Dahms-Fisher Nuptial Rite Held in Denver

Pastel and white Spring flowers and candelabra formed the setting at the Immaculate Conception cathedral in Denver, Colo., Tuesday, May 4, when Miss Emmy Lou Fisher, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Fisher, became the bride of E. William Dahms, of Chicago, Ill. The ceremony was performed at a 9 a.m. mass.

Miss Mary Ann Fisher, of Denver, was maid-of-honor for her sister. Dr. Fisher served as bestman for Mr. Dahms. The bride appeared in a beige wool dressmaker's suit and wore a natural colored straw hat. She carried a small colonial bouquet.

The maid-of-honor wore a blue dressmaker's suit and a blue hat. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Both Mr. Dahms and Dr. Fisher wore dark blue dress suits and had white boutonnières.

Immediately following the ceremony, a breakfast was held at the Park Lane hotel in Denver for the immediate families.

The couple spent their honeymoon at the Broadmoor hotel at Colorado Springs, and reached O'Neill last week. They departed from O'Neill Tuesday for San Francisco, Calif., where they will remain for a few days before sailing for Guam where Mr. Dahms is employed by the United States government.

Mrs. Dahms was graduated from St. Teresa college at Winona, Minn. She served a year in Guam with the American Red Cross. Mr. Dahms served in the Army overseas during World War II.
