Steer Lives 21 Days in Snowdrift

DELOIT—Mrs. Thomas Meuret vouches for this story: The Thomas Beurets are wintering their cattle on the James Parkins place, located about four miles from the Meurets, and following the severe November 18-19 blizzard the Meurets were short one two-year-old steer.

Three weeks later Mr. Meuret and Mr. Parkins were looking after the cattle and their attention was drawn to a certain snow bank where they heard a critter "bawling." Digging a small opening where the sound was coming from they located the steer, where it had been trapped in the snow for 21 days.

They fed and watered the animal for two days more before they could dig it out, and then had to use crow bars to break the snow bank in order to make a path in to the animal that it might get out. Mrs. Meuret stated that the steer came out unscathed but was very thin.

The animal was very thin, having lost about two or three hundred pounds but Mrs. Meuret said that it had a very good chance to live.

Mr. Parkins and Mr. Meuret had walked right over the place where the animal was trapped, many times, the snow being packed completely over the animal. It is believed that it must have obtained air from underneath in order that it might breathe, as there was no opening from above. The place where it was trapped was so small that it could only get up and down, but could not move around being in 10 feet of snow.

The Frontier Woman — 'Do We Think Enough and Give Enough Support to 4-H'ers?'—Redbird Reader

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Hi there, all you nice people! What goes at your house these days? Got that pork or beef butchered and taken care of? We surely do bless the freezer lockers these days don't we, huh? I like to have them grind up the lard for me, too, then bring it home and render it. Have them cut off the skins first, or rinds as if you don't the lard will spatter so terribly. Lard which has been ground, renders quickly and there are few cracker crumbs like to put lard for Summer use in two quart glass jars. Seal it and it keeps perfectly.

Blanche Spann Pease which has been ground, renders quickly and there are few cracker crumbs like to put lard for Summer use in two quart glass jars. Seal it and it keeps perfectly.

You know what? I think potato soup is an awfully good thought these days. Here's a timely recipe for making some.

POTATO SOUP

Two cups diced raw potatoes, one quart boiling water, one pint milk, one onion, two tablespoons finely chopped parsley, four tablespoons butter, one teaspoon salt, pepper.

Coop the potato in the boiling water until soft, drain off and keep one pint of the potato water and rice the potato. Heat the milk in a double boiler with the onion. Cook the parsley in the fat, add the flour, stir until well blended, combine with the milk and the potato, stir until smooth, cook for two or three minutes, add the salt and pepper. Remove the onion before serving.

"How about some 'ham smothered with sweet potatoes' for lunch? Sounds good doesn't it? Here's how to fix it:

You'll need one slice of ham, three sweet potatoes sliced, two tablespoons sugar and one cup of hot water.

Brown the ham lightly on both sides and place in a baking dish. Spread the sliced sweet potatoes over the ham and sprinkle with the sugar. Add the hot water to the drippings, pour over the ham and sweet potatoes, cover, and bake in a moderate oven of 350 F until the ham is tender. Baste occasionally with the gravy, toward the last remove the lid, and let the top brown.

Subscription Winning Letter

Mrs. F. P. Hunter, of Redbird, wins our three-months' subscription today.

Dear Mrs. Pease: I have just finished listening to Ted Malone, our roving reporter. He was in Chicago and our 4-H convention show is there. What a wonderful talk he gave and the thought came to me, "Do we think enough and give enough support to our 4-H'ers?" Both clubs and members need our support. If the clubs are what they should be, they are educational and beneficial.

I have always been a 100 per cent booster for 4-H and extension clubs, Farmer's Unions and in fact any advancement or betterment for the farm and farmers. Every one should be behind these efforts where would the towns and cities be? We must have all to have any?

One thing I hate very much to see is the smaller farms being bought and annexed to other farms, making one large farm or ranch owned by one man, the buildings being sold and moved to town where so many of our would-be farmers are moving, too, because they can't find farms to rent anymore.

I think the time will come

Mrs. Charlie Lubber, of Dorsey, also wins a three-months' subscription to The Frontier.

Dear Blanche: I have finally decided that now is the time to get that letter to The Frontier Woman written.

We got our mail for the first time yesterday in 10 days. Since the big snow storm, it was just like a blizzard for days and the wind blew terribly. Some of the men turned out and cleared the road so our mail carried could be able to make the rounds if the others do their part.

SEVEN MINUTE ICING

One egg white, ½ teaspoon cream of tartar, ¼ cup of sugar, three tablespoons cold water, dash salt, vanilla extract. Mix first five ingredients in top of double boiler. Beat over boiling water with a rotary beater for about seven minutes or until mixture stands in firm peaks. Remove from fire. Ice cake immediately.
