

Miss Imogene Lanman Weds George Meller in Church Ceremony

Miss Imogene Lanman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lanman of O'Neill, became the bride of George Meller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor, of Atkinson, at the Methodist church, Thursday, May 20 at 2 p. m. Rev. Orin Graif, of Atkinson, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white satin gown with long sleeves tapered to a point over the wrist, a sweetheart neckline trimmed with seed pearls, and a full skirt ending in an aisle wide train. Her floor length veil was held in place with a Juliet cap trimmed with orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and lilies of the valley tied with white satin streamers.

The bride's attendants were Mary Young, of O'Neill, who wore a pink taffeta floor-length gown, and Mrs. Bob Summerer, of Ewing, sister of the groom, who wore a blue taffeta floor-length gown. Both wore white jersey elbow-length mitts, and corsages.

Mr. Meller's attendants were Murray Mellor, of Atkinson, and Bob Summerer, of Ewing. Ushers were Benton Mellor, brother of the groom, and Don Lanman, brother of the bride. All wore dark business suits and white carnation button-aiers.

A reception followed in the church parlors for relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Meller left on a trip to the Black Hills, after which they will be at home in O'Neill. For her going away costume, the bride chose a light blue afternoon dress and white accessories.

Mrs. Mellor is a graduate of the O'Neill public school and has been teaching rural schools since her graduation. Mr. Mellor served 2 years in the Navy and is serving as club assistant at the county agent's office.

Helen Andre Is Bride of Roy D. Johnson

A pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. R. W. Roth at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Chicago, Ill., at 4 p. m. on Saturday, May 15. Miss Helen Andre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Andre, of Chicago, became the bride of Roy D. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay H. Johnson, sr., of O'Neill, in a double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown fashioned of white figured marquisette which had a fitted bodice with a full gathered skirt forming a short train. She wore long, white satin mitts. Her fingertip veil was held in place by lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley tied with a white satin ribbon.

Miss Jean Johnson of Baraga, Mich., a former roommate of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Miss Elsie Krantz, of Hammond, Ind., was bridesmaid.

The groom and his attendants, Milton Hagberg, of Wau-sa, and Kenneth Soderquist, of Jamestown, N. Y., were dressed formally and wore button-aiers of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held.

The bride and groom recently attended Augustana college at Rock Island, Ill.

Mrs. Johnson, a graduate nurse, was employed at the Augustana hospital in Chicago prior to the wedding. Mr. Johnson, who served 23 months in the armed forces, is now employed at the Lohaus Motor Co., in O'Neill.
