Rockets Wreck Stuart 14-2 as Second-Half Play Gets Underway

Second-half play in the Holt county league got off to a rather slow start Sunday, July 11, as the O'Neill Rockets, first-half victors, buried Stuart 14-2 at O'Neill. Page blasted a listless Chambers outfit 11-5, at Chambers, and Atkinson turned back Ewing 11-9 on the Atkinson lot.

The 3 winning teams showed clear-cut superiority Sunday with the Rockets sounding a strong bid for second-half honors.

In second round games next Sunday, Atkinson will travel to Page, Ewing will entertain O'Neill, and Chambers and Stuart will settle a dispute at Stuart.

O'Neill 14; Stuart 2
The Stuart-O'Neill clash here Sunday, July 11, was an interesting ball game until the seventh. In that memorable frame the O'Neill Rockets exploded all over the lot, Stuart fielders began running in circles, and 7 runs were chased in. The final count: O'Neill 14, Stuart 2.

O'Neill led 4-2 going into the lopsided seventh. Third baseman Bright was the Rocket's first man up. He slapped out a homerun. First baseman Morrow flied out to second and Big Dick Tomlinson, catcher for the day, connected on a triple.

A centerfield error enabled Pitcher Danny Helmer to reach first and Tomlinson scored. Kelly Saindon, shortstop, got on by virtue of an error. Second baseman Marv Miller connected, scoring Saindon. Gene Wolfe, outfielder, got on with a fielder's choice. Ed Schmidt, fielder, was out, shortstop to second, but Junior Adamson countered with a hit, scoring Miller and Wolfe.

By this time the O'Neill base running was amusing the crowd, but confusing the Stuart clan.

Having batted around, Bright stepped up and was struck by a pitched ball. Morrow and Tomlinson walked and things were going from bad to worse for the hapless visitors until Helmer struckout, retiring O'Neill.

The Rockets were playing without the services of Milo Gorgen, Dick Hungerford, Joe Conro, and Ted Tomjack.

Stuart's Tielke started for the visitors, abandoned the mound in the third. His substitute, Rudolph, gave up in the disastrous seventh and Tielke finished.

The O'Neill playground was not wanting for customers. Automobiles circled the playing field and there were many parked behind the backstop.

CHAMBERS — The Page baseballers handily disposed of Chambers Sunday, July 11, in the opening round of play in the second-half of the Holt county baseball league race. Page won 11-5 although Chambers outthit the winners 11-8.

It was a listless game for both teams. That die-hard spirit, which has characterized many Chambers teams in other years, was definitely lacking as Page grabbed the lead and maintained a comfortable margin.

A Heiss family reunion deprived the winners of the services of regulars Darrel, shortstop, and Kenneth, a fielder, but the Page club rolled merrily on. Earl Stevens, of Inman, and Dick Cunningham crashed the Page lineup with creditable substitute performances.

The Page baseballers complained bitterly about the neglected baseball diamond, but proceeded to play the game anyway.

Only a handful of customers, most of them from Page, witnessed the game.

TEMPORARY COMEBACK FOR THE BABE
Babe Ruth showed up on a baseball diamond again wearing a uniform and swinging a bat. The event took place in Yankee stadium before the start of a recent game between the New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians, and the baseball world paused briefly to pay homage to one of its all-time greats. The Bambino made his appearance in his famous number 3 Yankee uniform, thus making him the last Yankee ever to be allowed to wear that particular suit. It has been turned over to Paul S. Kerr, secretary of baseball's Hall of Fame, to be placed in the Cooperstown, N. Y., museum along with other mementoes of the Babe's great days in the sport. In the picture, members of the Cleveland team applaud Ruth in the dugout behind him.

Atkinson 11; Ewing 9
ATKINSON — Clem Schrad, Ewing hurler, lost a heart-breaker here Sunday in the second-half Holt league opener for both teams. He labored under a hot sun, set down 18 via the strikeout route—yet lost the game 9-11.

The Atkinson big guns were too well oiled for Schrad, and when they were fired they were devastating. Atkinson outthit Ewing 12-7. Both teams were charged with 7 errors.

Frank Schaa, Atkinson catcher, pounded out 4 hits in 5 trips to lead the day's batting.

Jerry Troshynski, Atkinson moundsman, whiffed 10. A large crowd was on hand. In a preliminary, the Stuart Legion juniors nipped the Atkinson juniors 9-5 in 7 innings.

The line score for the main event:

Ewing	000	500	040—9
Atkinson	202	132	10x—11

Batteries: Ewing — Clem Schrad and Podany; Atkinson — Jerry Troshynski and Frank Schaa.
