

Ewing Nips Rockets 3 - 2 in 12 Innings

O'Neill Club Handed First Reversal of the Season in Holt League Play

By a Staff Writer

The big news of the week in baseball circles in these parts was Ewing's lamponing of the O'Neill Rockets 3-2. The Rockets were all-victorious thus far in Holt county league play until they met their Waterloo on the Ewing playground on Sunday, July 18.

Meanwhile, Page also took it on the chin, dropping a 5-8 decision to a visiting Atkinson aggregation.

The Stuart-Chambers meeting was a no-show affair. In Chambers where baseball hopes were high early in the season the club officials couldn't muster 9 men for a scheduled game at Stuart. Thus, Chambers was obliged to forfeit.

Ewing 3; O'Neill 2

EWING—The high-riding O'Neill Rockets were jolted 3-2 by Ewing Sunday in their first setback of the season in Holt county league play. Twelve innings were required to settle the dispute, which was waged on more-or-less even terms until the decisive final frame.

The Rockets, who seldom this season have scored less than 10 points per game, tallied in the sixth and ninth innings.

O'Neill came close to winning the game in the 10th when Big Ed Schmidt, left fielder, tried to stretch a double into a triple and was tagged in the process. Center Fielder Darrell Bright struck out, but First Baseman Maynard Morrow singled. Schmidt might have scored the winning run if he had been on base.

Ewing fashioned the winning tally by capitalizing on O'Neill misques. Jensen, first man up in the 12th, got on by virtue of an error on O'Neill's Schmidt, who roamed from left field into deep center field to take a fly but dropped the ball. Right Fielder Sheets got a single, advancing Jensen to second. Clem Schrad, Ewing pitcher, grounded to Pitcher Danny Helmer, who wanted a double-out but lacked cooperation at second. Consequently everyone was safe. Shortstop R. Bollwitt popped out to Helmer and Left Fielder V. Bollwitt flied out to First Baseman Morrow. Next man up, Catcher J. Podany, turned the trick. On 4 previous trips to the plate, Mr. Helmer had set him down via the strikeout route. Not this time. He connected on a clean single that brought Mr. Jensen in with the winning tally.

The large crowd, comprised mainly of Ewingites, went wild.

The Schrad vs. Helmer pitching duel was in the form of a fast ball vs. a curve ball. Schrad was grooving them in high and through the middle and Helmer was working hard on his fast breaks.

Helmer struckout 16 and Schrad set down 17.

Some of the Rockets were unhappy with Earl Billings' umpiring behind the plate, but in no way did their grievances with the officials detract from Schrad's neat job of pitching.

inopportune times, proved too costly.

Three misques each were charged against Shortstop Larson and Third Baseman Bob Appleby and 1 was assessed against Second Baseman Fred Appleby.

Jerry Troshynski, hurling for Atkinson, struckout 3 and walked 7. Darrell Graham, of Page, yielded only 4 hits while striking out 6 and walking 1 in 6 innings. He was replaced by Lloyd Cork, who gave up only 2 hits in 3 innings and struckout 3. Thus, in the pitching department the Page team was well represented.

Fred Appleby connected safely on 3 out of 5 trips to lead the Page offense, but Atkinson's Bob Berigan, a substitute at shortstop, hit safely twice in 2 tries for a perfect day at bat.

Atkinson's Doc Mancuso, playing third, looked good in the winner's infield.

Chambers Forfeits STUART - The Stuart baseballers were on hand and the diamond was readied for the scheduled Stuart - Chambers clash in Holt league play here Sunday, July 18, but the Chambers crew never showed.

A telephone call earlier advised the Stuart officials that the Chambers bosses were experiencing difficulty in assembling a quorum.

According to league regulations, the failure to show becomes a forfeit.

Miss Bonnie Couch Weds Rudy Norton

INMAN—Miss Bonnie Couch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Couch, of Inman, became the bride of Rudy Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Norton, of Blodgett, Ore., Monday, July 19, at 1 o'clock at the Holt county court house.

County Judge Louis W. Reimers officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of heaven blue satin with matching veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Shirley Appleby, a classmate, was bridesmaid, and she wore a brown suit.

The bridegroom was attended by Gary Couch, of O'Neill, brother of the bride. Both wore business suits.

Mrs. Norton graduated from Inman high school with the class of 1948. A wedding dinner at Slat's Cafe in West O'Neill followed the ceremony, attended by the couple and their immediate relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton will be at home to their friends after August 1 at Blodgett, Ore., where the bridegroom is in the lumber industry.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Norton, of Blodgett, Ore., were out-of-town guests for their son's wedding.
