell?

You Can't... by a chick's appearance!

★ Chicks look very much alike. It's the breeding and selection inside the chick that counts. Our testing and control plan behind Tri-State baby chicks is one assurance that they'll grow into sturdy, large-bodied birds... either productive pullets or profitable meat birds.

★ That "Invisible Chick" behind the chick you see in the box determines rapid growth, quick feathering, long life, high production, big eggs, good market type and pure-bred quality.

★ On TUESDAY, MAY 11th, we have a hatch coming off containing Leghorn, White Rocks, Reds and Leg Rocks.

★ Call, write, or come in for prices and further particulars.
