BIG MEN ON THE GRIDIRON . . . As University Presidents, Eisenhower and Stassen, take keen interest in pigskin. As part of their new duties, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, and former Gov. Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, are now rooting for their own football teams. Above, General Ike talks over the gridiron situation with his coach, Lou Little, on the Lions' practice field in New York City. Below, Stassen gets a closeup of the Penn football squad in action, as he sits on the bench with team members during a scrimmage session in Pennsylvania.

O'Neill Reserves Nip Neligh, 7-0

O'Neill high school reserve gridders turned back the Neligh seconds, 7-0, Tuesday night in Carney park here. Fullback Don Calkins, an O'Neill frosh who also plays on the varsity, showed well for the winners.

Hungerford Helps Norfolk Win, 53-0

Dick Hungerford, 1947 O'Neill high school graduate and regular end on the Norfolk junior college football team, scored twice during Friday night's encounter with Concordia (Kans.) junior college. Norfolk won 53-0 after leading

PHEASANT SEASON OPENS NEXT WEEK

No Hen Pheasants May Be Taken October 29 Thru November 18

Next week Nebraska's pheasant season opens with a three-bird bag and possession limit. The dates are October 29 through November 18.

No hen pheasants may be taken. Non-resident hunters must all have permits regardless of age, and will be allowed only three birds, season's limit per permit.

The pheasant hunt will begin at noon on October 29. The shooting on each day will commence at noon and close at sunset.

Sam Grasmick, state conservation officer located here, declares that "all pheasants taken must have sex identification—either head feathers, tail feathers or feet must be left on the bird." He warns that there is no open season on hen pheasants or doves.

During September, 400 pheasants were released for restocking purposes nine miles north of O'Neill. Four square miles of this area are closed to hunting this year.

"This area is plainly posted," Grasmick said, "and all hunters are asked to cooperate by not molesting the signs."

The season on waterfowl opened at noon on Friday. In some sections of the county jesting onlookers reported "there were two hunters to every bird." However, a number of O'Neill nimrods have reported bagging their limit on weekend excursions to blinds.

The daily bag and possession limit on waterfowl are as follows: Ducks—five per day, 10 in possession. Geese—four per day, including two Canada geese or two white-fronted geese.

32-0 at intermission. It was the fourth straight league win for Norfolk in four starts.

Friday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cone were John Hull, of Orchard, and his daughter, Mrs. Gladys Burch.

TIGERS EXTEND WINNING STREAK

Ewing Gridders, Beaten Only Once, Claw Bassett 45-6

EWING — Ewing high school's football team continued its winning streak Friday night when it romped over Bassett at Bassett by a score of 45-6.

Ewing scored once in the first quarter and twice in each of the other quarters. Pruden and Sanders each had three touchdowns to their credit while Cloyd had one. Pruden made two of the extra points, one by rushing and one by place-kicking. Bollwitt took a pass from Sanders for the other extra point.

Bassett's score was made in the fourth quarter.

Ewing made 19 first downs to Bassett's 3 and gained 290 yards by rushing compared to Bassett's 56. Ewing had to punt only twice.

Ewing's entire squad of 19 men saw action. A large group of fans followed the winners to Bassett and gave enthusiastic support.

The Tigers have lost only to Neligh and that was the season's opener.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Della Eby were Rev. and Mrs. V. R. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gillespie.

AINSWORTH WINS OVER O'NEILL, 39-6

Richardson and Leonard and Seasoned Mates Wreck Eagles

Don Richardson, Ben Leonard & Co. buried the O'Neill Eagles Friday night in Carney park under an avalanche of end sweeps. At the conclusion of the evening, the visitors—Ainsworth—had paraded to a 39-6 victory.

Ainsworth simply had too much class, weight, speed and experience for the helpless Eagles, who seldom have been so completely outclassed.

Ainsworth's veteran team, studded with seniors who have been playing together for several years, scored twice in the first period, and the handwriting on the wall was seen early by Coach Marv Miller's youngsters.

Leonard scored twice for Ainsworth on end-around plays, going 58 and 31 yards. He caught Richardson's 45-yard pass for a third tally.

Richardson, Ainsworth fullback, rambled 50 yards for one touchdown and went 43 yards to the five-yard line and then over for another. Later, he bucked a yard for his third touchdown.

The Eagles' offense was futile against the keen visiting aggregation.

O'Neill's Quarterback Harold Elkins sprinted 75 yards on one occasion—only to be hauled down from behind. The O'Neill touchdown came in the fourth on a pass from Fullback Don Calkins to Elkins, who was in the end zone.

Both clubs used substitutes liberally. Every member of both squads saw action. Next Wednesday the Eagles face the Stuart Bronchos in Carney park at 8 p. m.

HOMECOMING AT BUTTE DAMPENED

St. Mary's Cards Lead 46-0 as Game Is Conceded

BUTTE — The St. Mary's academy Cardinals, of O'Neill, waited until the third period here Friday afternoon to explode a jet-propelled attack against Butte. In that stanza the Cards rolled up four touchdowns and the Buttemen wanted to quit. St. Mary's won, 46-0.

The Scarlet started slow, succeeding in punching across only one touchdown in the opening quarter. Butte, meanwhile, reached St. Mary's six-inch line, but failed to place the pigskin across in four tries. It was the only serious threat the Buttemen made.

The drubbing rather dampened homecoming activities at Butte high, but the program went on as scheduled.

Shorty Miles, Cardinal back, accounted for three touchdowns. Don Donohoe, frosh Cardinal ballcarrier, ran 50 yards in a brilliant run for a beginner.

The Cards played Chambers Wednesday at Carney park in O'Neill, and Sunday they go to York to meet St. Joseph's academy.
