EWING AND ELGIN IN SCORELESS TIE

Tigers Fumble on Elgin
20, Ending Early
Touchdown Drive

EWING—The Ewing-Elgin football game ended in a scoreless tie Friday evening, September 24. The game was played before a large crowd at Ewing.

Neither team showed enough offensive power to even threaten to score.

Early in the game, Ewing started on what looked like a march toward Elgin's goal line, but the Tigers fumbled on the 20-yard line and Elgin recovered.

Ewing made seven first downs from scrimmage to Elgin's two. Elgin was awarded three first downs on penalties against Ewing, but the visitors were unable to cash in on the breaks. Neither side was successful with passes. Ewing completed one out of four, Dunaway to Dierks for a gain of 9 yards. Elgin tried two for no gain either time.

In the third quarter, Elgin had trouble getting off a punt, and Ewing was given the ball on Elgin's 30-yard-line. However, Elgin's strong defense forced Ewing to give up the ball. In the fourth, Bennett, of Ewing, recovered an Elgin fumble on Elgin's 40-yard-line, but again Elgin's hard tackling prevented Ewing from moving closer to the goal line.

Several Elgin men were kept out of the game because of injuries.

BENDERS WHIP
CARDINALS, 30-12

Coach Gene Wolfe's St. Mary's academy Cardinals were bumped, 30-12, Friday at North Bend in the season's sixth grid opener.

The Cards led 6-2 at intermission, but the Benders opened up in the second-half. Twice North Bend receivers took the oval beyond the Cards' secondary and scampered into pay territory.

Lack of blocking hampered the O'Neill backs.

Backs Jim Donohoe and Shorty Miles stood out for the Scarlet. Miles' elbow was dislocated in an early melee and hurt the Scarlet chances. Miles played off-and-on through the remainder of the game.

It's doubtful if he'll be ready for Lynch Friday when the Cards go to Lynch.

Chambers Plastered
by Wolbach, 57-0

CHAMBERS—The afternoon of Friday, September 24, long will be remembered at Chambers high school. The Coyotes were swamped 57-0 in one of the most humiliating defeats in recent years.

Wolbach excelled in every department over the greener Chambers six-manners.

St. Joseph's Senior
Choir Picnics at Neligh

ATKINSON—The senior choir of St. Joseph's Catholic church went to Neligh Sunday, September 26 for a picnic. They were accompanied by their leader, Miss Leone Kilmurry.

Those attending were Barbara Mliner, Mary Hamik, Geraldine Dexter, Patricia Scott, Dorothy Wewell, Evelyn Groff, Elbena Kramer, Mary Ellen Engler, Dolores Gregor, Albert Coday, Linus Judge, Harold Groff, Dwane Mathis, Lawrence Kramer, Donald Kramer, Leo Monahan and Kenneth Ziska.

Sunday guests at the Anton Nissen home included Mr. and Mrs. Ben Warnke, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Werner and baby, from Meadow Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Switzer and Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Nissen and daughter.

Mrs. R. H. Shriner returned last Thursday from Omaha where she had spent several days.

Eagles Outdown Foe but Inexperience Costs
Game to Bassett

BASSETT—A free day celebration throng saw Bassett upset O'Neill, 7-6, Friday night under the Bassett lights.

The Blue Eagles outplayed their foe in virtually every department, but a missed tackle enabled a Bassett back to ramble across for a touchdown. Bassett's try for point was good, but the Eagles were never able to overcome the one-point deficit.

O'Neill scored in the first four plays of the game. The Blues, looking like a club of yesteryear, plowed down to the Bassett 20 with line plays. Quarterback Harold Likins flipped a 10-yard pass to Halfback Dick Godel, who stepped 10 yards into pay territory. The try for point failed.

O'Neill outdowned Bassett, 10-7, and completed five passes out of eight, but couldn't punch across another score.

The Eagles showed marked improvement over the brand of ball exhibited against Plainview in the season's opener, which was lost 28-7.

Chuck Marsten, tackle, stood out in the O'Neill line.

Friday night the Eagles renew an age-old rivalry at Ewing.

Tibbetts Steps Across in Dying Minutes Against Ewing Indies

A benefit football game here Tuesday night, billed as the Ewing Never-Were's vs. the O'Neill Has-Beens, was won by the O'Neill aggregation, 6-0.

With a minute remaining, Ivan Saindon threw a pass to Dick Tibbetts from the 20, and Tibbetts scampered across. An attempted placekick failed to net the extra point.

O'Neill attempted several passes but failed to make connections. In the second half, there was plenty of excitement. Early in the third, Vorce snared a 40-yard pass thrown by Tibbetts to take O'Neill into Ewing territory, but Ewing's hard tackling prevented a score.

Ewing then started on what seemed to be a touchdown march, but fumbled as the quarter ended.

In the fourth, both sides tried a lot of passes, but all were incomplete, until Tibbetts caught the touchdown pass.

Driving to Meadow Grove and Madison Sunday to visit their respective parents were: Mr. and Mrs. William W. McElhaney.
