'Pack Up Your Troubles and Smile' Is Still a Good Suggestion, Mary Devine Says

By MARY DEVINE BRENNAN

Hiah! Remember "Nobody loves me; everybody hates me; guess I'll go eat worms."

Mary Devine Brennan

Everyone feels that way at times. The most glamorous of coeds and the greatest of grid stars have blue days, so if you're in an indigo mood it's nothing unusual.

Unless you enjoy being the sad and sorrowful type, you want to get rid of the blues and the best way to do that is to get busy and do something.

Try a new hair-do, learn a silly song, or see a musical comedy. If the movie is a tear-jerker, let it wait. (If your worry is that English assignment, then English is the thing to do. You can't get rid of that sort of trouble in any other way.)

"Pack up your troubles . . . and smile, smile, smile" is still a good suggestion. There's a funny side to nearly everything so look for it and laugh. If you're "laughing on the outside" you won't be "crying on the inside" for very long.

The high school fun crowd has no place for a Moaning Mary or a Worrying William, so brush the tears from your eyes and put in a few stars. You're much nicer that way.

You've had fun before and you will have fun again. Just keep waiting, and hoping, and, above all, keep smiling.

There will be a teenage dance at the Legion club Friday night. Hope all you gay Galahads have dates.

Have fun! (And don't forget to thank your hostesses!) See you here next week!

Series of Moves Made at Chambers

CHAMBERS — Last week was moving week for several Chambers families.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shavlik and family are now located in their new home in the east part of town. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Elkins and boys have moved into the house owned by Mrs. Ruby Martin in the north part of town. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thorin and family, who have been with his mother, are now living in Mrs. Ruby Martin's house in the east part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown moved the first of the week into the new house that John Brown built in the east part. Mr. and Mrs. John Albers, jr., who had a farm sale recently, have the house vacated by the Gordon Browns.

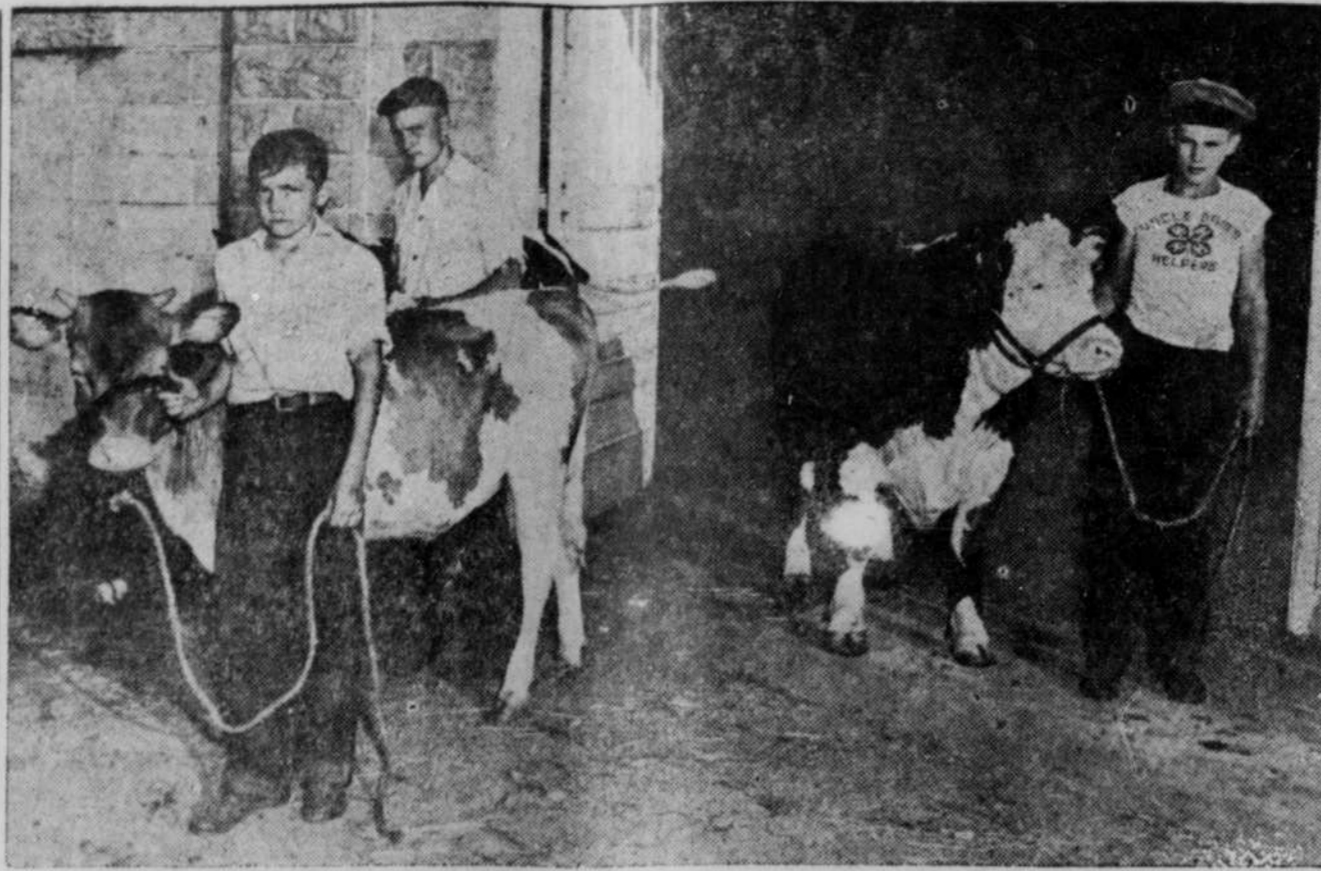

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shonka, who have completed a new residence on their farm two miles west of town, moved in last week, and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Alderson moved from the farm to their home which they are remodeling in the north part of Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wink and children have moved recently from the apartment back of the drug store into the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lybalt moved the first of this week into the apartment belonging to Mrs. Sarah Adams, vacated by the Steve Shavlik family.

PARTICIPATES IN WEST COAST MANEUVERS Pfc. Edward S. Belzer, of the Marine Corps, son of Carl K. Belzer, of O'Neill, is serving with the First Marine division, which is participating in the amphibious training exercises in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hynes and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. John Hynes visited at the Rudy Funk home in Ewing last Friday.

'DARN THOSE GIRLS, ANYHOW!' . . . Members of a 4-H club leave the Brown county fair in New Ulm, Minn., with their exhibits in protest to girly shows. Walkout of some 200 4-Hers and clerical indignation finally pressured the fair board into cancelling all shimmy sideshows.

JIMMIE WIDFELDT

NORMA JANE WIDFELDT

BROTHER AND SISTER . . . This is Norma Jane and Jimmie Widfeldt, children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Widfeldt, who live on a ranch 18 miles northwest of town. Three-year-old Norma Jane has brown hair and brown eyes. She owns a cat named "Fuzzy" and she loves to entertain her little brother. Norma prefers her toy tractor and truck to dolls. Jimmie is 6-months-old, has blond hair and blue eyes. He has discovered those funny things called toes and he finds them very interesting. Both Norma and Jimmie were born at the O'Neill hospital.

EATING OVERTIME . . . These hogs, owned by Robert Turner (right) and John Morgensen, of Peoria, Ill., will weigh in for market faster and at a lower feed bill under a new feeding schedule. Turner wakes them up with night lights for 2 extra meals a day and reports that the animals have no objections whatsoever to the extra grub.

'Recreation' Topic of Valley Center Meeting

CHAMBERS — The Valley Center Extension club met on Thursday, September 30, at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Bell. Eleven members and one visitor were present.

The business session was in charge of the president, Mrs. L. W. Taggart. The lesson on "Recreation" was presented by Mrs. Lloyd Gleed. Several musical games and contests were played.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. R. Carpenter on October 28.

Celia in Throes of Building Activity

CELIA—Considerable building and repairing is going on at Celia.

Neighbors helped Ray Hendricks repair and clean-up last week. Anderson Bros., assisted by Conrad Frickel, jr., and Conrad Frickel, sr., are working on the house belonging to the younger Frickel. Work is "progressing nicely."

The D. F. Scott residence has been resided and a new garage has been started.

O. A. Hammerberg is tearing off a cattleshed from the north side of his barn and expects to remodel his barn and build a new shed as soon as help is available.

The Clarence Fockens are building a new dairy barn.

Skunk Escapes Unhurt in Brush with Truck

ATKINSON—Bob Ford will do some thinking again before he yields the right-of-way to a skunk.

The 22-year-old Atkinson man was driving along highway 20 near Chadron when he noticed a skunk in the road up ahead.

Ford attempted to turn the semi-trailer truck out of the way, but instead it jackknifed.

The tractor was damaged beyond repair. The skunk escaped without a scratch.
