Sunday, October 3, Christ Lutheran church, of O'Neill, and Immanuel church, of Atkinson, will celebrate their annual mission festival at the O'Neill high school auditorium.

The Sunday-school will begin the new school year with an opening devotion at 10 a. m. All the children of the community are cordially invited to attend.

The morning service will be at 11 o'clock with the parish pastor delivering the mission message. The afternoon service will be at 2:30 conducted by the Rev. B. Raabe, of Spencer.

A basket dinner will be served at noon. Everyone is cordially invited to come and join us all day. Public invited. There is a message for you.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)
 Rev. J. G. Hamburger, pastor

We are continuing the revival meetings through this week and we are certainly enjoying the ministry of Rev. Swicegood, the evangelist, who came to us from Tulsa, Okla.

He will be preaching nightly.

Thursday: "Devine Healing. Is It For Today?" After which, we will anoint and pray for the sick.

Friday: "The Unpardonable Sin." Come hear what the Bible has to say about these things.

Every night except Saturday, 8 p. m.

SUNDAY
 Sunday-school, 10 a. m. Lesson text: "Selling the Birthright." Genesis 25:19-34. Hebr. 12:16-17.

If you do not attend Sunday-school, we invite you to come and bring your children.

Morning worship, 11 a. m. Evangelistic service, 8 p. m. Cordial welcome to all.

Collects Kits for European Relief

EWING—The Women's Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church met on Thursday afternoon, September 23, at the home of Mrs. Alfred Napier. Mrs. W. L. Shrader, president, conducted the business meeting. It was decided that clothing for the school at Frenchburg, Ky., will be collected during the next month and that members shall bring to the next meeting articles for the "pack-a-towel" teen age kits for European relief.

The devotional, "The Thankful Life," was led by Mrs. Ralph Shrader. Mrs. C. Donald Vogel gave the history of the annual thank offering and of the thank offering boxes which are used for the daily offerings at home. Mrs. Ralph Shrader told about life memberships and life directorships.

A play, "The Thank Offering Box Speaks," was given. Those who took part were: Mrs. Lionel Gunter, Mrs. Archie Johnston, Mrs. Dale Napier, Mrs. Richard Napier and Mrs. Wilbur Bennett.

Mrs. Rolland Hord had charge of the closing prayer circle. Mrs. Edgar Jensen, of Ewing, was a guest. Mrs. Alfred Napier and Mrs. Rolland Hord served refreshments.

Mrs. J. P. Ryan and daughter, Claire, of Bonesteel, S. D., spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donlin and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stanton.

GOLD MEDAL WINNER . . .
 Miss Velma Abney, of Ewing, won a gold medal at the Nebraska state fair in expert Jersey dairy cattle judging, ranking first in the state. She also competed in judging on Gurnseys, Holsteins and Brown Swiss dairy cattle and was one of 17 Holt county youths in state fair competition.

MRS. SIEVERS, 85, OLDEST PRESENT

35 'Oldsters' Feted at Community Banquet in Ewing

28th Annual Affair

EWING—Thirty-five old folks, all over 70 years of age, were guests of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist church at the 28th annual sunset club banquet on Thursday evening, September 23, at the church.

Mrs. Katie Sievers, of Ewing, was honored with a bouquet of Fall flowers. She was the oldest person in attendance.

Now 85, Mrs. Sievers has spent most of her life in northeastern Nebraska. She was born in Germany and came to Fremont in 1874. She has lived at Fremont, Nebraska and Ewing.

After the dinner provided by the ladies of the church, a program was given. Girls from the choir sang and played; Beth Billings played an organ solo, "The Song of the Islands;" Marian Harris sang "The Merry Widow Waltz;" a quartette, Carrol Wulf, Joanne Marquardt, Beth Billings and Marian Harris, sang "Annie Laurie," "Loch Lomond," and "Love's Old Sweet Song;" a quartet of small boys, Dickie Evans, Pat Carr, Marvin Adrian, and Billy Harris, dressed as cowboys, sang "Home on the Range" and "My Home Is in Montana;" A. A. Alden, one of the "oldesters" present, sang "Palls of the Little Red School" and "In Dear Old Tennessee;" Mrs. C. Donald Vogel read three poems.

Miss Anna Van Zandt gave the welcome; Mrs. M. H. Dierks made the response; Rev. Peter Burke, of St. Peter's Catholic church, gave the blessing and presented the bouquet to Mrs. Sievers; Rev. C. Donald Vogel, of the United Presbyterian church, acted as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Henry Fleming was in charge of the preparation of the meal, and Mrs. J. L. Pruden supervised the tables. The program was in charge of Mrs. A. S. Evans.

Other ladies who helped with the banquet were: Mrs. Earl Billings, Mrs. Jessie Angus, Mrs. Edith Black, Mrs. Perry Saiser, Mrs. Ray Crellin, and Mrs. Florence Butler. The girls of the choir served.

Colmans Are Hosts — INMAN — Mr. and Mrs. George L. Colman entertained a group of friends at a party at their country home Friday evening, September 24. Cards furnished the entertainment. Mrs. Colman served refreshments in late evening.
