LaVonne E. Walters Weds in Pretty Church Ceremony

Paddock Union church was the scene of the marriage of Miss LaVonne E. Walters and Benjamin Johring on Sunday, October 10, at 2 p. m. Clair Utterback, of Clearwater, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Fred Johring.

Mrs. Remi Duhan was vocalist, accompanied by Miss Betty Carlson, of Neligh. The selections were "The Lord is My Shepherd," "I Love You Truly," and "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her white slipper satin gown was accented by a nylon yoke, fitted bodice, and long sleeves, which tapered to points over her hands, and a chapel sweep train edged in chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil fell from an orange blossom tiara. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Shirley Johring, sister of the bridegroom, acted as maid-of-honor. Her gown was of pink marquisette and lace. Miss Florence Walters, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was of pink brocade taffeta. They carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Gail Johring and Dale Duhan were the ringbearers. The flower girl was Arlene Walters.

The bridegroom was attired in a blue business suit. He wore a white carnation boutonniere. His attendants, Allen Walters, brother of the bride, and Donald Johring, brother of the bridegroom, wore blue and brown business suits, respectively. They also wore white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Walters, wore a navy blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 50 relatives. The three-tiered wedding cake was baked by Mrs. S. R. Robertson, an aunt of the bride. Mrs. DeWayne Anson, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Johring returned from a short wedding trip last Thursday. They will make their home northeast of O'Neill.
