CITY GOLF MEET OPENS THIS WEEK

Jaskowski Is Defending Champ; Young Set Has Contenders

Qualifying play in the annual citywide golf tournament at the 9-hole Country club course here will begin this weekend. There will be flights for all players, according to club officials.

A. P. ("Scovie") Jaskowski is the defending champion. He wrested the title from M. J. ("Max") Golden last year. The honors have been shared by Jaskowski and Golden since 1945 when the former won the title. In 1946 Golden won it and last year Jaskowski came on the throne.

A crop of younger golfers will bear watching during the 1948 meet, according to some observers. Among these are Jim Hart, Eddie Campbell, Ben Grady, Joe McCarrville, jr., Gene McKenna, Gordon Hiatt, and others.

Players desiring to qualify for the championship flight will turn in their scores for 18 holes, a spokesman said, while all other entrants may turn in 9-hole scores. Qualifying scores are to be turned into Jaskowski by Tuesday evening, August 3.

Club officials are hoping for a record turnout for the city meet. The fairways are in excellent condition.

League officials are contemplating a night game. The Rockets will entertain an all-star aggregation made up of players from the 5 other teams in the league.

Officials explained that the game will be played on a date to be announced later.

SWIMMIN' HOLE ATTRACTS MANY

Atkinson Service Club Sponsors Supervised Recreation in River

ATKINSON — An old-fashioned swimmin' hole in the Elkhorn river, now under Service club sponsorship and life-guard supervision, has been rechristened a swimming pool.

Regardless of title, the fact is that the place is getting a big play, especially from the youngsters and teen-agers.

The swimmin' hole originally was opened on a trial basis on a Sunday, July 18. The word got around. Under the supervision of Earl Penry, a former life guard, and Robert Mack and Pat Miller everything went well.

The idea, originated by the activities council, received backing by the Service club; the American Legion tossed in a hundred dollars, and it looks like Atkinson's kids are in store for a full summer of supervised swimming.

The pool is open 7 days each week—from 1:30 to 5 p. m., and from 6 to 8 p. m.

Those who use the pool are expected to comply with regulations, a spokesman said.

Mack and Miller alternate as guards.

Atkinson kids are just as happy as if they were swimming in a half-million dollar layout.

Page 9; Stuart 7

PAGE—The up-and-coming Page baseballers, who like any other newborn ball team are frequently afflicted with jitters, squeaked by Stuart Sunday, 9-7.

But for a time the Page cause looked doubtful. Stuart led 7-1 going into the sixth and 7-5 going into the seventh.

Infield bobbles nearly cost Page the game. Page outthrew Stuart 9-5, but untimely mistakes helped Stuart build a tidy margin that was difficult to whittle down.

Dick Asher, 24, who has thrown the ball around considerably but never in league play, went good for Page during his stand on the mound. Veteran Darrell Graham, however, got credit for the win. Graham whiffed 4, walked none, gave up 1 hit in little more than 3 innings. Asher was touched for 4 hits, struck out 4, walked 3 and hit 1 in nearly 6 frames.

Harold Tielke, Stuart moundsman, struckout 9 and walked 1. He went the distance for the losers.

Ewing 3; Chambers 1

CHAMBERS — Ewing rambled through Chambers 3-1 at Chambers Sunday.

Ewing's superiority on the stick was not truly reflected in the score as the visitors outthrew Chambers 11-1.

Bud Sholes, Chambers hurler, was pounced on hard by Ewing batsmen in several instances.

Clem Shrad, pitching for Ewing, set down 7 via the strikeout route. Art Kropp, of Ewing, had the best individual performance at the plate, batting 1.000 with 4 hits in 4 trips.

There was a poor crowd on hand as second-half play crossed the midway mark for both teams.

The line score:

Chambers	001	000	000-1 1 4
