The Frontier's Jack and Jill CORNER

TWO MORE JILLS . . . Folks, meet Miss Geraldine Wedge, (left), two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wedge, of Atkinson. Geraldine is an only child. She has blonde hair and green eyes. Her favorite hobby is collecting old bottles. Every day at mealtime her mother has to look for the bottles under the table so she can set it for the coming meal. Geraldine likes kittens, too. She has a small white one at the present time. And (right) is Miss Suzette Ann Cavanaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cavanaugh, jr. Sue Ann celebrated her second birthday anniversary on October 27. She has blonde hair and blue eyes. Her goldfish are quite an attraction and she likes to imitate them when she takes her bath. Sue Ann was very pleased with the first snow, although her dolls and bubble gum are her favorites. Each week The Frontier publishes pictures of two or more preschool age Holt county-ans. Snapshots or studio pictures are accepted and will be returned after use. Colored prints are not acceptable. Pictures may be mailed to Jack and Jill Editor, The Frontier, O'Neill, Neb.

Navy Man's Unit Helps in Dramatic Rescue at Sea

John J. Schmidt, Navy aviation chief storekeeper, son of J. J. Schmidt, of O'Neill, is serving with fleet aircraft service squadron 106 based at the Naval air station at Argentia, Newfoundland. The unit has an operational background that ranges from the Caribbean to the North Atlantic.

The squadron is currently providing maintenance and shop support for patrol squadron 7 at the Argentia base.

Aside from routine duties, the squadron is often called upon to perform special missions. Recently, when a Greek merchantman ran aground in the Straits of Belle Isle and exploded, the squadron assisted the Coast Guard by transporting patients to the hospital at St. Johns, Newfoundland, using its Skymaster plane.

Hallow'een Over, Leaders Warn

AMELIA—Some of Amelia's teen-age boys presumably are unaware that Hallow'een is over. Some of them have been carrying their pranks too far and leaders of the community this week warned that there is a penalty for maliciousness.

A group of boys began a series of pranks at Hallow'een time and their playfulness has continued until now.
