

When You and I Were Young —

Mock Holdup of Dr. Berry Good Joke, but Persistency Might Lead to Procession

57 YEARS AGO
September 24, 1891

The fair is in progress this week. In the matter of attendance the fair is not a howling success. The weather has not been good, and this probably accounts for the fact that the grounds are not crowded. The agricultural exhibit, while not in large quantities, are first-class and the floral hall is full of fancy work and attractive displays.

Mr. Brett, who talks of erecting a 50 barrel flouring mill in O'Neill, has concluded to accept a bonus of $1,000 and grounds, and the committee having the matter in charge is finishing up its work. The gentleman will be given a guaranty that almost every citizen in O'Neill will buy his flour, and if everything is satisfactorily arranged O'Neill will have a mill long before snow flies. Hurrah for O'Neill!

T. V. Golden has been appointed by the board of supervisors to fill the chair made vacant by the resignation of Sanford Parker. Mr. Golden was formerly an active member of the board, and can be relied upon to properly attend to the business of the office.

W. A. Selden, an experienced tailor late of Long Pine and formerly of Chadron, has purchased H. Shroer's tailor shop and will put in a good stock of suitings. The Frontier welcomes Mr. Selden to town and wishes him success.

H. H. Reed, who for the past two months has been in this city looking after the interests of the Fremont Brewing Co., left last week for Stuart where he will take charge of Hansen's saloon. Harry is a straight forward, good natured, whole-souled fellow with many friends in O'Neill who will wish him well no matter where he dons his hat.

Dr. Berry and Frank Hopkins were held up last Sunday night, near the Graham farm about seven miles northwest of O'Neill. The vandals relieved the doctor of a watch and $10 or $15 in coin of the realm, entirely ignoring Hopkins.

Since the commission of the offense it has developed that the whole deal was a put-up job and the perpetrators of the joke are three leading young men of Shields township. Jokes are alright in their way and when used in the right place, but jokes of this kind and character are entirely out of place and if persisted it may lead in a procession in which the would-be perpetrators would occupy the front end of

While raking hay last Friday Thomas Cain was kicked by a horse and suffered a fracture of the left leg, just below the knee. Dr. Gilligan set the broken limb and the patient is getting along nicely.

Andrew Johnson and son, Sewell, returned home from a trip to LeMars, Ia., where Mr. Johnson has a farm on which he was repairing the buildings. He says that the corn doesn't amount to much; this is the second crop failure in 60 years in that part of Iowa, and as one travels westward from here the crop condition becomes worse. Corn has gotten about two feet high and then dried up. He says that it doesn't seem possible that those people can live through the coming winter unless they receive aid.

Oscar Nile Hendricks, aged 58 years, passed away at the Stuart hospital Monday evening, at 10 o'clock, September 21; he had been a patient sufferer from cancer of the throat for about a year; he spent some time at the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., and made several trips there for treatment, but failed to get permanent relief; for the past few weeks he had been confined in the Stuart hospital.

The five-mile strip of road between the Porter garage and Chambers is being rebuilt. When completed Chambers will have one of the best roads in the county. The work is being done with local help.

Delegates from the local Rebekah lodge attended the twenty-ninth annual convention of this district held at Clearwater last Thursday. The lodges represented were Ne-ligh, Tilden, O'Neill, Madison, Pierce, Inman, Elgin, Chambers, Page and Norfolk. The session will be held at Chambers next year.

Class Officers Are Named at St. Joe's

ATKINSON — Class officers at St. Joseph's Hall for the 1948-'49 term have been elected as follows:

Seniors: president, Myron Collamer; vice-president, Charles Kokes; treasurer, Bernard Weichman; secretary, Lorraine Ulrich.

Juniors: president, Robert Faust; vice-president, James Frohman; treasurer, Bernard Troshynski; secretary, Leonard Troshynski.

Frank Kubart, student of Kenrick seminary, spoke to the high school students on Monday, September 13.

He told of a "great need for the students to realize the value of life." He asked them to appraise these values so they would not fail in their future endeavors.

Mr. Kubart's work at Friendship House in Chicago, Ill., was also discussed.

The freshman initiation is planned for Wednesday, September 29.

Dear Mr. Stewart:
Enclosed please find check for three bucks for The Frontier for one year.

I thought I'd get down to O'Neill before now but something always blocked the way, so I'm sending you a check. I may see you later this Fall.

I would love to get down for the pheasant season and may do that yet.

I love to read Romaine Saunders' red sunsets and his descriptions of nature in general. His political views are a little in too oblique. We're all living in the same period and we're looking, too. The two chickens in every pot never materialized.

I like fair play in everything, from spitting at a mark to manslaughter. Don't get me wrong, now. I like Saunders as well as any one I've ever met. I visited him out at his farm home, southwest of O'Neill, with Mike Horiskey, Tom Griffin and Mike Kirwin. We enjoyed the visit with him and his wife, whom I remember as a schoolmate.

I wish, though, that he'd give us more of that nature stuff and less politics.

I also like Mary Devine's column. It turns back the pages of time and brings to one's mind what some one once said about "age, being not too heavy a burden to carry in payment for having once been young."

Hoping to see you some time this Fall, I remain as ever,

The Frontier's

Jack and Jill
CORNER

COUSINS... The Jack and Jill Corner this week is shared by cousins. The little lady is Andrea Gay Wettlaufer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wettlaufer, of Page. Andrea was born August 7, 1947. She has blonde hair and blue eyes. Andrea is a pretty little girl, but her biggest asset is being very good-natured. This young man is Gary LeRoy Wettlaufer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wettlaufer, of O'Neill. Gary was born on May 13, 1947. He has light brown hair and brown eyes, and displays a mischievous grin. His main occupation at present is climbing. Gary and his parents have recently moved to O'Neill from Page and he finds many new things and places to be explored. Each issue The Frontier pictures two or more under-school-age Holt countyans. Studio photographs or even snapshots may be mailed to the Jack and Jill Editor. Entries are solicited and all photos will be returned unharmed after use.—O'Neill Photo Co.

$50 Fine!

Nebraska law provides that a minor is subject to a fine up to $50 for misrepresenting his or her age for the purpose of purchasing alcohol beverages.

The latest in a series of posters calling attention to this law, furnished gratis by the Nebraska Division, U. S. Brewers Foundation, is now in the hands of every beer retailer. This poster, headed "$50 Fine!", is designed to help retailers prevent under-age persons from procuring or consuming beer.

Virtually all Nebraska beer retailers want 100 percent observance of the "No Sales to Minors" law, and they welcome every aid to that end. "Sworn Statement of Age" blanks, also furnished free by the Nebraska Division, are used by many retailers with good results.

These services to beer retailers—in the public interest—are a part of the brewing industry's program of self-regulation. Our aim is to have beer handled in a manner deserving of full public approval.
