Richard Cronin Weds in Lincoln

The marriage of Miss Eileen Maclay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Maclay, of Auburn, and Richard D. Cronin, son of Mrs. Faye Cronin, of Santa Barbara, Calif., formerly of O'Neill, took place at St. Mary's Cathedral in Lincoln at 9 a.m. April 24. Rev. Thomas Daly officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with lilies.

The bride wore a street-length dress of aqua crepe with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ann Proper, of Auburn, wore a black and white sharkskin suit, and she had a corsage of pink camillas.

Verle Harper, of Lincoln, attended the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served to the bridal party at the Cornhusker hotel.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at 1710 N. Street in Lincoln.

The bridegroom is a son of the late editor of The Frontier, Dennis H. Cronin. Richard is a 1946 graduate of St. Mary's academy here.

Jennie Beth Mellor, Bob Summerer Wed

Jennie Beth Mellor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor, of Atkinson, became the bride of Bob Summerer, of Ewing, Sunday, May 2, at 2 p.m. at the Presbyterian church in O'Neill. Rev. Ralph Chamberlain, of Grand Island, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Esther Kinnier, of O'Neill, played Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Valera Lofquest, sang 2 numbers "Near You" and "All My Love".

The bride, attired in white satin and carrying a bouquet of white calla lilies, was given in marriage by her father. The bridal gown was fashioned with a net yoke and high neckline, full sleeves tapering to a point over the wrist, a fitted bodice and a full skirt ending in a short train. Val lace was used for the peplum and caps over the sleeves at the shoulder line. Miniature satin buttons and loops formed the back trim. The bride wore a fingertip veil held in place with a Juliet cap, and carried a bouquet of calla lilies. She also wore pearls and a wrist watch, the gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's attendants were the Misses Mary Young and Imogene Lanman, who wore identical pink and blue floor-length gowns. Their corsages were of white sweet peas. The bridegroom and his attendants, Carol Summerer, his brother, and George Mellor, brother of the bride, wore dark business suits.

Frances Chaffin, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. James Mellor, brother of the bride, carried the rings in a calla lily.

Ushers were Duane Summerer and Murray Mellor. The bride's mother, Mrs. Mellor, and Mrs. Minnie Primus, the bridegroom's grandmother, chose navy blue street dresses with white accessories. Both had gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The wedding cake was baked by the bride's sister, Mrs. Leonard Chaffin, of Atkinson. Waitresses were Dorothy Young, Tillie Peter, Twila Whaley, Elzene Thomas and Elsie Peter.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip through Texas. For her going away costume, the bride chose a white linen street dress with navy blue accessories.

Mrs. Summerer graduated from O'Neill high school in 1946 and has been employed in the county agent's office in O'Neill for the past year and a half.

Mr. Summerer graduated from Ewing high school in 1942 and has been ranching near Chambers since that time. Out-of-town guests for the

The Last Roundup' Theme of Banquet

The junior class of O'Neill high school entertained the senior class in the annual banquet on Tuesday evening.

The theme, "The Last Roundup," was carried out in decorations of the reception room, auditorium, stage and tables.

The auditorium presented an outdoor scene with a real chuck wagon and campfire, with bales of hay, tumbleweeds, saddles, grub kettles, all forming an effective background.

Table decorations were small wagons, candles in logs which carried out the copper, green and yellow colors. Nutcups were dolls dressed as cowboys and cowgirls, with favors of caldrons.

The banquet was prepared by the WSCS of the Methodist church. Waiters were members of the sophomore class dressed as cowboys and cowgirls. They were: Wauweta Anspach, Beverly Boelter, Geraldine Fredrickson, Jeanne Head, Margie Hungerford, Daryl Beckwith, Claude Cole, Clayton Laya, Lewis Pierson, Darrell Weingartner.

Don Harmon was toastmaster, with talks given by Dwayne Borg, William Rickly, Supt. Ira George and Wally Shelhamer.

The cowboys and cowgirls sang "Night on the Plains."

Following the banquet, the crowning of the king and queen took place in the band room where outdoor scenes formed the background. The throne was backed by initials of the seniors as cattle brands.

Mary Head and Robert Matthews were chosen queen and king by popular vote of the senior class. Attendants were: Vivienne Boelter, Helen Urton, James Bridges and Bryce Phillips. Following the coronation, dancing concluded the entertainment.

Banquet chairmen were: Helen Bowden, Wally Shelhamer, Don Harmon, Ivalyn Brady, Dwayne Borg, Maria Fox. Class sponsors are Miss Viola Haynes and Mrs. Charlotte Ressegieu.

Virgil Tomlinson left Friday for Springfield, Ill., where he will attend an auto school for a week.
