

CIRCUS BRINGS FIRST GIRAFFES

The average touring circus has never boasted of exhibiting a herd of giraffes. But the Al G. Kelly-Miller Bros. circus, which will be in O'Neill Tuesday, May 25, recently acquired a herd. A circus representative acclaimed them to be the tallest of all animals.

The Kelly-Miller circus will play in the academy ball park here in 2 performances, afternoon and night.

A Kelly-Miller representative said the only other circus in America exhibiting giraffes is the famous Ringling-Barnum show. There are only 7 zoological institutions in the nation having giraffes as an attraction.

Giraffes are found only in the continent of Africa and are said to be the tallest of all living creatures. They belong to the ruminants, or cudchewers, and naturalists are inclined to place them somewhere between the deer family and the hollow-horned ruminants, in which are to be found oxen, buffaloes, and antelopes.

The towering height of the giraffe is entirely attributed to the great length of neck and limbs. A full grown giraffe will measure approximately 19 feet in height. Giraffes live mostly in forests or wooded country.

Undoubtedly this will be the first time any circus has ever brought giraffes to O'Neill.

The herd of Kelly-Miller pachyderms or elephants are not only the "biggest stars" of the sawdust arena, but they assist in unloading and loading the heaviest of the show's paraphenalia. They are relied upon to raise the center poles as well as raising of the heavy canvas.

In rainy weather, 1 or 2 of the big land animals alone are able to move a loaded wagon deep in the mud, where 16 horses would be unable to move it an inch.

Both species are carried with this circus, the African and Asiatic, the latter being the only species that has been successfully trained. The African elephant being kept for exhibition purposes only.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moses were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Moses and son, Stephen, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Moses and son, Robert, of Wayne; and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Evans and children, Richard and Bonnie, of Ewing.

A midget clown with the Kelly-Miller show offers a height comparison with 2 of the giraffes, which are recent additions to the circus. (See story at left.)
