

THE FRONTIER

North-Nebraska's Fastest-Growing Newspaper

VOLUME 68—NUMBER 28

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1948

PRICE 7 CENTS

Quentin K. Deaver... death terminates U. S. visit for Montevideo banking executive who was reared here. (See story at right.)

QUENTIN DEAVER DIES IN CHEYENNE

South American Banker, Well-Known Here, Dies During Visit

Reared in O'Neill

SPECIAL TO THE FRONTIER
Death early last Thursday terminated a visit in the United States for Quentin K. Deaver, 58, of Montevideo, Uruguay, manager of a branch of the National City Bank of New York. Mr. Deaver succumbed in Cheyenne, Wyo., at the home of his sister, Mrs. William McInerney.

The South American banking executive came to the United States during the Summer for an extended business and social visit. He spent considerable time in O'Neill, Omaha, New York City and Cheyenne, and during one visit here he participated in the O'Neill invitational golf tournament.

During his Cheyenne stay he became ill with a heart affliction. For a number of weeks he was hospitalized there and three weeks ago was released from the hospital. He died last Thursday at 11 a. m.

Funeral services were held at 9 a. m. Saturday in St. Mary's Catholic cathedral in Cheyenne with Rev. J. A. Hartman, church pastor, officiating. Burial was in Cheyenne.

The late Mr. Deaver was born in Omaha on December 26, 1890. His father, now deceased, was D. Clem Deaver, who managed a government land office in O'Neill during the homesteading era.

As a child he moved to O'Neill with his parents, was reared and educated here. On January 21, 1919, he married Miss Sue O'Donnell. The couple went to Casper, Wyo., where they resided until 1925, when Mr. Deaver accepted a banking position in South America.

Survivors include: Widow; sons—Capt. John Deaver, of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and Clement, of Cambridge, Mass., a Harvard university student; mother—Mrs. C. Clement Deaver, of Montevideo; sister—Mrs. Jack (Blanche) Sullivan, of Montevideo.

Miss Anna O'Donnell, a sister-in-law, was the only O'Neill relative attending the funeral.

His son, Clement, came from Cambridge for the rites.

Scouting Survey Planned Here

The annual district meeting of Boy Scouts of America was held Tuesday night at the court house here.

Mr. Hawn, of Omaha, a scout executive, introduced Ernest Endsforth, the new field executive for this area.

A survey is being made of O'Neill for possibilities of reorganizing Scouting in this area by St. Mary's and O'Neill high schools and the Scout committees.

Committees are as follows: District Judge D. R. Mounts; O'Neill, district chairman; Ira Moss, of O'Neill, chairman of nominating committee; Harry Snyder, of Atkinson, vice-chairman; Lyle Dierks, of Ewing, vice-chairman; Harry Peterson, of O'Neill, commissioner.

Scout committee members at large are: James Rooney of O'Neill; Henry Lohaus, of O'Neill; Glea Wade, of O'Neill; Rev. C. J. Werner, of O'Neill; Rev. Ralph Gerber, of O'Neill; Rev. V. R. Bell, of O'Neill; Victor Harley, of Chambers; J. E. Davis, of O'Neill; A. Neal Dawes, of O'Neill, and Gene Hitchcock, of Atkinson.

Important Legion Meeting Scheduled

An important meeting of Simonson post 93 of the American Legion will be held Tuesday evening at the club rooms, according to Commander John R. Gallagher. "All members are urged to be present," Gallagher said. The meeting will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Important matters pertaining to future club management will be brought before the meeting.

Learns of Kin's Death at Chadron—INMAN—Mrs. E. E. Clark and Mrs. T. D. Hutton received word Sunday morning that their sister, Mrs. Floy Barker, had died suddenly at her home in Chadron. Mrs. Barker has visited here many times.

NOWADAYS Begins with This Issue

Beginning in this issue, The Frontier introduces you to a new friend, our new NOWADAYS magazine section. Enclosed is your issue number 1.

We will bring you this specially prepared magazine section each and every week hereafter, offering to you, The Frontier's readers, a balanced magazine tailored to the reading interests of everyone in the family.

In the pages of NOWADAYS each week we will bring you color, photographs, illustrations, cartoons, features and timely articles by leading authorities in every field. For example, in this first issue the famous author, Paul McGinnis, presents his exclusive NOWADAYS story of progress in the thousands of Pacific islands which the U. S. acquired during the war.

Mr. McGinnis, the author of "Lost Eden," the recent historical novel about Pacific discovering, has just traveled thousands of miles in visits to remote Pacific outposts, gathering exclusive reports for NOWADAYS magazine section.

This first issue of NOWADAYS also offers a wealth of recipe suggestions for the current Thanksgiving holidays, as well as a preview of the rapidly-approaching Christmas season.

For next week's issue of NOWADAYS, noted specialist Dr. R. H. Felix, chief of the mental hygiene division of the U. S. public health service, has prepared a special report on the emotional ills of Americans. And there are many other special interesting features.

NOWADAYS magazine section will grow with our readers. The first issues will each contain eight to 12 interest-packed pages, and as The Frontier learns the magazine-reading interests and desires of the readers, the NOWADAYS section will increase in pages.

Thus, each week you receive a complete added colored magazine as a part of this newspaper.

The addition of NOWADAYS is the result of long and careful planning and preparation, and is evidence of The Frontier's continuing aim always to provide a bigger and better paper to you—the readers.

We trust you will welcome this new friend into your home and family.

—THE PUBLISHERS.

Atkinson Choruses to Be Here Friday

Atkinson's recently formed male chorus, which made its first public appearance during the Hay Days celebration last Summer, will be heard in a concert at the O'Neill public school auditorium on Friday, November 19, beginning at 8 p. m.

The group's appearance here will be under the auspices of the Young Adult Fellowship of the Methodist church.

The program: "Lazy Moon," arranged by Claude G. Garreau; "Chinese Honey Moon," by W. L. Schackley; "When the Bell in the Lighthouse Rings," by Garreau; "I Had a Dream Dear," arranged by Geoffrey O'Hara; "In the Good Old Summer Time," arranged by Garreau; selections by a quartette during intermission; "De Animals a-Comin'," Negro spiritual; "Kentucky Babe," by Adam Geibel; "It's Me," Negro spiritual; "Cornfield Medley," unknown; "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," Negro spiritual; "Ezekiel Saw de Wheel," Negro spiritual; "Steal Away," Negro spiritual.

Friday's concert will also include two selections by Atkinson's mixed chorus, making its initial public appearance. The selections: "The Bells of St. Mary's," by A. Emmett Adams, and "Now the Day Is Over," by Joseph Barnby.

FIREMEN SUMMONED

Members of the John Turner family were awakened about 1 a. m. Wednesday by a smell of smoke originating from a blazing oil heater. The fire department was summoned. The blaze was extinguished without damage to the residence.

Welk Is Coming

Lawrence Welk... he used to make one-night stands in a broken down jalopy. (Story on page 8)

INMAN YOUTH FIRST DRAFTEE

Charles S. Kalina to Be Inducted on November 29

Charles S. Kalina, of Inman, has been ordered to report for induction into the Army on Monday, November 29—Holt county's first draftee under the new selective service law.

According to Mrs. W. H. Hart, chief clerk for the Holt board, the county has been ordered to supply two others, who have not yet been selected.

Kalina has been officially advised of his induction orders, Mrs. Hart said.

Meanwhile, eight more registrants this week have been ordered to Grand Island for preinduction physical examinations. These are: Clifford F. Burival, of O'Neill; Roy Walnofer, of Stuart; Leonard J. Rotherham, of Ewing; Lawrence P. Vanderbeck, of Stuart; Theron C. Bogue, of Atkinson; Edwin G. Grubbs, of Page; Donald W. Schaffer, of Stuart, and James A. Moore, jr., of O'Neill.

During the weekend the Holt selective service office was moved from the second floor of the First National bank building to the Holt county courthouse annex where there are larger quarters.

Gov. Val Peterson has announced that the physician for the Holt county selective service board, Dr. O. W. French, of O'Neill, has been recommended to the president for service on this board.

Union Thanksgiving Services Planned

Union Protestant Thanksgiving worship services will be held at 8 p. m. next Wednesday, November 24, in First Presbyterian church here.

This will be in accordance with a Thanksgiving custom established several years ago by the Protestant churches of the city.

Rev. M. H. Grosenbach, of Wesleyan Methodist and Center Union churches, will deliver the sermon.

Special music will be provided by each of the participating churches: Methodist, First Presbyterian, Assembly of God and Wesleyan Methodist.

Quartette Returns from Trip to West Coast

Joe T. Biglin, Cliff Atkins, James Early, William Kelly returned Tuesday from a two-week trip to the West coast.

NEPHEW CONTESTS UNCLE'S WILL

Donald Gallagher Not Included in Will of Late Joseph A. Mann

Appeal Is Planned

A petition for probate of the will of the late Joseph A. Mann was admitted to probate in Holt county court Monday by Judge Louis W. Reimer. The petitioners are Arthur King, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Edward M. Gallagher, of O'Neill, nephews of the late Mr. Mann.

Mr. Mann, a veteran lumberman and merchant, died at his home here September 20 at the age of 74. The petition for probate stated that he died "possessed of an estate of inheritance upon which said will operates, situated in the county of Holt... consisting of real property of a value in excess of $25,000 and personal property of a value in excess of $100,000."

Donald Gallagher, of Chicago, Ill., a nephew who was not included in the will, appeared to contest the petition for probate. Donald Gallagher's attorneys are George Healey and Lloyd Dort, both of Lincoln, and John R. Gallagher, of O'Neill.

The petitioner's attorneys are William W. Griffin, of O'Neill, and Frederick M. Deutsch, of Norfolk.

Mrs. Catherine King Stannard, of San Diego, Calif., a niece of the late Mr. Mann, is also an heir in the will.

Monday's hearing was a continuance of an earlier scheduled hearing on the probate application. Donald Gallagher said Tuesday that his objections would be appealed. The matter may next come before a jury in the Spring term of the Holt county district court.

Rose E. Grady Dies in Denver

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. Friday in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Denver, Colo., for Miss Rose E. Grady, formerly of O'Neill.

Burial was in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Miss Grady, a Denver business woman, died in St. Joseph's hospital on Wednesday, November 10, at Denver.

She was born and reared in O'Neill, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Grady, who homesteaded near here in 1874.

Since going to Denver about a quarter-century ago, she and two of her sisters owned and operated the Doris hat shop at 733 Fifteenth street.

Survivors include: Sisters—Kathryn and Mary, both of Denver, and Mrs. H. J. Hammond, of O'Neill; brothers—T. F. Grady, of Denver; H. D. Grady, of O'Neill, and J. E. Grady, of Everett, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hammond, H. D. Grady and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Chace, of Atkinson, went to Denver for the funeral rites.

Nephew Dies in Tractor Accident

ATKINSON—Mr. and Mrs. George Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spence and family, and William Spence returned Friday from Winnebago where they attended the funeral of Harold Norris, a nephew of Mrs. George Spence.

Mr. Norris was killed earlier in the week when his tractor went out of control on the ice at the top of a hill. Mr. Norris was hauling a load of corn behind his tractor when the accident occurred. A friend tried to warn him of the danger, but was too late. He leaves a family of five children.

Seriously Hurt in Unusual Accident

PAGE—While trimming trees on the Will Simmons ranch, south of Page, James Bartos suffered a deep cut on his foot.

The axe caught in tree limbs. In trying to free it the blade fell on the top of his foot, cutting the foot lengthwise.

Mr. Bartos was weakened from the loss of blood before the Simmons could get him to Page to a doctor. He was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Freeman Knight, in O'Neill.

SAM ANDERSON STRICKEN IN WEST

Remains Forwarded to Atkinson for Funeral; Burial at Phoenix

ATKINSON—Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Presbyterian church at Atkinson for Sam Anderson, former Atkinson man who died of a heart attack Wednesday, November 10.

Final rites were originally scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, but the remains were nearly 48 hours late in arriving in Atkinson.

Mr. Anderson was stricken while walking on the street in Port Angeles, Wash. His body was brought to Atkinson from there for burial in the cemetery in the Phoenix community where he lived for many years.

He moved to the West coast several years ago. At the time of his death, he was visiting a nephew, who lives at Port Angeles.

Survivors include: Son—Chester Anderson, of Phoenix; daughter—Mrs. George Barnes, of Racine, Wisc. several grandchildren.

Pallbearers were: Elmer Sterns, Albert Sterns, William Coleman, Orvil Hitchcock, William Wilkinson and Fred Naber.

Tragedy struck twice in the Chester Anderson home within a week. Mrs. Anderson's father, Arthur Lee, was killed instantly when struck by an automobile at Olympia, Wash., on Friday, November 5. His body was also brought to Atkinson for services and burial was in the Stuart cemetery.

Vehicles Collide on Intersection

CHAMBERS—An accident in which no one was injured occurred early Saturday at an intersection on state highway 95, one mile east of Chambers.

Vehicles driven by Lloyd Wintemote, of Chambers, and D. Lockwood, of O'Neill, were involved. Wintemote was accompanied by his two small brothers.

The cars were both slightly damaged.

Tentative Date Set for Santa's Visit

Tentative arrangements have been made for Santa's visit to O'Neill on Saturday, December 18.

These plans were made Tuesday, November 9, in the regular November meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Details will be made known later, according to Chamber President J. Leo Moore.

24 Pages... This Week

SECTION ONE
Editorial, "Why We Should Be Thankful"	Page 2
Romaine Saunders, "Prairie Land Talk"	Page 2
Drew Pearson, "The Washington Merry-Go-Round"	Page 3
A. Stroller, "Many Faces Seen in Tourist City"	Page 3
Blanche Spann Pease, "The Frontier Woman"	Page 6
Mary Devine Brennan, "Teen Tattler"	Page 7
"When You and I Were Young"	Page 7
SECTION TWO
Sports	Page 1
Churches	Page 2
Weekly Crossword Puzzle	Page 2
Classified Ads	Page 3
Jack and Jill Corner	Page 4
NOWADAYS Magazine Section
Alan McClain, "When You Hit the Jackpot"	Page 2
Ira Glick, "Found: World's First Small City"	Page 3
Paul McGinnis, "Uncle Sam Trustee"	Page 4
Kevin McCarthy, "Gridiron Express"	Page 5
Toni DeLay, "Holidays Are Cranberry Days"	Page 6
Anne Dexter, "Toys Teach and Stimulate"	Page 7