PREMIER-TO-EE VISITS SOLDIERS . . . David Ben Gurion (center), at present chairman of the Jewish agency but slated to become the prime minister of the Jewish state-to-be in Palestine, is shown at a Jerusalem camp visiting soldiers of the Hanagah, Jewish fighting force which has been carrying on the Jews' battle against the Arabs for months. Haganah, about 75,000 strong, is reported to be a well-trained, highly efficient fighting force, yet these soldiers appear to be just youngsters. Nevertheless, they have had much experience in the difficult art of guerrilla warfare.

GOOD MEDICINE FROM THE UNITED STATES . . . Beneficial results from the American Friendship trains know few bounds. Arrival of a friendship train loaded with nourishing food will give these tubercular patients in a Vienna, Austria, hospital a better chance to win their fight against the scourge.

Physician in charge has announced the arrival of the food on a blackboard in an open-air ward. Doctors fighting tuberculosis in disease-ridden nations of Europe have been asking continually for food, as the best medicine they can provide. This food was donated by people of the 48 states and Alaska.

THE FRONTIER'S family of readers is growing!

Yes sir! Each issue of The Frontier is read by more people than the previous issue . . . because this newspaper's circulation is on the climb.

One of the chief reasons is because in 1947 The Frontier published more "homeprint" news pictures than all other Holt county newspapers combined!

There are other features, too, that are helping boost The Frontier's readership. These include: "Prairie Land Talk," by Rommie Saunders; "The Frontier Woman," by Blanche Spann Pease; "When You and I Were Young"; "Out of Old Nebraska"; "Real Estate Transfer"; "Future Subscribers"; and other favorite departments. In addition, The Frontier hires a corps of correspondents that provides a steady flow of news from the surrounding communities.

If you'd enjoy a regular weekly visit of The Frontier in your home, why not fill in the coupon below and mail it right away with a check, cash, or money order?
