The four seniors who played their last game for Ewing all made touchdowns. Dunaway connected for two and Marquardt carried one over from the six. Coach Smith put Bollwitt, a tackle, and Montgomery, a guard, in the backfield long enough to make scores.

Newman Grove in the second quarter made it easy for Ew-ing to score twice more, with Bennett taking an end-around play for 13 yards for six points, and Dunaway piling up 30 yards on three end runs to mark up six more for Ewing. The half ended 26-0 in favor of Ewing. Sanders and Schroe-der made extra points on running plays.

In the second half, Newman Grove kicked to Ewing, and Ewing marched to the goal from the Tigers' 21 yard line. Marqquardt carried the ball over on a line plunge and
