village.

LONE CONTEST IN MUNY ELECTION

(Continued from page 1) rural roads were impassable man, Mr. Perry and Mrs. Con- for voters living outside the ard.

M. B. ("Spike") Lawrence col-lected 18 votes and Grant Peacock received 14.

There was no school election.

Lively Turnout at Ewing Polls -

EWING-One hundred and forty-seven ballots were cast in Tuesday's municipal election at Ewing

John Walker and Waldo Davis were reelected to the board of education with 91 and 87 votes, respectively. J. L. Pruden, only other candidate, pressed closely behind with 84.

new members for the village ready impassable, except to board. They are: L. C. Dierks and E. L. Welke. Dierks collect-ed 93 votes, Welke 87. Retiring village trustees are Clyde Allen, who was mayor, and Elrad Saunders. Neither Allen nor Saunders were a candidate for reelection.

2 New School Officials Picked at Page -

PAGE — Tuesday's election ed. was "very quiet" but resulted in the selection of two new members for the board of education. They are Melvin Held and Walter Christon. They succeed Roy Haynes, who moved away, and A. G. Braddock, who was defeated. Another name on the bal-lot was that of Ivan Heiss.

Only 105 votes were cast in the school election-97 in the town voting.

Dr. E. J. Bild was reelected to to town, the town council. Gerald Lamason is the new member, succeeding O. L. Reed, whose name was not on the ballot.

Porter, Taylor New Chambers Trustees -

succeed Joseph Daas and Clifford Gillette. There were no names on the ballot in Tuesday's election. One Ound and the sub soil is "so hundred and four votes were cast.

Taylor received 94; Porter, 82; Gillette, 11; Edwin Wink, 6; Daas, 3; Charles Spath, 2. There was no school election at Chambers.

No Opposition in Inman Balloting

Inman Balloting— INMAN — Dan Sholes a n d David Morsbacs were reelected to the board of education at Inman witth no opposition. Inman witth The Elkhorn had risen to 9.3 see if he could buck the drifts fee hour will be held from 10 feet Tuesday morning, a foot and deep snow once more. As to 11 a. m. The ladies will be above the reading of Monday far as the "Big Tin Lizzie" be- free from 11 to 12:45 a. m. ROYA night. It is still rising, and with high water coming from the O'- same name could readily be Neill and Inman areas, it may applied to Gus, for he has gone leave its banks in this vicinity. with the mail many, many times Until Tuesday night, all homes when on one else would think THEATER were intact and no evacuations of trying. He has been mail carrier up O'NEILL * * * the Big Sandy and from Stuart to Naper for many years, and there have been very few days THURSDAY - APRIL 7 Letters to Editor Clark Gable, Jeanette Mac-Donald and Spencer Tracy in that he has missed. Mail Relay Evolves from Mud Problem — CHAMBERS — Mail during The article written by the "Little Old Lady" in last week's Frontier with the San Francisco thought of keeping O'Neill clean was fine, but as we read it, we could not help thinking of another vital cruing provide thought of keeping O'Neill the past week has been reaching is the past week has been reaching. The past week has been reaching is the past week has been reaching is the past week has been reaching is the past week has been reaching. The past week has been reaching is the past week has been reaching is the past week has been reaching is the past week has been reaching. There past week has been reach with Jack Holt, Jessie Ralph and Ted Healy. Adm.: 42c, plus tax 8c, to-al 50c children 10c, plus tax 2c, total 12c. * * * FRIDAY - SATURDAY -APRIL 8-9 fault of our local postoffice but ing against the mud in doing the Big Double Bill work of one, on Saturday the it's practically impossible for 10-mile roundtrip for the halfnewcomers to secure a box, Frank Buck's Original track required four hours' travel Frittons Honored -- " our town has grown so rapidly, and where two, three and sometimes four families have time. Bring 'Em Back to share the same box there Rural Schools Raise Alive are bound to be mail mix ups. This is not much to discredit our local office, but O'Neill $139 in Polio Drive has, it seems, outgrown the setup we have. If this need could be met it would make a lot of people happy. Other towns do it. Why can't we? If we need more sidewalks, let's build them! "A Comparative Newcomer" Holt county rural school work. Holt county rural schools raised $139.90 in the 1949 fund-raising campaign for the Na-tional Foundation for Infantile ja McCullough, who directed "A Comparative Newcomer" Holt county rural school work. Holt county rural schools raised $139.90 in the 1949 fund-raising campaign for the Na-tional Foundation for Infantile ja McCullough, who directed "A Comparative Newcomer" - also -Allan Lane and Bobby Blake in Stagecoach to Denver District number 9, taught by Helen Burival, sent the largest Adm. 42c, plus tax 8c, To-tal 50 — Children 10c, plus tax 2c, total 12c. "A Comparative Newcomer" The secret Chinese Hung Socontribution, amounting Matinee Saturday 2:30 ciety is sixteen centuries old, Body temperature reaches its lowest early in the monring. according to the Encyclopaedia * * * Britannica. SUNDAY-MONDAY-TUES-DAY · APRIL 10-11-12 M-G-M Presents the First SPRING CLEARANCE SALE Big Picture of 1949! Clark Gable, Walter Pidg-eon, Van Johnson, Brian Donlevy in and Cathy, plan to locate in O'Neill. Mr. Johnson will be an Allis-Chalmers block repre-sentative. The Johnsons for-merly ranched near Spring-ON BATTERIES... Command Decision view WHILE THEY LAST !! with Charles Bickford, John Hodiak, Edward Arnold. Adm. 42c, plus tax 8c, to-tal 50c — Children 10c, plus tax 2c, total 12c. Liberal Allowance of $7 to $11 on Your Old Battery. Matinee Sunday 2:30 * * * These Batteries Are All First Line Mer-WEDNESDAY - THURS-DAY - APRIL 13-14 chandise . . . Fully Guaranteed . . . All Betty Hutton and Macdon-Popular Sizes. ald Carey in HUNT'S RECAPPING Dream Girl SERVICE Adm.: 42c, plus tax 8, to-tal 50; children 10c, plus tax 2, total 12c.

Meanwhile, L. R. Tompkins, Harry McGraw and George P. Coleman were returned to the village board without a contest

SEEPAGE CAUSES

Prevent Ruin in

School Gym

EWING-An estimated 18

closed to travel.

The

Only 47 votes were cast, the historic blizzards. Tractors mostly by townspeople because and horses have been the only rural roads were impassable sure means of conveyance.

neighborhood of 25-years-old or more — have been put to use and seen on streets of O'-Neill and other Holt communities. Teams and wagons have DAMAGE AT EWING been in common usage for weeks.

Calving crises, created by last week's unseaonable blizzard now has been alleviated, although losses have been fairly high.

Atkinson was virtually cut-off from the outside world for inches of snow fell here last week, bringing the year's total hours. to nearly 90 inches. Roads al-Most communications w e r e etery bridge across the Elkhorn river East of town has horn river East of town has CELIA — On eWdnesday, been washed out for a distance March 30, the worst single blizof nearly 50 feet. The highest reading of the Elkhorn was very wet snow, blown by a 10.15 feet, almost seven feet strong wind, covered trees, upabove normal. No damage to rooting a number of them and the bridge north of town on higghway 108 has been report- beast to be outside.

Wind Uproots Trees

Many farmers and canchers were caught without feed. Losses may be greater than followingg thee November storm due to the weakened condition of the cattle.

Many basements in town are filled with water. Theree has been no flooding in town, but the high water table causes len. Phones were out of order Little relief is in sight. On several days. saturated that most of the wat- by Storm er will run off," one observer said Flood conditions became wore again here Monday night good many travelers here and and Tuesday. The rampaging South Fork Creek undermined the East approach to the bridge crossing V. S. highway 27', South South of town, the full width of the bridge and six to eight several of the farmers North of

RIVER HIGHEST IN 52 YEARS (Continued from page 1)

Several carriages in the Pump Night-and-Day to several days and was without light and power for about 30

tractors, are now completely Thursday. approach to the cem-

in Celia Neighborhood -

very wet snow, blown by a made it dangerous for man or Several in the Celia commun-ity lost stock. Huge drifts again filled yards and made traveling impossible for a few days. On Saturday D. F. Scott and Ed Hoffman followed the snowplow out from Atkinson and got within a few miles from their The air lift was called back into operation here Friday and Saturday. Flyers were busy once more carrying supplies to those who are unable to get

Mr. Scott got within a mile of home and left his car and walked the rest of the way.

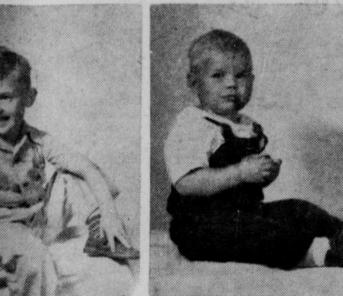

The same afternoon Robert most basements and cellars to fill from seepage. Nels Berg- with tractor which had a box strom, school custodian, has fastened to it to carry groceries been pumping night-and-day and mail for several neighbors. Robert came home Sunday. One and a half- to two-feet of snow is believed to have fal-

Travelers Stranded

STUART-Last week's unexpected snow storm stranded a

JICSAWS AT 4 . . . Folks, this week the Jack and Jill editor is introducing Neal and Darrell Smith, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Smith, of Stuart. Neal (left) is four-years-old. He has blue eyes and brown hair. Neal keeps busy with his tractors, cars and counts the time until he can go to school. He became quite a jigsaw puzzle fan during the past Winter and he spends a big share of his time working at them. Darrel (right) is twoyears-old. He has brown eyes and light brown hair. He is a real farmer. Darrell very often gets into trouble with his sister, Doris, when he gets into her toys.

NEAL (LEFT) AND DARREL SMITH

New Date Set for

The Rural Women's recognition program, sponsored by the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce Holly won first prize; Mrs. Juwhich was to have been held on Thursday, April 14, has been postponed until Wednes-day, April 27. Invitations are being sent to presidents of Woman's Project clubs in Brown, Rock, Keya which was to have been held

Deloit Community CHAMBERS MAN Wages Mud Battle

Emil Lieswald, Sr., Dies: DELOIT — A mud battle is in progress here. Until this week Native of Stuttgart, there has been no rural mail service since March 19. High school pupils at Bartlett have been unable to get to their homes

Germany

years-old, Fremont was

He attended school at Pebble

On March 6, 1894, he was united in marriage to Hen-rietta Schwanke. Eight years later they moved to Woods county, Oklahoma and lived there seven years. The next three years were spent in

Commanche county, Okla-

The Lieswalds moved to Nebraska in 1910 and to Holt county in 1920. In 1942, they retired and moved to Chambers where parochial school and was con-

the services.

near Snyder.

firmed April 19, 1885.

home.

homa.

home

CHAMBERS — Funeral ser-vices were held Sunday after-noon at St. Paul's Lutheran church for Emil Lieswald, sr., 80, who died early Wednesday morning, March 30. Rev. L. A. Dale, church pastor, conducted the services the O'Neill students made the trip to Clearwater by tractor and trailer, and Randall Hixson met Emil Lieswald was born on September 17, 1869 at Stutt-gard, Germany. He was baptiz-ed as a Lutheran in infancy. them, taking them back to their studies.

Tractors have been the pri-mary source of transportation for more than four months.

At the age of 31/2 he came A bulldozer opened the coun-ty line, one mile East of Deloit, oh Monday evening, March 28, following the first Spring storm. A number of ducks, geese and with his parents to Dodge county, Nebraska. Until he was 15his His next home was on a farm cranes have been seen in flight going North.

The Deloit community receiv-ed 12- to 14-inches of snow last week. The tulips were up and the robins had arrived.

The rural phone line has been unserviceable. Patrons are unable to contact the exchange. A group of men made the trip to Hupp's store last Thursday, found the roads "plenty tough", but no mail.

Other Stuart News Mr. and Mrs. Clem Olberding entertained a group at cards March 27. A lunch was they have since made their served at the end of the games.

> Give the watch with the self-protecting heart vler incaflex Come in and see demonstration of the Incaflex balance wheel YELLOW TOP $39.75 17 jewels McCRARY'S

> > "Styled Right . . . Priced Right ... to Sell on Sight"

Mrs. Ross Chairman of CDA Committee-

Recognition Program The Catholic Daughters of America held its business meeting Tuesday evening at Meadow Grove and Emil, jr., and the Knights of Columbus hall. Leslie, both of Chambers; daugh-In the drawing Mrs. Stanley

Mrs. Oliver Ross was chair- children.

ATKINSON- The Atkinson in March.

O'Neill

Phone 289

high school is well-represented at the district music contest in O'Neill this week. One hun-weighed 157 pounds according dred and one musicians are en- to the Encyclopaedia Britan-The luncheon and style show will be held at 1 p. m. tered from Atkinson high in nica. the class C section. Selections by choral groups follow: Mixed chorus: "Two Can-Sixty members of the Knights of Columbus council 701 met Sunday for breakfast at the Knights of Columbus hall in O'-Noill Sector 2010 Noble Cain.

Knights of Columbus Hold Breakfast ---

they all sent their best wishes by way of telephone. Mrs. Klinger received a bout 18 phone calls. Frittons Honored — ' Misses Louann and Marilyn Fritton were guest of honor Thursday evening at a sur-prise party given in honor of their birthday anniversaries. The party was given at the Bollordrome Games furnished by Conrad Fredrick; "Tumbling Tumble Weeds," by Bob Nolan. Boys' octette: "Kentucky Babe," by Adam Gerbel; "I Got Shoes," by Noble Cain. Mixed quartette: "My Love-by Celia," by Noble Cain; "Lil'

Solos as follows: Maxine Jones, high voice: "Romance," from the "Desert Song," by Romberg; "Sounds," by Cards at the Golden Hotel with Mrs. Homer Mullen as hos-tess. Mrs. L. M. Diehlman, Mrs. W. J. Froelich, Mrs. H. J. Birm-ingham and Mrs. H. J. Lohaus were winners W. J. Froelich, Mrs. H. J. Birm-ingham and Mrs. H. J. Lohaus were winners. Night," by David W. Guion; "Sunshine in Rainbow Valley," by Hamblen.

Helen Spence, low voice: "I Walked Today Where Jesus Newcomers to O'Neill-Mr. and Mrs Norman C. Johnson and daughters, Leslie "Let Me Remember Music," by Francis McKay.

> Don't be sorry again this year -see our wallpaper before you buy.-Western Auto, O'Neill. 43c11.

> > Easter

FOOD SALE

Saturday, April 16

Golden Hotel

Dining Room

O'Neill Presbyterian

Church

Entertains Delta Dek-Evelyn Stannard entertained the Delta Dek club at h e r home last Thursday. Mrs. H. J. Lohaus and Mrs. M. J. Golden were winners. The club met earlier for dinner at the M & M cafe.

Friendly Neighborhood— The Friendly Neighbor club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clay Johnson, jr. The club postponed its meeting last week because of bad weather.

Women's Association Visit in East -Mrs. Carroll W. Stewart and daughter, Suzanne, departed Monday for Millburn, N. J., for a several weeks' visit with rela-tives. They traveled by rail.

ATKINSON, NEBRASKA

60 BULLS

Quality worthy of adding to your herd, 40 coming twos, 20 coming yearlings.

70 FEMALES

The females consist of open heifers, bred heifers, cows and calves. The cows are rebred to the sires listed below.

ALL SIRED BY THESE EXCELLENT HERD BULLS: Adv. Brummel, Pioneer Lad 30, Domestic Lamplighter, WHR Jr. Reality 17, Spartan Lamplighter, Laddie Domino

For Sale Catalog, write

ERNIE WELLER, The Auctioneer, Atkinson, Nebr.

and the second second the second second and the second second