Sholes-Clark Nuptials Read

Miss Mary Lou Sholes, daughter of Mrs. Violet Sholes, of Inman, became the bride of Richard Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clark, of O'Neill, on Saturday, November 6, at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Rev. Cyril J. Werner officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, William Sholes, of Inman. Her white satin gown was accented by a fitted bodice and a softly flared peplum graced the full circular skirt. A tiara of seed pearls held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a rosary and wore a gold chain and cross, both gifts of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums with a nosegay of red roses for a centerpiece.

Miss Dorothy Clark, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of orchid taffeta, trimmed in old English lace. The peplum of her gown circled the waist to form a floor-length fishtail. She wore gauntlets of the same material and an orchid bonnet of fine netting. Her corsage was of salmon red roses.

The bridegroom was attired in a gray business suit. His attendant, James Donohoe, a friend, wore a gray pin-stripe business suit.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gray dress with green accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. The bride's mother wore a gray street-length dress with black accessories. Her corsage also was of white carnations.

Musical background for the ceremony was furnished by the St. Mary's choir. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and their immediate families in the blue room of the M & M cafe.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a blue velvet dress with black and gold accessories. After a wedding trip through Colorado, the couple will reside on a ranch southwest of O'Neill.

Mrs. Clark graduated from Inman high school and attended Wayne State Teachers' college. She has taught school in Holt county for the past year.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of St. Mary's academy. Since then he has been ranching with his grandfather southwest of O'Neill.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson, of Columbus; Sterling Storts, of Astoria, Ore.; and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Leonard, of Monroe.

Miss Grace Evans, daughter of Mrs. Alta Evans, on Wednesday, November 3, became the bride of Jerome Woslager, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Woslager, sr., of near Orchard.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Cyril J. Werner, took place at 9 a. m. at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill.

The bride appeared in a wine colored street length dress, which had draped sides. Her necklace, which was a gift of the bridegroom, was silver with diamonds surrounding tiny stars. Her accessories were brown. She carried a bouquet of purple asters.

Mr. Woslager wore a dark blue pinstriped suit. His boutonniere was a white carnation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woslager, jr., of Tilden, served as matron-of-honor and bestman. Mrs. Evans, the bride's mother, wore a light blue dress and black accessories. Mrs. Woslager, the bridegroom's mother, appeared in a black dress with black accessories.

A reception followed in the afternoon at the Woslager, sr., home near Orchard. After a short wedding trip to Omaha, the couple will live near Orchard.

Mrs. Woslager attended the O'Neill public school. Mr. Woslager attended rural schools near Orchard.

Ak Countess An Atkinson Bride

ATKINSON—Miss Jo Ann Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelly, was married Saturday to Frederick S. Alexander, of Lincoln, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Alexander, of Lincoln.

Rev. W. C. Birmingham officiated in the Atkinson Methodist church before an altar decorated with candelabra, juniper and white chrysanthemums. Miss Bonnie Humphrey accompanied John Kirsch, of Lincoln, when he sang.

The bride wore a gown of white French silk Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice with tiny satin buttons down the front, dropped-shoulder bertha and a circular skirt with a small court train over crinoline. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was appliqued Chantilly lace. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Claudia Neuwander, of Atkinson, served as maid-of-honor. Her gown was of orchid taffeta over crinoline fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, and circular skirt. She wore a matching bonnet and carried a bouquet of Fall flowers.

Miss Mary Lou Dickerson, of Butte, and Mrs. William Houfek, of Lincoln, were bridesmaids. They wore sea-foam green taffeta gowns fashioned like the maid-of-honor's. They also carried bouquets of Fall flowers.

Warren Kelly, brother of the bride, served as bestman and William Houfek and Harley Batie, both of Lincoln, ushered.

A reception was held in the church parlors. For traveling, the bride wore a sage green gabardine suit with a gray coat and gray accessories. After a wedding trip to Missouri, the couple will be at home in Lincoln.

Mrs. Alexander was a Countess in the 1948 Ak-Sar-Ben court and is attending the University of Nebraska. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority, Delta Phi Delta Art fraternity and PEO.

Mr. Alexander attended the University of Nebraska where he was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.
